Officials State That No Confession Was Left—Death Instantaneous When Trap Fell—LeNeve Did Not Sail

London, Nov. 21.—Dr. Hawley Harrison today paid the penalty for the murder of his wife, Beth, 32 more, the actress, within a few minutes of the stroke of nine, the morning-hour officially fixed for the execution. The hanging was in Pentonville prison, where the prisoner had been confined since his return to this country following his arrest in Canada.
 The condemned man, who throughout his trial and even until his arrest, Secretary Churchill had refused a petition for his reprieve, had maintained an imperturbable calmness, presented a pitiable appearance as he was literally led through the short corridor from his cell to the scaffold. His mental anguish had been too great to be concealed by outward bravado and it was a broken man from the wardens were obliged to assist up the steps to the drop, which once reached, the shrinking figure all but collapsed.

Death Instantaneous.
 The black cap was quickly drawn over the face, then moved forward and the bolt drawn. Crippen, who weighed 140 pounds, was given a drop of seven-feet. Death was instantaneous.

From the time that his reprieve was refused, the physician's condition had been one of agonized prostration.
 He would see only Clara Ethel Le-Neve, love for whom it is asserted was the compelling motive for the murder of his wife; Solicitor Newton, who had made a game fight for his client, and Father Carey, to whom ministrations he paid respectful attention.

The final interview with Miss Le-Neve yesterday was most painful and already in the shadow of death the convicted murderer made no effort to suppress his emotions upon parting with the girl. During the remainder of the day he was in a state of complete nervous collapse, retiring to his bed utterly despondent.

Priest With Him.
 Father Carey, who has been much with Crippen at Pentonville, remained at the prisoner's side throughout the night and accompanied him to the scaffold.

The streets in the neighborhood of the prison were filled by the time the hanging occurred, although the fog was so dense that the outlines of the prison buildings could barely be seen from the street in front. There was a strong police guard on hand which kept the crowd from approaching the buildings.

So eager were the authorities to avoid publicity that the usual batch of prisoners, whose time had expired, were executed an hour before the usual time, thus clearing the prison of all office of all outsiders. The hoisting of a grim black flag, which was seen as it shot to its place, through a rift in the fog, announced to the crowd in the streets that Dr. Crippen was dead.

Some time after the crowd had disappeared a notice was posted on the prison gates announcing the judgment of death has this day been executed on H. R. Crippen, in the presence of the governor of the prison, the undersheriff and the coroner. The physician's certificate of death was also displayed.

No Confession.
 The announcement of the execution from the prison was accompanied by the official statement that Dr. Crippen made no statement or confession whatsoever before being hanged.

Now that Dr. Crippen's lips are forever sealed, the usual post-mortem rumors of an eleventh hour confession are afoot. These should be read in the knowledge that on Sunday last the condemned man issued a signed statement in which he asserted his perfect innocence and that since that day, as for several days before, he had positively refused to see any one other than his keepers, Solicitor Newton, Miss LeNeve and Father Carey.

This morning, following the execution, the prison authorities issued an official statement declaring that no confession had been made. Dr. Crippen denied that he had confessed. His attorney says that so far as he knows, his client is innocent. What was said to the priest preceding absolution cannot, of course, be known.

If Crippen confessed, as is asserted by a newly established evening paper, he made poor work of it, for the paper gives no authority for its assertions, which are credited to an anonymous friend of the physician, who is himself quoted but briefly. The only alleged new facts brought out are that Crippen was treating his wife for indigestion and substituted poison for the proper medicine, and that he purchased in a shop in Holborn a dissecting instrument, which was used for the purpose of dismembering the body of the murderer thrown into a neighbor's garden. In spite of this careless disposition of the tell-tale weapon, it has never been recovered by the police.

With these exceptions the alleged confession is a recital of the well known story of crime which might have been told by any one who had followed the widely published proceedings of the court.

Following the execution, the inquest required by law was held, the jury returning a verdict to the effect that the sentence of the law had been duly carried out. The proceedings were held in the prison. Dr. Wilson, an official witness of the hanging, testified that death was caused by a fracture of the vertebrae. There was no resistance or struggle on the part of the condemned man, and the whole proceedings from the entrance of the condemned man to the execution were dead, occupied only sixty seconds.
 Death was instantaneous, the physician said. The foreman of the jury inquired of the coroner if he might ask whether any confession had been made and received the reply: "No, that does not concern us."
Did Not Sail.
 Southampton, Nov. 21.—So far as can be learned Ethel Clara LeNeve did not sail on the steamer Majestic for New York today, although she had booked a second class passage under the name of Miss Allen. It is thought that she had changed her plans after that she had been divorced, though it is possible she will join the vessel at Cherbourg or Queenstown.

MRS. GOULD FEARS POISON

KATHERINE CLEMMONS GOULD.

The shadows rest painfully upon the former wife of Howard Gould, after all her spotlight and caecium.
 She rushed into Lynnhurst, Va., the other day from her country home, Blue Gap Farm, hysterical over three alleged attempts to poison her. Physicians found on evidence of poison.

Mrs. Gould has been rather quiet since the sensational divorce in which charges and counter charges flew thick and fast. She was awarded a paltry $25,000 a year alimony, and she has in her own hand a sum which couldn't possibly live on it. The divorce cost, for both sides, a total of over $600,000, including detectives' bills of $150,000, fees of $350,000 for lawyers and $50,000 for witness fees and extra pay.

