CITY CORNET BAND
FAIR CLOSING TONIGHT

Big Drawing Will Take Place and Great Bargains Offered

The City Cornet Band Fair in St. Andrew's hall will close tonight. A large number of prizes are still on hand and great bargains will be offered all visitors. The big drawing for $500 and 187 other prizes will take place. This will be the "big" night, better come and secure a bargain or one of the great prizes.

MOVIE MANAGER VIEWS SCREEN THROUGH PERISCOPE.

The periscope has now made its way into civil life, and by means of one the manager of a large motion picture theatre is able to watch the screen without leaving his desk. The apparatus, which is shown in the December Popular Mechanics Magazine, involves the installation of a set of mirrors in a large tube, one nearest the screen being set in a de wall, at the front of the balcony.

TILL TAX CAPACITY OF COUNTRY FOR YEARS

Reconstruction work will tax the productive capacity of the country for many years, and other materials for years, said B. Parker, commissioner of priorities of the War Industries Board, told members of the National Lumber Association in Chicago. He predicted it would be twenty years to rebuild France. The speaker said he understood construction permits for new work in New York would total $200,000,000.
