DEATH OF GEORGE COOK. Geo. Cook, one of the oldest settlers of Moncton, died Sunday morning at at the advance age of 88. Deceased was born in St. John and came to Moncton about 1828, when there was not more than a dozen houses in the place. He has resided here most of the time since, but lived in Portland, Maine, Providence, R. I., and Boston, for, a number of years at different periods. When in Moncton he worked at shipbuilding and house joining; he ness for a time, but from 1874 to 1881 he was a familiar figure about town, driving the express wagon. He has not since been engaged in any active business, and for two or three years has been very feeble, The funeral will take place on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.—Times.

THE MARITIME PROVINCIALS

(Worcester, Mass., Spv.) President H. E. Townsend and the committee of arrangements for the coming banquet of the Maritime Provincial Association, March 6, are progressing nicely with their plans. The indications are that a royal good time will result. Some well-known people from out of town are expected, among them are Attorney General Longley of Nova Scotia, Mr. Anderson of the Boston Globe, E. McIntire of Boston, and several others who have not been heard from. Dr. J. G. Schurman of Cornell university, a friend of J. B. Coulson of this city, will not be able to attend, as he will be engaged at Jacksonville, Fla.
