MARRIAGES.

MACDONALD-PEARS—At Spingmin, th, by Rev. H. G. Estabrook, James L. acDonald, of La Belle (P. Q.), to Missikabeth E. Pears, of Truro (N. S.) McG-LL-LIVRAY-BISHOP—At Digby, Oct. by Rev. Geo. Woolf, Miss Mina Allen ishop to Rev. Donald McG-llvray, of Lunishop to Rev. Donald McG-llvray, of Lunishop to Rev. DUIT.

VANTASSEL-VanTASSEL—At the Baptist arsonage, Digby, Oct. 30th, by Rev. F. H. als, George Wylie VanTassel and Ella May, uighter of Charles VanTassel, all of Mt.

DEATHS

SHIP NEWS.

PORT OF ST. JOHN

V H Murray, Gallagher, for MachiasHolly & Son.
Vene, Williams, for Vineyard Haetson, Cutler & Co.
—Schr Jessie D, George, for L M Ellis, Lent, for Westport; nton, Mitchell, for Weymouth.
Saturday, Nov. 1.
Lucia Porter, Sprags, for Vineyard
f o, Stetson, Cutler & Co.
Preference, Gale, for City Island f o, Nurchie.

on & Co.

Republic, Carson, for Boston, Jas R

r & Co.

Sallie E Ludlam, Pedersen, for City
f o, Stetson, Cutler & Co.
Romeo, Williams, for New Haven,
A Cushing & Co.
wise—Schrs Silver Cloud, Post, for E Mayfield, Merriam, for Parrsboro; Colwell, Alexander, for Point Wolfe;
t, Milner, for Annapolis; Geo L Slipp, Ogilvie, for Wolfville; Wanita, Fillmore,
Windsor; Alice, Kindred, for Parrsboro.
Monday, Nov .3.

mr Athalie, Madsen, for Sydney, R P

V F Starr.

oastwise—Schrs Wide-Awake, Butler, for aver Harbor; Georgie Linwood, McGranan, for Margaretville; Temple Bar, 44, Gesfor Bridgetown.

Sailed.

Sailed.
Star State of Maine, Thompson, for Boston via Eastport, W G Lee.

Stmr St Croix, Pike, for Boston via Maine ports, W G Lee. CANADIAN PORTS.

McLean, from Hopewell Cape; Friendship Wilbur, from Alma; sturr Beaver, Stevens from Harvey, and eld for St John. Cld—Schr Wm Jones, McLean, for New ourg (C B), Nov 3-Ard, stmr Al

BRITISH PORTS. hatham, Oct 29—Ard, stmr John Christie, persen, from Manchester. Robertson, for Anerly, Robertson, for espersen, from Manchester. Robertson, for Cld-30th, stmr Anerly, Robertson, for orjectwood. Hallfax, Nov 2—Ard 1st, stmr Rosalind,

A CHARLES TO A STATE OF THE STA

2nd, Silvia, from St Jonn's (Nul); Hannat, from Boston.

Port Mulgrave, N S, Nov 1—Passed north, schrs Griquiland, from Savannah for Mabou; Bessie Wild, from Boston for Pictou.

Bristol, Nov 1—Sid, brig Gratia, for St John's (Nfid).

Claire Castle, Nov 1—Ard, bqe Culdoon, from Newcastle (N B) via Port Mulgrave.

Mumbles, Nov 1—Passed, stmr Vera, from Tilt Cove, supposed for Bremen.

Hillsboro, Oct 30—Cid, stmr Nora, Stabell, for Chester.

Halifax, Oct 31—Sid, bqetn Blanche, Sinclair, for St John's (Nfid.)

Avonmouth, Oct 31—Sid, stmr Monteagle, Perry, for Montreal. Avonmouth, Oct 31—Sld, stmr Monteagle, Perry, for Montreal. Bermuda, Nov 3—Sld, stmr Oruro, Seeley, for St John. Swansea, Oct 31—Sld, stmr Bengore Head, Phillips, for Montreal.

