BUTTERICK'S AGENCY!

HAVING purchased the entire stock of BUT-TERICK'S PATTERNS, and secured the Agency thereof, I hereby notify the Ladies of St.
John and vicinity, that until further notice, I will continue to sell them at 91, Greenmarket Street.
These Patterns are too well and favorably known throughout the Maritime Provinces to need any comment; and I trust by strict attention to business merit that same share of public patronage which has been so generally extended to my predecessors.
It shall always be my aim to keep in stock a complete line of sizes most needed, and thus prevent inconvenience in waiting.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK IN ST. JOHN AND HALIFAX.

And the Happenings in Social Circles of Fredericton, Moncton, Richibucto, Dorchester, St. Stephen, Sussex, Amherst, Truro, Calais, Etc.

When you go to the country or seaside next week, send to you every week. It costs only 10 cents a month.

It was most unfortunate that my manuscript for last week should not have reached the office of Progress in time for publication, when I tried to make it of more than usual interest, for carnival week, giving the addresses of many of the visitors and describing a number of social events given in their honor. Space will allow of my repeating them all, but I will give my readers, as far as I am able, an account of some of the larger entertainments given for some of St. John's guests last week.

On Wednesday (July 24) an "at home" on a very large scale was given by Mr. and Mrs. George F.
Smith, Union street, in honor of the many strangers in the city, the officers of H. M. S. "Tourmaline", the visiting cricketers, and St. John friends of the host and hostess.

These "at homes" are perhaps never more appreciated than at a time like carnival week, when so many friends who have not met for years have an opportunity for seeing one another and enjoying pleasant intercourse.

The guests were invited from 5 to 7 o'clock, and during that time, though no special amusement was provided, all seemed thoroughly to enjoy themselves.
A most substantial lunch was prepared, the table being most profusely decorated with flowers.

Among the guests present were Sir Leonard and Lady Tilley, Miss Ketchum (St. Andrews) Mayor and Mrs. Gordon (Fredericton), Colonel and Mrs.
Armstrong, Major and Mrs. E. T. Sturdee, Dr. and Mrs. Holden, Dr. and Mrs. Murray McLaren, Miss Wetmore (Fredericton) Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hazen, Miss Tibbits (Fredericton) Mr. and Mrs.
J. C. Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Stairs (Halifax) Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lee, Mr. and Mrs. George Mc-Leod, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Macdonald, Mrs.
Downey (Toronto) Miss Edna Jones, Mrs. I. Allen Jack, the Misses Jack, Mr. and Mrs. George Coster, Miss Lily Hazen, Miss Maude Green (St. Andrews) Miss Travers, Mr. Travers, Mr. H. De-Bury, the Misses DeBury, the Misses Burdette, the Misses DeVeber, Miss Warner, Miss Macmillan, the Misses Robertson (Rothsay) Mr. and Mrs.
Busby, Miss Burpee, Miss Snider, the Misses Drury, Mr. and Mrs. Stratton, the Misses Smith, Mr. Hope (Toronto) Mr. Lindsay (Toronto)
Rev. J. DeBoyres, Mr. Cliff (Fredericton), Mr.
Jarvis, Mrs. Blair (Ottawa), Misses Kaye, Mr. and the Misses Turnbull, the Misses Dover, the Misses Adams, Mr. F. H. J. Ruel, Mr. Lawton, Mr.
Edwards, Mr. Keator, Mr. K. McLeod, Mr. Ritchie and Miss Beatrice Ritchie (Ottawa), Mr. Kirkwood, Mr. C. Harrison, Miss Macdonald, Mr. J. McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Alward, Mrs. L. R. Harrison, Miss Bradford (Boston), Miss Katie Smith, Miss Cramm (New York), Miss Stevenson (Montreal), the Misses MacLaren, Mrs. Jones (Prince Edward Island), Miss B. Hatheway. The visiting Toronto cricketers were also present.

