IN A BAD STATE.

The crossing at the corner of Prince Wm. and Brittain streets is in a fearful condition, and evidently has not been cleaned for several years. This morning a number of ladies who wished to reach the American boat hailed a passing sloven and were taken across in safety. It would pay a man to have a sloven there every morning.

OKLAHOMA ON THE NASHWAAK.

The Reporter has a new name for Marysville, calling it Oklahoma. The editor says: This busy town is rapidly filling up, and although scores of new residences are erected every season, it is yet impossible to build houses fast enough for applicants. The hotels and boarding houses answered very well until the marriage boom set in, and the knowing ones say links are being welded every evening that will soon terminate in a bond of union as strong and as broad as the town itself.

A MAD STEER SHOT.

A St John man bought a big steer from a Kingsclear farmer yesterday, but did not make much of the purchase, as the animal had to be shot before it reached Fredericton. While being driven down it became suddenly mad, and took possession of government lane for some time last night, so that people were afraid to venture up that way, at all. One little girl narrowly escaped what would have been a serious hooking, and the owner had to mount the fences several times to escape injury. He finally decided to shoot the animal. A rifle was procured, and the mad steer was suddenly brought to the ground while dashing along the road.—Fredericton Gleaner.

THE LATE MR. BRADSHAW'S FUNERAL.

On Saturday afternoon all that was mortal of Jacob Bradshaw was interred at St. Martins. Mr. Bradshaw died in Hampton on Wednesday last at the age of 95 years. Mr. Bradshaw for a number of years, was engaged in the shipbuilding business, and he was a part owner in a number of vessels. About ten years ago Mr. Bradshaw retired from active business and took up his residence at Hampton Village. The deceased gentleman was a very liberal contributor to the Baptist church. He gave between $50,000 and $60,000 to the Foreign Mission Board of the Baptist Convention of the maritime provinces. The Baptist church at Hampton Village was built to a large extent by Mr. Bradshaw. The deceased left a widow and one son, Dr. Bradshaw, who is preaching in P. E. Island. He had a number of grand children.

HE KICKED HANNAH.

In Fredericton on Friday Hannah Hoyt (colored) had Henry Burtt before the court for assault. While the trial progressed the Court room was crowded and as question and answer followed it was almost impossible to stay the laughter of the spectators. Hannah conducted herself with coolness and was indignant when questioned. Sergt. Vandine first shook his fist at one and another of the "colored troops," and an occasional threat of the lockup came from the Judge. Hannah declined to address the ebony colored damsel at the side of Burtt as his wife; she declared they were never married. Mrs. Burt would then roll her eyes and expose her ivory. Mr. John Dean while on the stand always spoke of Mr. Burtt and his lady. The amusement was then brought to an end when the P. M fined Burtt $4 50 for costs and kicking Hannah.

HE COULDN'T GET THROUGH.

A word to the wise is generally believed to be sufficient, but to the young man who wanted to pass through the I. C. R. depot gate this morning without a ticket, a practical admonition had to be given before he could be made to thoroughly understand his position. He remarked that as an official of the N. B. Railway he had a right to pass through the gate as he pleased. The gate keeper, however, was of a different opinion, and the young man took the trouble to walk about a quarter of a mile up the track to get in the back entrance. He was spotted again and ordered out. He wanted to fight some one, but believing the better part of valor to be discretion, and doubtless intimidated by the sight of men who really meant business, he went away vowing vengeance on everybody but himself.

Poor little Hawke of the Transcript must be badly off for political ammunition when he blames the Conservatives of Canada of today for the Tory riot of forty years ago, when the Montreal Parliament House was set fire to and burnt. The man who did the deed, Mr. Alfred Perry, is a very good Liberal now; and all the old New Brunswick Tories who applauded it, and who still survive, now call themselves Liberals.

The spring time tables of the N. B. railway and International S. S line go into effect next monday.

The ball must not be touched with the hand save by the goal keeper for when it becomes lodged in a place inaccessible to the crosse, and the player touching it in the latter case must "face" with his nearest opponent. Should the ball catch in the netting, the crosse must be struck on the ground to dislodge it. No player shall interfere in any with another, who is in pursuit of an opponent in possession of the ball. "Shouldering" is allowed only when the players are within six feet of the ball, and then from the side only. Any player using profane or ungentlemanly language during a match on the second offence shall be ordered by the referee to leave the field. His team shall play shorthanded. In the event of a flag pole being knocked down during a match, and the ball put through what would be the goal were the poles both standing, it shall count game for the attacking side.

A DIFFERENCE OF OPINION.

BETTING ON KILRAIN.

The following is a copy of a letter received in New York from Charley Carroll, the well known sporting man of Baltimore who acted as referee in the great battle between Collier and Edwards, for the lightweight championship of the world and $2,000. Mr, Carroll has been commissioned by a well known wealthy gentleman of Baltimore to make the following bets in favour of Kilrain in his coming battle with Sullivan. First bet—$500 that Kilrain gets first blood. Second bet—$500 that Kilrain gains the first knock-down. Third bet—$1,000 that Kilrain gets first fall. Fourth bet—$1,000 that Kilrain wins the fight, and an additional $1,000 that he will not receive a black eye. All five wagers must be accepted, and the money deposited in the hands of Cridge, the stakeholders to await the result of the contest.

BETTING ON SULLIVAN.

Sullivan's fighting days must be supposed to be dead by Baltimore sports for only a few years ago either Charley Carroll or John H Rooney would have covered every bet, even if twice the amount for Sullivan. The Baltimore gentleman will, it is said, be accomodated with plenty of takers.

Two well known Chicago gentlemen will enter a syndicate of five at $10,000 each to accommodate the Englishmen who are anxious to back Kilrain in his fight with Sullivan.

DANGER!

People having Feather beds and Pillows do not seem to realize the danger there is in using them without being cleaned, especially in times of an epidemic, as feathers retain all the exhalations and poisonous matter exuding from the person, and by so doing spread sickness through the family.

Our steam cleansing process eliminates all the poisonous matter and leaves the feathers in a better condition than ever.