Form Hillsboro (N B); Dora C, from Moncton; Harry, from Weiston (N S). Boston, Oct 31—Ard, stmrs Halifax, from Halifax; for Port Greville (N S); Nellie Waiters, from Moncton; Harry, from Weiston (N S). Boston, Oct 31—Ard, stmrs Halifax, from Halifax; Mora, from Louisbours.

Sid—Schrs Alaska, for Boothay; D J Sawyer, for Philadelphia; Kipling, for Bridgewaters Belmont, for Weymouth. Delaware Breakwater, Del, Oct 31—Sld, bee Carlo, from Havre for St John. Hyannis, Oct 31—Ard, schrs Quetay, from St John for City Island (N Y). Machias, Me, Oct 31—Ard, schr Carries Strong, from Parsboro (N S) for Boston. Portland, Oct 31—Ard, stmr Mira, from Halifax for New York, in tow of tugs Goldian and C W Morse, and proceeded; schrs Riverdale, from St John for Poston. Vineyard Haven, Mass, Oct 31—Ard and sld, schrs Emma D Endicott, from South Amboy for Saco; Crescent, from Windsor (N S) for Hartford; Francis Shubert, from Sangor for Bridgeport; Cora May, from St John for Pawtucket; Manuel R Cuza, from St John for Philadelphia, Ard—Schrs Sam Slick, from Stonehaven for New Haven; Otis Miller, from St John for New Haven; Utility, from Stonehaven for New Haven; Utility, from Stonehaven for New Haven; Traulien, from St John for New York; Genevieve, from St John for New York; Genevieve, from St John for Washington.

Mrs. Brown's husband, the late Silas H. Brown, was well known 25 years ago as one of St. John's leading builders, many large and important buildings having been erected by him in the many years which he devoted to his business iter.

The elidered of Mrs. Brown are David

Charlottetown.

City Island, Oct 2—Bound south, schri
Estelle Phinney, from Windsor (N S); Manuel R Cuza, from St John for Philadelphia.

Delaware Breakwater, Nov 1—Passed up, strift Regulus, from Wabana (Nfid) for Philadelphia. delphia.
Eastport, Me, Nov 1—Ard, schr Wood Bros, from St John.
Sld—Schr R L Kennedy, for St John.
Sld—Schr R L Kennedy, for St John.
Small, for Bangor; Greta, for Moncton.
New Bedford, Mass, Nov 2—Ard, schr Melrose, from Windsor (N S) for Philadelphia via Chatham, in tow of tug Storm King (for Rockland.

Boothbay Harbor, Me Nov 3—Ard, schr
Lizzie Dias, from Weymouth.

Boston, Nov 3—Ard, stmrs Trojan, from Sydney, (C B); Brittanic, from Louisbourg; Florida, from Louisbourg; schrs Swallow, from St John; Riverdale, from St John.

Sid—Stmrs Mora, for Sydney (C B); State of Maine, for Portland, Eastport and St

Panagephia, 2007

Paragephia, 2007

Portland, Nov 2—Ard, schrs Lotus, from St John for Boston; Nellie Watters, from Monoton for Boston.

CRI—Schr Nellie, for Port Maitland.

Providence, R I, Nov 3—Ard, 2nd, schrs Cora May, Harrington, from St John; F & B Craven, from St George River (N B).

Cardiff, Oct 17—Barque Grenada, Putt, for able Bay, sailed from Penarth, coal laden, and has put back to the roads with captain ventor, Oct 28—The reported passing, 27th, of the ship Fred E Scammell, from San Francisco for London, was an error. Sydney Light, Oct 31—Passed, stmrs Belona, Rolle, from Cadiz via Halifax for fontreat; Longford, Hansen, from Montreal or London.

LIST OF VESSELS BOUND TO ST. JOHN.

