

SPECIAL INDUCEMENTS. PREMIUMS. CLUBS!

In order to secure as many new subscribers to THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE as possible during the month of January, and give our subscribers the full benefit of commissions usually paid by publishers to agents and travellers, we have decided to make the following rates:

We will send THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE for one year to Clubs at the following rates, the papers to be sent to separate addresses or in bundles to one address, at the option of the subscribers:

Table with 2 columns: Club type and Price. For Clubs of five, $4.50; ten, $8.00; fifteen, $11.50; twenty, $15.00.

These Clubs may be made up of old and new subscribers, and the each one $1.00, order, must accompany the names of the subscribers, and the each one $1.00, order, must accompany the names of the subscribers.

In addition to these liberal rates we will present to the agent who sends the largest list of names (not under $100) between now and the first day of March, 1874.

A FINE SILVER HUNTING CASE WATER COSTING $25.

To the agents who send the second, third and fourth largest lists we will present a silver case water costing $15.00, $10.00, and $5.00, respectively.

Agents who intend competing for the prizes will please inform us, and an account will be kept with each in order that a fair decision may be made at the expiration of the time named.

For sample copies of THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE, and such information as may be desired, address:

M. McLEOD, 51 Prince Wm. street.

Weekly Tribune WITH SUPPLEMENT.

ST. JOHN, N. B., FEB. 3, 1874.

Spikes—Free for Internationalism. A week ago, wherever a group of men stood, "spikes for the International" formed the topic of conversation.

Spikes in the morning, spikes at noon, spikes in the evening—towards spikes. Several circular references have also appeared in different papers about spikes, including two letters from Collector Reel. Now we don't consider it fair to keep the mass of our readers ignorant of anything to which reference is made in the press, and we know that all of those outside of business circles are uninformed as to what the spikes are.

As the spikes have been so thoroughly deluged with Pacific scandal the people may be supposed to be anxious for a little St. John scandal by way of change. Mr. Reel's second letter, in regard to a matter which he refers to as though the particular subject had already been published, is accompanied by a letter to himself from Mr. Norris Best, in which Mr. Best speaks of having informed THE TRIBUNE that the spike entry of the Messrs. Burpee was all right, etc. We take this opportunity to explain this scandal so far as it refers to the spikes in the papers may no longer be Greek to the general reader.

Mr. Best, week before last, discovered, or thought he discovered, a Burpee man's nest at the Custom House, and gave us a detailed account of it. His story was this:

"At the Custom House, Wednesday, I saw an entry of I. & F. Burpee & Co., 13862—marked free, and asked what that meant. The clerk showed me an invoice, on one of Burpee's forms, of 50 kegs of spikes, valued at $197, and marked 'Free' for Internationalism."

"I knew the spikes could not have cost but $4 a keg, $190 in all, and saw that fraud was intended. I made enquiries and learned that I could not buy goods in my own name, have them consigned to myself, receive them, and have them passed through Internationalism."

"I saw the spikes had been done by I. & F. Burpee & Co. Even though to the goods should be handed over to the International, the fraudulent invoices at the Custom House showed that the Burpees intended to get about fifty per cent profit out of the Government."

"When McAvity or Kennedy imported anything for the International it was on a special order, in the exact quantity required, and the original invoice came direct to the Custom House. The importer got 5 per cent commission on this invoice, and Mr. Watson passed the goods, by order of the Receiver General, through the Custom House. The importer never had possession of the goods, and never had it in his power to defraud the Government with a false invoice. Next day I called on the Collector and informed him of the facts. He sent for the original invoice of entry 13862. It was not in the Custom House. Then he sent for Mr. Burpee and Mr. Watson, and said he had known nothing of it and would probe the matter to the bottom."

"Watson came to me afterwards and told me it was all right, that the goods had been handed over to the International, and showed me a bill of them—30 kegs of spikes $127, with 10 per cent off for difference of exchange. This bill was dated a day after the entry was passed, showing that the goods had been in the actual possession of the Burpees for one day."

"Mr. Best told this story without any request for secrecy. He placed the story and his name at our disposal. He had written out the beginning of it, and the editor took notes of the whole. From the written fragment and the notes the above has been written out. The editor

Declaration Day.

Sherriff Harding, at 11 o'clock a. m. Saturday, opened his court. After announcing the returns from the various wards and parishes, he declared the Hon. Isaac Burpee and A. L. Palmer, Esq., elected to represent the City and County, and J. S. Bates DeVeber, Esq., to represent the City. Hon. Isaac Burpee said this was the third time he had stood before the people to thank them for electing him to the honor of representing them.

The contest through which they had just passed had been sharp and personally unpleasant. Great efforts had been made to injure him, and his personal accusations brought against him were unjust and untrue. He would endeavor to try by his conduct, political and moral character to live them out.

The voice of the people throughout the Dominion had shown that the course of the Government in dissolving Parliament was approved. The result is a blow at corruption (hear, hear, and laughter), and at the idea that large capitalists should for their own ends corrupt the country (laughter). He hoped a short time to see the election law which would effectively prevent any possibility of corruption. (Grants and winks.)

His past was before them, and in the future he would endeavor to work for the best interests of the city, the Province and the Dominion generally.