Jealous Suitor Attacked Girl and Father on Board Barge in Harlem River—Then Cuts Own Throat.

New York, Nov. 21.—Wearing a white gown which was torn and from many wounds, in her head, shoulders and arms, a girl of eighteen Monday evening leaped from a barge tied up at 127th street and the Harlem river onto a city boat, on which were Patrick Whitney, Charities Commissioner, and his wife, the deputy commissioner, Win. J. Wright and his wife, Mrs. Frank Shober and Mrs. John B. Clayton and her son Robert, the well known athlete, and fell unconscious among them, after being physically that someone got into the act of her father, who was being murdered.

It was in response to the girl's cries that the city boat had run alongside the other one and when the city officials and several boats the girl's plea they ran into the cabin of the barge from which she had leaped and there found her father unconscious and bleeding from the throat, and Bernard Lynch, who had attacked them, with his throat wound from a self-inflicted razor wound, breathing his last.

In the cabin of the barge there had been a terrific fight, which began with the girl's refusal to accept the attentions of the man who, after trying to commit double murder, killed himself when he heard the footsteps of the city officials on the deck above and knew escape was impossible.

Lynch went aboard the Sea Gull dressed in a nightgown and a girl dressing in a nightgown, demanded an explanation. She told him she was going to a theater with another suitor.
 According to the girl, Lynch then demanded to kiss her several times. If she intended to marry him, and she replied that she did not.

Thereupon Lynch, the girl says, grabbed a hatchet which was lying on the floor of the cabin, and struck at her, but she avoided the blow and started to run around the place with Lynch brandishing the hatchet. In pursuit of the girl several chairs and then the table and the noise awoke her father, who was asleep.

Before he could go to her aid the girl had been cut on the arms in warding off the blows from the hatchet, which were aimed at her head. She was cut several times on the shoulders and finally got a side-long blow on the head which lacerated her skull.

Father Fights For Girl.
 Schulties then began to battle with Lynch, and she ran on deck and shouted for help. There were 15 or 20 men on the decks of barges nearby, but none paid heed to the girl's cries.
 At that moment the Riker's Island, a new vessel just built for the city and which was on her trial trip, was coming down the river. The officials and the women on board heard the girl's cries and instructions were given to Captain Parkington to put in alongside the barge. This took some time, but meantime Mr. Wright grab-bled a man and yelled to the men on the other barges.

"Why don't you help the girl?" This seemed to rouse the men, who ran from one barge to another and they got aboard the Sea Gull, but several of them ran into the cabin, but the sight they saw made them retreat.
 In a few moments the Riker's Island was beside the Sea Gull and the girl leaped among the women of the party begging aid for her father and then fell unconscious. Messrs. Whitney, Wright, and Clayton, the latter well known as a professional athlete, leaped from the Riker's Island to the Sea Gull and hastened to the cabin, where they saw Schulties lying unconscious and Lynch beside him with a razor in his hand and brandishing his last. He died in a few moments.
 In the meantime Captain Parkinbabies' SORES IN WINTER

Mothers Should Know About Zam-Buk.
 Every mother should realize that the skin of her baby is so tender that the secretions of the body often lead to rashes, eruptions, etc., all of which may be removed by Zam-Buk. Scores of rashes, erythema, eczema, upon examination are found to be suffering from some form of skin irritation or "heat." Don't let baby suffer when Zam-Buk will cure!

Often too, in winter, the little ones suffer from chaps on the chin, hands, or other parts of the body. Zam-Buk applied after the bath, and at intervals during the day, will prevent all trouble.

Mrs. L. Wood, of 475 Alexander Avenue, Winnipeg, says: "I have procured the value of Zam-Buk when applied to children's sores. Some nasty sores broke out around my baby's mouth, and despite all the preparations used, they refused to heal. I took him to St. Boniface Hospital and he remained there for two weeks. At the end of that time he was no better and we again took him home. I was then advised to try Zam-Buk and obtained a supply. The effect of the first few applications was very gratifying, and a little perseverance resulted in a complete cure."

Zam-Buk will also be found a sure cure for cold sores, chapped hands, frost bites, ulcers, eczema, blood-poisoning, varicose sores, piles, scalp itching, ringworm, inflamed patches, babies' eruptions and chapped places, cuts, burns, bruises and skin injuries generally. All druggists and stores sell at 50c. box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, upon receipt of price. You are warned against harmful imitations and substitutes.
 See the registered name "Zam-Buk" on every package before buying.

THIRD
 OPERATION
 PREVENTED
 By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Chicago, Ill. — "I want to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. I was so sick that two of the best doctors in Chicago said I would die if I did not have an operation. I had already had two operations, and they wanted me to go through a third one. I suffered day and night from inflammation and a small tumor, and never thought of seeing a well day again. A friend told me how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had helped her, and I tried it. After the third operation was cured." Mrs. ALYSSA STRIBLING, 11 Langdon Street, Chicago, Ill.

If you are ill do not drag along at home or in your place of employment until an operation is necessary, but build up the feminine system, and remove the cause of those distressing aches and pains by taking Lydia E.
 Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, in-cretion, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?