Oct 21. Oruro, 1,249, at Halifax, Oct 27. Loyalist, 1,419, at London, Oct 24. Manchester Trader, 2,136, at Manc

15. Barques.
Carlo, 751, from Delaware Breakwater Oct 31.
Still water, Limerick, Oct 2.
Barquentines.
W. W. McLauchlan, 471, from Preston, E,

Shipping Notes. Norwegian steamer Unique, 1298 tons, ha een chartered to take deals from St Mar aret's Bay to Cardiff at 40s, option W. C

A private telegram states that the case of British stmr. Sellasia against stmr. Houns low has just been decided in Liverpool is favor of the Sellasia.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. John Damery.

Mrs. Mary Ann Damery, wife of John Damery, butcher, died yesterday afternoon after an illness of two weeks. The decease ed was 58 years of age and a daughter of the late Thomas and Hannah Hassett.

John Inch. The death of John Inch, of Jerusalem Queens county, occurred at Lancaster Friday morning. Deceased was 83 years of age.

Cantain J. Faulkner.

News has been received of the dealth of large and important outldings having been erected by him in the many years which he devoted to his business here.

The children of Mrs. Brown are David J., of Macaulay Bros. & Co.; Charles G., manufacturers' agent in this city; Rainsford W., of New York, and Estella, wife of George A. Coster, of New York. They have the deep sympathy of their many

Mrs. Brown was born in this city 72 years ago, and with the exception of a few years spent in New York, her whole life has been passed in this city.

J. J. Rippey, Carleton.

John J. Rippey, one of Carleton's old residents, died at 11.30 o'clock Sunday morning, at his home in Guilford street, aged 73 years. For many years Mr. Rippey conducted a grocery store on Guilford street, but in more recent years he engaged as teamster. In the last two or these pages of the street, but he had been determined by the street was referred to the street of the street. —Thomas Rippey, who carries on a gro-cery business on Union street, Carleton and Sand Point, and one daughter, Mar-garet. The funeral will be held at 2.30

Charles M. Chase, Journalist. Lyndon, Vt., Nov. 1—Charles M. Chase, editor of the Vermont Union and a prominent figure in Vermont journalism, died here today, aged 73 years.

The death of William Cole occurred Monday morning at his home Fairville, Deceased, who was in his 80th year, was born in Bathurst, but for many years had resided in Fairville. A widow and family survive. The members are Messrs. Benja St min and Harry, Mrs. Frank Allingham or Mrs. Adam Campbell and Miss Mina Cole

Mrs. Mary Stout, Fairville. Mrs. Mary Stout, widow of Thomas Stout, died at her home in Fairville Monday at the age of 88. Deceased was a native of Sootland, and had resided in Fairville for nearly 40 years. Mrs. Stout is survived by eight children, six of whom reside in Fairville. The children are: J. W. Stout, Thomas Stout, Mrs. Wm. Stout and Mrs. Wm. Baker, of Fairville, and two unmarried daughters; one son in Scotland, and another in Manitoba. The funeral will take place Wednesday after-

Mrs. Elizabeth Miller, Aged 101. Mrs. Elizabeth Miller, widow of Samu yesterday morning, aged 101 years.

Digby, Nov. 3-Roger B. Dakin, millealer, died at his home, Lighthouse road knew him. He leaves a wife and five band and father. His father and mother in Digby, brothers and sisters in the United States and Digby county also sur-

Accidental Death of Colonel Duncan. Halifax, Nov. 3-News has been received several years ago as commander of the Royal Artillery. The colonel had been entertaining some friends and when leaving went to a room to tie up some gar or them. Remaining longer than was expected, a maid was sent to find the caus he head. It is thought the shoot

Some Parisian restaurants charge a shilling extra for the use of the tablecloth.

"Yes," she said, "any new recipe I get hold of I paste in my cookbook. Why do you ask?"

"I thought you might like to have this bill for your Paris gown I paid today. That's a good receipt for French dressing, you know," said her husband, chuckling idiotically.—Philadelphia Press.

