

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

It was moved by Rev. R. W. Woodsworth, seconded by Rev. J. S. Williamson, D.D., and

Resolved,—That we have listened with great delight to the appropriate and beautiful address from Mrs. G. A. Mitchell, the representative of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Hamilton Conference. We desire to express our profound interest in the great missionary operations of the Church, and our high appreciation of the noble work that has been accomplished by the Woman's Missionary Society, both in this Dominion and in foreign lands. We pray that the rich benedictions of Heaven may rest upon our sisters in the great work in which they are engaged, and we pledge our hearty co-operation in promoting this, a most important enterprise of the Church.

BRETHREN VISITING ENGLAND.

It was moved by Rev. W. C. Henderson, D.D., seconded by Rev. John Wakefield, and

Resolved,—That inasmuch as our esteemed brethren, Revs. Wm. Savage, James Harris and John Pickering, are about to visit their native land, England, and may have the opportunity of visiting various ecclesiastical gatherings during their absence from us, we therefore have pleasure in commending them to the esteem and confidence of our brethren of the Church of God, wherever they may visit.

WESLEYAN LADIES' COLLEGE.

It was moved by Rev. F. A. Cassidy, M.A., seconded by Rev. J. V. Smith, D.D., and

Resolved,—That we have listened with great pleasure and interest to the report of Wesleyan Ladies' College, by the Principal, Rev. A. Burns, S.T.D., LL.D. We rejoice in the success achieved and so long sustained by this Institution. We esteem it for its history as the pioneer of ladies' colleges in this country. We respect it for its high grade work, and its able staff and management; and we heartily commend it to the people of our whole Connexion, as a most desirable and reliable place for the education of young ladies.

WESLEYAN THEOLOGICAL COLLEGE.

It was moved by Rev. John Philp, M.A., D.D., seconded by Rev. Isaac Tovell, D.D., and

Resolved,—That this Conference has heard with peculiar pleasure the clear and strong address of Rev. Dr. Antliff, Professor of Apologetics, Hebrew and Homiletics in the Wesleyan Theological College, Montreal, and rejoice in the continued and increased prosperity of this important institution. It is most gratifying to hear of the work that has been done; the number of students in Arts and Theology who have had the privilege of attending during this year; the exceeding care being taken in the doctrinal teaching imparted and the spiritual influence pervading the Institution. We rejoice in the success that has crowned the effort of the Bursar to increase the Endowment Fund, and the prospect of