Notwithstanding the many attractions in connection with the carnival elsewhere, a very large number of people assembled in Trinity church, on Friday afternoon, to hear the organ recital and selections by the St. John Oratorio society. A very carefully arranged programme, selected from the different oratorios, was well carried out, the principal solos being taken by Rev. Father Davenport, Mr. Daniel, Mrs. Black and Mrs. Perley. Among the songs of the best rendered choruses was the well-known Hallelujah chorus and "Lift up your heads," from The Messiah; "O Father, whose almighty power," from Judas Macabees; "The heavens are telling," from The Creation, and "I waited for the Lord," from The Sign of Peace. The recital being sung most artistically by Mrs. Perley and Mr.
Black. Mr. Morley played the accompaniments on the organ in his usual finished style, while Mr.
Percy Strande, organist of Trinity church, wielded the baton most satisfactorily.

One of the principal social events of last week was the very enjoyable dance given on Friday evening, July 20th, by Mr. W. M. Jarvis at his residence King street east. All the young society people were present, together with a number of strangers and several of the officers of H. M. S. "Tourmaline." Although everyone had spent a most fatiguing week they all seemed quite up to more enjoyment, and kept up the dancing with much spirit until two o'clock. Refreshments through the evening as well as a handsome supper were provided for the guests. To prevent the ball room being overcrowded a lawn at the back of the house was planned and waxed, and as the evening was fine many enjoyed dancing in the open air better than indoors, the novelty as well, perhaps, adding to the enjoyment.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Morris Robinson (Rothsay), Mrs. Downey (Toronto), Mr. and Mrs. W. MacLachlan, Dr. and Mrs. Murray McLaren, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hazen, Mr. and Mrs. Busby, Mr. and Mrs. Stratton, the Misses Bayard, Mr. and Mrs. Yarnes, Miss Green (St.
Andrews), Miss Edith Burpee, the Misses Robertson (Rothsay), Miss Hall (Rothsay), Miss Hazen, Mr. and the Misses Drury, Miss Beatrice Hatheway, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Sturdee, Miss Mary Sturdee, the Misses Robinson, Miss Randolph and Miss Powers (Fredericton), Miss Kate Smith, the Misses Tuck, the Misses Adams, the Misses Snider, Miss Katie Burpee, Miss Macmillan, the Misses Mac-Lachlan, the Misses Smith, the Misses Parks, Miss Tibbits (Fredericton), the Misses Stevenson (Toronto), Miss Edna Jones, Mr. Finlay, Mr. F.
H. J. Ruel, Mr. Kirkwood, Mr. M. B. Edwards, Mr.
Frank Starr, Mr. Adams, Mr. Macmillan, Mr. H.
Tilley, Mr. L. Tilley, Mr. H. Symonds, Mr. Lawton, Mr. Charles Harrison, Mr. Snowball (Chatham), Mr. F. Tippet (Liverpool, Eng.), Mr. Bateson (Amherst), Mr. Hope (Montreal), officers of H. M.
S. "Tourmaline" and many others.

The courtesy of the admiral has been much appreciated by St. John people. On Saturday, July 27, cards of invitation were issued to about 30 or 40 people by Capt. Byles to lunch on board and witness the regatta. The day was a glorious one, and a very good view of the races was obtained from the ship. Luncheon was served after the regatta, after a few waltzes were played by the band of the 62nd Foot, and dancing on the deck was much enjoyed by those present. Among those on board were Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Almon, Judge and Mrs.
Tuck, the Misses Tuck, the Misses Stephenson (Montreal), Major and Mrs. E. T. Sturdee, the Misses Sturdee, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Sturdee, Mr. and Mrs. Stratton, Miss Burpee (Boston), Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Miss Bradford (Boston), Mr. I. Allen Jack, the Misses Jack, Mr. James Robertson, the Misses Robertson, Mrs. and Miss Hazen, Dr. Christie, Miss Edna Jones, Mr. K.
Jones, Mr. Hope (Toronto), Mr. George Coster, Mr. and Mrs. Botwick, Miss Botwick, Mr. J. Lawrence, Miss Lawrence, Major Tuck, Major Mc-Lean, Col. Downville, Miss Downville, the Misses Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Busby, and Miss Edith Burpee.

Miss Maude Green (St. Andrews) is the guest of Mrs. Laura Wetmore (Fredericton) was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Holden, during carnival week, and is now visiting the Bay Shore.