What is

Castoria is for Infants and Children. Castoria is a harmless substitute for Caster Oil, Paregorie, Drops ptains neither Opium, and Soothing Syrups. It c Morphine nor other Narcotic st use by Millions Its guarantee is thirty yea Mothers. Castoria destroys Worn and allays Feverishness. Castoria cures Dial has and Vind Colic. Castoria es, cur i ilates t Constipati relieves Teething Troub Fiatulency. Casto ia assi the Stomach and B. wels of regulates Food, farts and Children, giving the Children's healthy and natural sleep. Castoria Friend Panacea-The Mother storia. Castoria. "Castoria is an excellent medicine Mothers have repeatedly told me DR. G. C. OSGOOD, Lowell, Mass.

THE FAC-SIMILE SIGNATURE OF

APPEARS ON EVERY WRAPPER.

All the above stocked at SCHOFIELD BROS., St. John, N B , The E. B. EDDY CO.

CHEST FROM WRECKED SCHOONER AVALON.

Found Floating in Grand Passage-

The Wreck of the I. H. Goudy.

Freeport, N. S., Oct. 31 .- A seaman' marlin spike, seaman's clothing, and about $3 in British currency, besides a number of foreign coins. It was secured by Donald Thurber. A Telegraph correspondent called on Wade Thurber this morning and learned by describing the chest that it probably belongs to Seaman Richards (or Ritcey) of La Have, who was one of the sailors on the wrecked schooner Avalon. sailors on the wrecked schooner Avalon recently towed into Yarmouth by the steam trawier Messenger. Wade, Amos and Burrell Thurber, who were on the mouth yesterday, having been sent down by the British consul.

The schooner I. H. Goudy, ashore on he west side of Petite Passage, is a tota the west side of Petite Passage, is a total loss. Her cargo of flour, groceries, etc., has been saved in a damaged condition.

Heavy gales have prevailed here this mouth and boat fishermen are meeting with heavy losses. It is almost impossible for shipping to proceed this kind of weather. A number of coasters and nearly the entire fishing fleet are anchored off West-

The steamer Westport has been delayed owing to rough weather. She arrived last night from Yarmouth and sailed for St. John at 5 o'clock this morning.

TROUBLES TOO MANY FOR WOMAN; TAKES HER LIFE.

Springfield, Mass., Nov. 2—Mrs. Armenic Belleville, 26 years old who conducted a manicuring establishment, committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid today. Despondency over lack of funds to carry on her business and trouble over her husband, from whom she was divorced a year ago, are thought to be the causes for her act.

DIVORCE GRANIED.

Judgment in Turner vs Turner at Freder icton Yesterday

Fredericton, Oct. 31-Judge Gregory deof Maria Olivia Turner vs. Henry Tur-

partment. He was married to the petitione

Deny Czar's Illness St. Petersburg, Nov. 2-The rumor that the czar is suffering from a nervous complaint is officially denied.

AGENTS WANTED

AGENTS: RIGHT NOW

WANTED—Energetic and reliable solicit orders for our Nursery Sto have 800 acres of choice fruit and or trees, etc. Terms liberal. Outfit free. Apply for terms. Stone & Yel Toronto (Ont.)

WANTED—Reliable men in throughout Canada to introducating up show cards on along roads and all conspiculistributing small acceptant mission or salary $6.00 pc in penses, not to exceed $2.50 pc employment to good howest. No experience needry Writticulars. The Empire Ledicin Out

An energetic man can earn from $15 to $18 a week selling our goods. Large demand. Write for particulars. C. F. Fegan, Fenwick, Ont.

WANTED.

WANTED-A second or third class teacher in District No. 1, Clarendon, Charlotte coun-ty. Poor district. Apply, stating salary, to Robert M. Grabam, secretary to trustees Clarendon, Charlotte county. WANTED—Students to learn telegraphing Prepare for railway and commercial service and secure good positions. For terms and particulars apply to L. Vogel, teacher, 49 St. David street, St. John, N. B. 8-2-3m-sw

FOR SALE.

FARM FOR SALE—The undersigned offer his farm, consisting of 116 acres all unde cultivation, well watered; has a good hous two large barns, one artesian well; situates at Collina, Kings county, N. B., seven mile from Apohaqui. Terms easy. Inquire of Newton Sharp, Collina, or David H. Rees, Monson (Mass.)

