

That this Synod adopt simpliciter the Preamble and Basis, as contained in the Report of the Committee on Union, as a ground of Union between the United Presbyterian Church and the Presbyterian Church of Canada.

After reasoning for some time the hour of nine o'clock arrived, and the Moderator asked if the Synod should now adjourn. It was agreed to suspend the standing rule requiring the Synod to adjourn at the hour mentioned, and to proceed for another hour with the consideration of the question before the court.

At the hour of 10 o'clock, no decision on the foregoing motions being arrived at, the Synod adjourned till 9 o'clock to-morrow morning, and the Sederunt was closed with prayer by Mr. Caw, and the benediction by the Moderator.

II. SEDERUNT.

TORONTO, Wednesday, October 3, 1860.

9 o'clock, A.M.

The Synod met and was constituted by the Rev. Mr. Drummond, Moderator.

The roll was called and marked. Sederunt, ut supra.

The Rev. George Murray being present was invited to correspond.

Read the Minutes of the first Sederunt, which were approved.

Resumed consideration of the subject interrupted by the adjournment last night.

2. Amendment.
Mr. Logie.

It was moved, in amendment to the former motion and amendment, by Mr. Logie, seconded by Mr. Skinner,—That this Synod give hearty thanks to the Great Head of the Church for the unanimity reached on the subject of Union, at the last meeting of the Joint Committees of the Presbyterian Church of Canada and this, the United Presbyterian Church; and that this Synod