Mrs. Marsh (Fredericton) is the guest of Mrs.
Thurges, Colborne street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. MacLachlan returned from their bridal tour last week, and are residing with Mrs. MacLachlan, Colborne street. The bride received their friends this week. On their arrival

Ladies, and Children's Dresses, Batters, Janes setting or Cotton cleaned at Ungers Steam Laundry.

home they were presented with a very handsome coffee urn from the employees of the firm of Barry & Macdonald.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Taylor of London, Ont., spent last week with Mrs. Elder, Prince street, and are now visiting in Halifax.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stairs (Halifax) spent the past week in St. John, at the Hotel Dufferin.

Miss and Mrs. Louis Millidge returned from their wedding trip last week and received their friends at their residence, Rockland road, this week. A party was given in their honor at the residence of Mr.
Thomas Millidge on Friday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Walker are looking very well after their trip to Scotland.

Mrs. Lawson, accompanied by her sister Miss May Harrison, are on their way to Liverpool, England, to spend a short time. Mrs. Lawson intends eventually making St. John her home.

Miss Yarnes and Miss Appleton (Boston) are the guests of Judge Tuck.

Mr. John Hastings (Boston) spent last week among his old friends in St. John.

Dr. Murray McLaren has returned from his fishing trip.

Mr. G. Y. Crookshank, Mr. W. L. Blair and Mr.
John Hodgins (Ottawa) are the guests of Mr. R.
W. Crookshank, Sydney street.

Mr. R. G. Moran, of New York, is visiting St.
John.

The music loving public of St. John will be sorry to hear that they have lost one of their best and truest singers, Mr. H. G. Mills, he having left St.
John to return to his home in England. Mr. Mills left via Halifax early last week.

Mr. Henry DeBury, of the Military College, Kingston, is the guest of Dr. Doyle Travers, Sydney street.

Miss Tucker (Boston) is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. W. Turnbull, Elliott row.

Miss Randolph (Fredericton) is the guest of Mrs.
W. Beverley Robinson, Main street.

Mrs. Win. Snider (Boston) is visiting her mother, Mrs. M. N. Powers.

Miss Annie Gilbert (Dorchester), is the guest of Mrs. C. E. L. Jarvis, Elliott row.

Miss Maria (Sharnbrook, Ont.) is the guest of Mrs. Seely, Dorchester street.

Among other visitors in St. John at present are Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Grimmer (St. Stephen) Miss Gove (St. Andrews) Miss Ada McLeod (Sussex)
Mr. M. Snowball (Chatham) Mr. Hawtry Godard (Portland, Maine) and the Misses McDonald (Montreal); the latter are the guests of Mrs. G. Barker.

On Tuesday last, July 30th, a large and most enjoyable dance was given by Judge and Mrs. Tuck, at their residence, Elliott row. Upwards of 100 guests were present, including many of the strangers visiting our city, and Capt. Byles and the officers of H. M. S. "Tourmaline". The damp, foggy weather on that night was rather a drawback, as it kept many indoors who would otherwise have enjoyed a stroll in the garden between dances. However, it was universally thought in the parlors of Mrs. Tuck and the Misses Tuck in making most affable hostesses. I have been unable to obtain a complete list of invited guests, but nearly all the society people of St. John were present. On this occasion Miss Alice Tuck, the youngest daughter, made her debut.

Rothsay has also been very gay this week. On Thursday evening Mrs. William Hazen entertained a number of her friends to an evening party. It was most enjoyable, many young people from St. John went out to it.

Invitations have been issued by Mrs. John Mac-Millan for a large tennis and boating party to take place today, Saturday.

The guests leave town by the 3 o'clock train, returning at 6 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Kincaid gave a very pleasant At Home on Friday from 3 to 7 o'clock, at their residence, Carleton street. Although a very large number were present it was not overcrowded, the rooms being so spacious. Sumptuous refreshments were served during the afternoon, including ices, seasonable fruits, etc., and the afternoon was much enjoyed. Miss Daisy Kincaid, who has been some time absent from St. John, seemed very pleased to meet many of her old friends again.

H. M. S. "Tourmaline" steamed out of port on Thursday at 2 p. m., to be present with the other warships at the Halifax carnival. The captain and officers made many friends while in St. John.

TERNSHORE.

[Progress is for sale in Fredericton at the bookstore of W. T. H. Fenety and by James H. Har-thorne.]

from Fredericton, any communications addressed to her non de phone, "Stella," Box 131, Fredericton, will be forwarded and receive attention at this office.
THE EDITOR.]