MONEY TO LOAN MONEY TO LOAN on city, town, villager country property in amounts to that of country property in amounts to that the princess street. H. H. Pickett, colloids & Princess street. Et John Shipbuilding.

CROSBY & LANDERS, Port Makland, N. S.

VALERIA'S TRIUMPH.

usual manner of our becoming acquainted," Philip?"

observed Miss Vincy, with a slight smile at "Have I gone mad!" was her husband's the gentleman lazily leaning on the back of answer, as he took in all the details of her

Mr. Runsen, answering her smile, and answered lightly, with a tap of her point gently disengeging a soft white hand from its occupation, to hold it in his firm class. "Come along, will you? We sha "Oh! it is all very well, Mr. Runsen, for there at sensation time as it is, I fear." you to pretend that you did me no serious So Philip was content to kiss the pretty service, when you saved me from that horrible dog," commenced Miss Vincy with lined cloak. There was an universal hush much earnestness, then relaxing into play. in the conversation when Mr. and Mrs. fu'ness-"but if rumor is to be credited, Runsen's names were announced, for Mr. your clothes suffered in that encounter if Runsen had held quite a pronounced place you did not, Mr. Runsen," and Miss Vincy's ia society before his marriage, and it was gentleman vis-a-vis. ail and my heart," responded Mr. Runson with great solemnity, "but," leaning forward, to smooth the soft braids of her down cast head, "I have sued for heavy damages the air of a duchess and the self-possessed and won my case, have I not, Valeria?"

withdrew her hand as she spoke, and be- their recognition of the costliness of Mss. ame very intent upon her embroidery.

"I am almost ashamed to let you know," aid Mr. Rumsen with a slow reluctance i his tones, "only, that it is your right to be ing-did you know him in New York?" fully aware of the sort of mother-in-law you "Philip, you will be rather astonished to will have, Valeria. I must try to keep in hear it was your cousin whom I was enmind that it is my mother of whom I speak gaged to marry. He was quite dazed when -but I do find it hard to acknowledge that he found it was Valeria Viney you had she has altogether declined to call upon you
—she is what you might call a woman of musical with the happiness she felt. the world, and it seems she had already cked me out a wife 'suited to my positien,' as she puts it; and when I altogether dec'ined to come into her views we both dec'ined to come into her views we both at the world, and it seems she had already you are saved from that unmitigated idiot, and are saved from that unmitigated idiot, and are saved from that unmitigated idiot, and it is always and Philip, in answer. "He is quite well-dec'ined to come into her views we both got into a proper rage, and it all ended in my taking up my hat and leaving, after she had declared tragically that I should be disinherited, and my cousin succeed in her husband, equipped for a promenade.

kid gloves, and smoke a pipe?" "But do you think I ought to marry you

"I am neither a boy nor a puppet, and if I go straight to the devil " "Oh, pray don't," interrupted Miss Vincy statement that your d'amo to marry you—we are both rational beings and we are neither of us children-but percliniug me as her daughter-perhaps she hands in a large clasp, and looking deep into her grave eyes. "Valeria, I trust you wife to see her, and altogether ignored the from my heart—and although your past is circumstances under which they had last not known to me, yet when I look into your parted. do in my re'igion-by faith, and I cannot gift of your love." Valeria's eyes were wet with unsh-d tears when he had spoken. "Philip, I thank you from my heart," she should marry me without full knowledge of my life, before I came to this quiet little Philip's mother and as it was impossible to country place. Here in your arms, it is othing to each other now. At first, when we were engaged, I thought I loved him, but I soon found I cared nothing for him. I was a shamed and afraid to tell him that I would not marry him. But-very soon he broke it off himself-the mon y that my parents had left me when they died was all wered Valeria, gayly, 'only you are banshed for the day, while I concoct my toil-ike lace. Superb diamonds flashed in her like lace. Superb diamonds flashed in her coughs, coldr, how all ments are quicklene throat, shone on her arms and in the lenetablets teucen

