IT IS HARD GOING BECAUSE OF STORMS
Reports From Suburbs—Four Below This Morning in Fairville.

The effects of the storm are still very apparent in the districts just outside the city. Roads are reported very heavy, in some places the snow banked high in the roadway and teams had to make passage by utilizing fields. Teamsters out toward Grand Bay and also from Spruce Lake direction say training is very arduous work since the last snow fall.

One side of Main street, Fairville, is still impassable for teams. It will cost a great deal to remove the snow, and yet the situation might be serious if a rain storm came along or a decided thaw occurred. The really only clear space is the street railway track which was kept open all through Wednesday's blizzard. This morning the thermometer registered four below in Fairville at 7 o'clock.

RECEPTION TO BRIDE AND GROOM

An enjoyable reception was held last evening by the patrons and staff of the Salvation Army Hotel in honor of two members of the staff, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Breen, who have just returned after their wedding tour. They were married in Oxford, N. S., on Feb. 24, and after a short honeymoon trip came to this city last evening. On entering the hotel a surprise came as all showered the happy pair with confetti and streamers. After cheers and a rousing reception, the party adjourned to another room, where a pleasing programme was rendered. Arthur Harris was the chairman and gave an opening address of welcome. The following programme was given: Song, Ensign and Mrs. Laurie; comic song, Arthur Harris; recitation, Miss N. Craft; piano recital, Sergeant Tomkins; cornet solo, Ensign Laurie; presentation of a reading lamp to the bride and groom, and appropriate songs were given. Refreshments were served and after the National Anthem and For He (and She) Are Jolly Good Fellows, the party adjourned.

NOTABLES ON THE IMPERATOR

The Robert Reford Company, Limited, have received cable advice announcing the sailing of Cunard Line R. M. S. Imperator from Liverpool for New York on Feb. 27. Included among her passengers are Lord and Lady Auckland and daughter, Hon. Susan Constance Eden, Sir Ernest and Lady Glover, Countess Louis Dray, Hon. Crestes Ferraz, Don Enrique Sotag, Colonel and Mrs. A. D. McCree, C. B., and Col. H. S. Dunn, C. M. G., D. S. O.

IT HAS COME!

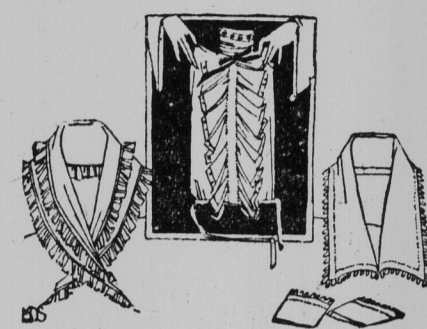

She wasn't particularly attractive, nor was she one of those ladies whose social or other activities made her popularity known in the city. It was not known that she was one of the factors in the recent movement towards uniformity in dress for the working girls, yet she was certainly attracting attention as she passed quietly along the street. To the distant observer she bore no distinction from the hundreds of other active people who passed to and fro; but all eyes turned and followed her. The reporter noticed "a story." He hastened his steps and the "story" developed. She was wearing a straw hat, every bit of straw. He's a scion, stooped and gazed at a nearby thermometer. It was three below zero, and the most unkind cut of all—she was a working girl.

MORE ALIENS HERE.

Four more cars of aliens reached the city this morning from the west to sail aboard the steamer Melita for Europe. They are being deported from Canada as undesirable.
