NEW ADVERTISING AGENCY IS FORMED

Strong List of Canadian and American National Accounts Will be Represented by R. Sykes Muller Co., Ltd., Montreai.

Incorporation has been granted to R. Sykes Muller Co., Limited, advertising and merchandising service, to handle the appropriations of large Canadian and American firms, which are well known in the advertising field. The new agency has established its main office in the Southam Building, Bleury street, Montreal.

The new agency takes its name from its president and managing director, R. S. Muller, for the past two years general manager of the Canadian Advertising Agency, Limited, Montreal. Mr. Muller's activities in the advertising field during the past for years and a half are LADIES' TAILOR is hard to practice, but since the war, prices are declining and the firm who during the past five years and a half are well known to Canadian newspaper and advertising men. Before becoming general manager of the Canadian Advertising men. Before becoming general manager of the Gagnier Advertising Service Montreal. Previous to that he was assistant advertising manager of the Gagnier Advertising Service Montreal. Previous to that he was assistant advertising manager of the New York Times. His earlier connections include service with the N. W. Ayer & Son of Philadelphia, the Morse International Agency and Sing Fat Co. New York.

Since coming to Montreal Mr. Muller has specialized in conditions as pertaining to Canadian advertisers and publications with the result that he has built up a strong list of clients, who will place their business through the new agency.

Associated with Mr. Muller in the new company is C. F. Goldthwaite, who will be sergerary-treasurer of the caragization.

LADIES' TAILOR is hard to practice, but since the war, prices are declining and the firm who can give you the lowest prices and best value is not the man who has laid in Started Wednesday, Jan. 29th.

John Glick, the ladies' tailor at 106 king street, is moving to Halifax. But he sore to close out his present stock of ladies' clothes. He will start a sale of the above goods wednesday morning and will continue selling his stock in suit lengths until they are closed out. He wishes to announce that part of his blue serges are also for more to close out his present stock of ladies' clothes. He will start a sale of the above goods welling his stock in suit lengths until they are closed out. He wishes to announce that part of his blue serges are also heavy enough for men's wear.

Therefore it will be a splendid opportunity for the ladies to get their suits for spring at less than wholesale.—John Glick, 106 king street, upstairs.
