VOTE FOR ALEXANDER CORBET

There are many reasons why citizens should vote for Alexander Corbet at the final civic election. His record as a successful business man is known throughout the city. Sandy Corbet has built up his reputation by fair and honest dealing. If he is elected commissioner he will represent all sections of the city. The door of his office will always be open to every citizen. He will endeavor to introduce at City Hall the same safe and sane business methods which he has acquired through his years of experience as a business man; and remember a vote for Corbet is a vote for lower taxation.—Adv't.

THE CLEARING

(Edith M. Thomas in N. Y. Times) I will go back—I have said so oft in the spring of the year.

To the places that I knew first—the places I still hold dear.

Where the world was no older than I—A night, and a sleep—and the morn (For the world, in the thought of a dreaming child, with the child is born).

Back to the half-tamed land—to the clearing, so close to the wood, Where the chill west wind of the maple stirs in buckets a-brimming wood.

And the nut-hatch perches to drink, and the flicker is laughing on high, And the sod is soaked, and the rain-pool darts with sunny eye.

And here, where the choppers have been, the smell of the chips is keen; In the coil of a stump the grass-blades are starting so rank and so green.

With a pioneer violet folk—the blue and the pied and the white, And there, through the char of a burning trunk—so tricky and bright, A flame, like a small twisting serpent winding its way, I shall see.

Mid this wild clearing—a prosperous field in the years yet to be; And my feet shall know warmth in the soil, but no scorch from that useful fire.

Helper of Man, to conquer rough Nature and shape her to his desire, I have said it so long, that I would go back in the Spring of the year! But something has told me 'tis better to stay and to dream of it here—The world that was born with the child, with the child let that world remain; And my memories tenderly, but visit it not again.

One of the earliest of popular novels, "Don Quixote," is one of the longest. It contains 461,000 words.

Little straight coats that do not meet in front but are worn tuxedo fashion are shown with many wool and silk frocks.

At our West Side Meat Market we have a full line of choice Western Beef, Veal, Pork and Vegetables. Try our Ham, Bacon and Bacon for Easter, at lowest prices. Phone 12188-188. Goods Delivered. 4-21

FOR COMMISSIONER

I thank you very much ladies and gentlemen, for your votes and kind interest in my behalf. As it is impossible to see you all personally I desire in this public way to express my appreciation. Having the honor to be in your hands for the final vote of April 28th, I can only trust in your confidence once more, and whatever the result, it is my earnest desire that the choice may be wise. I will be content if my city is well and wisely governed. Yours sincerely, W. L. HARDING