"I will confess that I have all along con rippling masses of her hair; but fairer to idered you a woman with a 'history and a | see than all, was the soft radiance of her hazel eyes, the pick flush upon her cheeks, as she said again, "Do I quite suit you, his chair, facing t e sofa where she sat exquisite toilette. "Why, Valeria, where on earth did you get these?" touching the

"I only know that I am much indebted huge solitaires in her ears. to that little dog for barking at you," said "Relics of departed grandeur, love," she upturned face and enwrap her in her fur, lovely hazel eyes rested graclously on the family's displeasure by a mesalliance with "Yes, it is quite true that I lost a coat- a scheming adventuress, whose maiden beautiful and graceful woman entered, with manner of a woman of fashion. Very soon "But have you spoken yet to your moth- Mrs. Runsen became the center of the most or?" asked Miss Vincy with apparent irredistinguished group in the room. Altogether the evening was a triumph, the gentle-"Yes," with a quick frown at the recollate Philip on his selection of a wife, and "And what does she say? Miss Vincy the ladies proving by their absorbed gaze Runsen's toilet. "By-the-by," said Philip, as they drove back to the hotel, "I saw my cousin claim your acquaintance this even that I have you."

At eleven next morning Valeria came to or But after all, I think we might "If you will permit me to be so vulgar, bank, Valeria, and I can give up wearing from over his morning paper, "I should say that you were becoming rather stunning is

And indeed Mrs. Runsen's tall, fair beauty was admirably set off by the seal brown of her velvet suit.

"And here, in accordance with Washing-"I am neither a boy nor a puppet, and if I ton usage," continued Mr. Runsen, while thought you would throw me over, because his wife fastened her long gloves, "here is of my mother's folly and ambition, I should a lengthy description of your incomparable beauty, etc," touching the paper, "and the with a gesture of distress-"I fully intend worth a fortune, Mrs. Runsen; so that I am my mother to assure us we as and welcoming us to her arms,"

Just as Mr. Runsen spoke there was a rap impatient pull at his mustache, "no matter some merriment they descended to meet her.

"As I see you were going out," said she rourself. I love you and believe in you, as do in my religion—by faith, and I cannot me give you an airing; my landau is at the express how deep is my gratitude for the door, and we can drive up and down the

> "Thank you very much." answered Valeria quietly, "but I am about to take Philip to look at a house I have selected-

"Then I shall go with you," in decline this, Valeria accepted in silence. As they rolled westward, Valeria was very silent, while Mrs. Runsen gave a and cold water and stationary wardrobes, but allowed they were impossible things to fore a stately stone edifice, much handsomer "The stupid coachman has made som everything in some wonderful way," said Philip-snd as he spoke, they drew up be-parents had left me when they died was all lot, and then I discovered that I had narrowly escaped being married for my money. I dete ted New York after that; so I stole away, and came to this quit little spot."

'Poor child!" said Philip tenderly, "you must give me 'the right to 'love, cherish, and protect' you very soon indeed, and I thank God you are a poor woman, that is if you think you can manage on my salary of three thousan a year, and be content."

'Voleria, you must put on your best bib and tucker to-night, they tell me this ball is to be a most exclusive affair, and my mother will have early bulletins to inform her of your debut in Washington society.'

'hey hid been married a month and were sitting tete a tete at their hotel breakfast, freshly returned from their wedding fast, freshly returned from their weak fast freshly from the freshly from the life."

"It is quite wonderful, and altogether like a novel, you female Lord of Burleigh; and I fear my unfortunate cousin has lost another fortune; for I suppose moth r, you will not cut me off with a shilling after all."

"Of course, you knew I could not hold out long against you two children," said his mother benighly. Later, while Mr. Runsen, in his correct nvening dress, sat reading his paper and awaiting rather impatiently his wife, the door opened and unheard she entered.

"Do I quite suit you?" said a gentle voice, and then Mr Runsen I were I his paper and became transfired. Before him stood a vision of lovaliness in magnificent cream white silk, covered with delicate web-