Nº 111-113 WILLIAM ST. & 61-63-65 JOHN ST.

Roy V. Somerville, Esq., City.

Dear Sir:

As we feel that we are receiving so much benefit from our advertising in "Progress," St. John, N. B., we request that you will have our advertisement inserted every week instead of every other week as per conversation with the writer a few days ago.

Yours truly,

Humphreys' Homeopathic Medicine Co.

H. B. Harrington
Actuary.

Dictated.

Mr. Herbert Harrington who was recently in this city on a sad mission called upon PROGRESS in the course of his short stay and in his chat commented upon the fact that in his seven years experience as the head of the advertising department of that large concern, the Humphreys Homeopathic medicine company PROGRESS was the second paper that he had voluntarily endorsed as being of such value as an advertising medium that the company increased its business with it. The letter was published once in these columns but it is produced again in this connection in facsimile.

Mrs. Mary E. O'Fallon, a very intelligent lady of Piqua, Ohio, was poisoned while assisting physicians at an outbreak 5 years ago, and soon terrible ulcers broke out on her head, arms, tongue and throat. Her hair all came out. She weighed but 73 lbs., and saw no prospect of help. At last she began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and at once improved; could soon get out of bed and walk. She says: "I became perfectly cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla."

am now a well woman. I weigh 128 lbs., eat well and do the work for a large family. My case seems a wonderful recovery and physicians look at me in astonishment, as almost like one raised from the dead."
