NEWFOUNDLAND.

(From the Liverpool Standard.)

The state of this colony demands the instaneous interference of the government at home. The strange and anomalous proceedof the Popish house of Assembly nive assumed so serious an aspect, hat we do not hesitate to affirm. seembling Parliment at an early eriod this year, for the purpose of taking the state of the colony nto consideration, as there was ast year for the purpose of crush ing the rebellion in Canada. A early have the merchants of town drawn the attention of the coretary of State to the den susequences which have reions which have been suffered, or so long a period, to distract Belonging to the Insolvent Estate he island. There can be no ert of benefit which may be Capt. good to the community, to the lamentable condition of newoundland. There we find justice | openly insulted and det at difiance-religion converted into an engine of persecution and oppression-property rendered insecure commerce paralysed and the personal liberty of the subject infringed with impunity. How, indeed could it be otherwise, when those who are most interested in the welfare and prosperity of the colony are deprived of all share in the management of its internal affairs, and when the raffish and ignorant Popish mob reign triumphant and uncontrolled? God forbid that we should ever see the lay when such scenes as have been recently enacted in Newfoundland hall be witnessed in happy England! But as certainly as cause follows effect, so surely will the same flagrant violations of " law and justice, religion and humanty," spring from the successful igitation of the principle of universal suffrage in Great Britain.