JULY 31.—The streets of Fredericton present a lively appearance this week than they did during last week. A large number of our citizens have returned home, while yet a good many are still sojourning at some of the popular seaside resorts or spending their vacation in a quiet way among their friends.

On Tuesday morning a company of ladies and gentlemen consisting of Rev. G. G. Roberts with his family, Mrs. Parker Glasier, Miss Mabel Hunter, Mr. Payzant, from Halifax, Mr. H. G. Fenety and others, took passage on the neat little steam launch belonging to the Boom company and made their way for the Jensen, where, three miles from its mouth, they expect to pitch their tents and do some camping out in the real genuine way. Their outfit consists of four commodious canvas tents, abundance of provisions for the inner man, hammocks, swings and everything necessary for real enjoyment and comfort. The company expect to be absent about two weeks.

What is every year becoming a most popular summer resort for Fredericton people is Hamstead where during the past three weeks Mr. C. H. Lugin's family have been resting themselves from the cares of housekeeping. On Wednesday morning Mrs. W.
T. H. Fenety with her children also left to spend two or three weeks there, and during the week C. H. B. Fisher with her family and Mrs. William Lemont expect to follow for a short stay. The house known as the Queen's hotel, Hamstead, under Mrs.
J. S. Vanvart, is well known to river travellers and all who go there rely on the best attention in every respect.

Mrs. Judge Steadman left on Tuesday morning for Bay Shore, where she will be joined by Mrs. E. W.
Fenety, from Cambridge, with her children. They have taken rooms there and will spend a few weeks at this now famous holiday place.

Miss Harriet Rainsford is spending a few weeks with friends at Rothsay.

Mr. Tom Allen, half-brother of Sir John Allen, who has been quite seriously ill at his home in King'scliff for some weeks past, has improved somewhat in the last few days, and his friends now hope for a speedy restoration to his usual good health, under the skillful treatment of his physician Dr.
Coburn of this city.

Mrs. James K. Randolph is visiting friends in Albert county, and expects to be absent some five or six weeks.

Mr. John Lawson, a former Fredericton boy, and who was for years in the employ of E. Cheesnut & Sons, has returned home from the West for a well earned vacation, after several years absence. His friends are glad to see him back again.

Mr. Frederick Tippet, who has been in Liverpool, England, for the past two years, has made his appearance among us again, looking exceedingly well.
Mr. Tippet expects to settle in Montreal, where he goes into business for himself, he is a very popular young man and should do well wherever he casts anchor.

Captain Wood, of the Fredericton, is spending Ladies, Washington's Ice Cream Parlors his holidays among his friends here. The captain is looking as hale and hearty as he did when living here years ago. He is now engaged in the well known grocery firm of Cobbs, Bates & Yerna, Boston.

Miss Gertrude Hunt, daughter of Mr. George C.
Hunt, druggist, leaves in a few days for a lengthy visit to her sister, Mrs. Davidson, Chatham. Miss Beale returned home on Wednesday last.

Misses Fanny and Mabel Lemont are in St. John, the guests of their aunt, Mrs. Thompson.

Hon. Judge Steadman and Mr. J. Henry Blair are enjoying a salmon fishing trip on the Miramichi.

Mrs. Ball, mother of Mrs. J. B. Winslow, died at Woodstock on Sunday last.

Four Fredericton boys earned off the prizes in the same races at the St. John carnival regatta on Saturday last, viz., J. D. Harrison and John Ruel winning first prize, with W. B. Carman and Lewis Bliss, second.

Mr. William W. Street, who has been in poor health for several months past, passed away on Tuesday last. The deceased was a son of the late Hon. John Ambrose Street, and was born at Newcastle in 1828. Mr. Street was a man whom to know was to like, and he enjoyed the esteem of scores of friends in Fredericton and St. John. He was a member of the St. John regatta on Saturday last, and was very largely attended.

Bandmaster Hayes, of the Royal Infantry School corps, received, on Monday evening last, by express, a beautiful gold cornet. The same was a mystery and surprise to Mr. Hayes, and not until he had opened the case and examined it was the mystery solved. It proved to be a gift from Mr.
George H. Marquaid, who had recently been visiting here from New York. Mr. Marquaid told Mr.
Hayes one day that he liked his band so much that he would make him a present, but the worthy bandmaster did not expect him to follow up his remarks in such a substantial manner. The cornet bears the following inscription:
