Chief Clark stated that with all due deference to the last speaker he would say that he did not know of what he was speaking about. Mr. Rutledge had complained to him of the injuries received at the hands of the officer. McCollom, he reight say, was one of the best men on the force and one that had had no complaints chalked up against him heretofore.

Ald. Frink particularly objected to Jenkins and T. H. Mosher alleging unfair treatment were ordered filed. fair treatment were ordered filed.

The matter of a police officer's allowance when absenting himself from duty on account of sickness was also discussed, as was the claim of Wm. Rutledge for damages growing out of inuries said to have been received by him at the hands of a joker-policeman. Both of these cases were referred to the chief for disposal.

There were present at the meeting Ald. Vanwart (chairman), Ald. Scully, Baskin, McGowan, Holder, Kelley, Ald. Frink particularly objected to the publicity afforded. To have it go breadcast that the St. John police employed their spare moments in toppling old men over was of itself sufficient to demand the services of the board in an adjustment of the difficulty. The chief was instructed to investigate the occurrence and to report back Baskin, McGowan, Holder, Kelley gate the occurrence and to report back to the committee. Frink, Sproul, Director Wisely, Chiefs Clark and Kerr and the common clerk.