A. L. Palmer, Esq., said this was only the second time he had come before the people to thank them for electing him. He could not say how low he felt of the high honor they had done him. The canvass to him had been nothing but a pleasure. He thought five years too long a life for one Parliament. He would not be elected in winter, as it is too much like hard work. With none of the candidates had any unpleasant relations. It was pleasant for him to speak of this election, and he could say that no undue pressure had been brought to bear by him to influence voters. When in his place in Parliament he could honestly say that he had not spent one single dollar illegally. That was more than he could say for any other candidate.

He hoped his honorable colleague could say the same thing, though to be sure, there were more times that day than seemed absolutely necessary. For a new election law he would have voting compulsory, and even would have the old Liberal reform party—be owed the election. The question of Confederation and other questions had in a great measure broken up old party lines, and in the Parliament at Ottawa this class—the great working class—met rate. The legislation of the country must give liberty and equality before the law to all in person, property, and religion. On the question of annexation there had been some. He believed that there was not one in this city whose breast did not beat with pride when he thought of his country, and he believed that the man who stood up for it, however with our neighbors is not a patriot. For the success of the American Government he hoped, and the more friendly the relations between the two Governments the better for both. The next five years would be his, and he believed, by trying times, and that is one reason why he would wish the sessions of Parliament were shorter, shorter than the long sessions of the British Empire. He hoped all things would turn out as Mr. Burpee predicted, but from the signs of the times he was inclined to doubt it. He would appeal to the Hon. Minister of Customs to make the law in a great measure amiable or able man in the Dominion than Sir John A. Macdonald, and yet that man has been followed by a mob and beaten with clubs. It is enough to make the blood of a British subject boil with indignation. (Cheers.) If there was nothing else against the Government he would point to that and say that this great "Reform" party had done it. There certainly is no need of any party attempt to usurp the place of the great Liberal party. (Cheers.) If the Pacific Scandal had not broken up the Liberal party, it would have made two years and a half—then God bless the Pacific Scandal. (Loud cheers.) If it has converted all those hostile Grits into the Reform party, it is a wonderful thing that the day of Postoffice wasn't a touch to it. (Laughter.) The Grits have come to Mr. Burpee, or he has gone to the Grits. What is it? Let us hope that they have come to Mr. Burpee. In closing he thanked all, whether they had voted for him or not, for the way in which he had been treated during the canvass through the length and breadth of the county. (Laughter.) Mr. Burpee worked properly he would have Mr. Palmer seconding the address at the opening of Parliament, and securing a Marine Hospital as he had secured better terms. It was, he thought, most unfortunate for the Ministry that two Ministerial candidates had not been sent from St. John.

Mr. Burpee declared that he had used any Government influence to aid him in getting his election. ("What a lie!") Mr. Palmer said that he had not, and that he acknowledged what he did at the beginning. "I was all Palmer and he was all Burpee."

Mr. DeVeber said Palmer was for Palmer, Burpee was for Burpee, and he was for DeVeber. He would represent no party, but all classes and creeds. (Hear, hear!)

Mr. Day referred to his 500 votes, given him without any canvass, public meetings or coaches. He had, he thought, taught the great "Reform" party the first lesson in party, which he hoped they would carry to Ottawa and tell in Parliament.

Mr. D. C. Coyle is General Agent for THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE.

City Court.

His Honor Judge Wetmore opened court this morning. He directed the clerk to summon a jury to be present on Tuesday, March 30, at the adjourned session of the court. At that time he would commence with the next case on the docket, and continue as far as health permitted to sit until the Easter term of the court, if the lawyers were ready with their business. No case would be made a remand unless for some good reason, but if adjourned for trial would be struck off the docket. This decision of Judge Wetmore will keep him on the bench steadily for one month, and will likely clear a good many cases of the docket.

A Broken Leg. Two countrymen named Earle and Toner got into a scuffle yesterday afternoon near the Fountain House, King's Square. The result was that Toner got his leg broken between the ankle and knee. He was sent to the Public Hospital.

CITY POLICE COURT. Every witness who is opposed to drunkenness judging by the record of this morning. The police made no arrests of all last night, and the court room looked deserted.

Benjamin Horton, who was at the station for protection, appeared in court in a second appearance this morning. He was charged with being drunk on the 22nd of February, and got out about Spring, in time to get to sea again. It is a better place to go than to where you'd be put in a small room. There you'll have a chance to see more good work, and lots of good fellows. The poor fellow's eyes danced with pleasure as the Magistrate ordered him to his cell. He will be supplied with a good dinner, and a workshop and recreation grounds at the Court House.

John Cook, not John Cook, should have been reported drunk yesterday. He was charged with being drunk on the 22nd of February, and got out about Spring, in time to get to sea again. It is a better place to go than to where you'd be put in a small room. There you'll have a chance to see more good work, and lots of good fellows. The poor fellow's eyes danced with pleasure as the Magistrate ordered him to his cell. He will be supplied with a good dinner, and a workshop and recreation grounds at the Court House.

There were four prisoners arrested for drunkenness last night and yesterday. As a certain latitude is allowed on such occasions, they were allowed to go home this morning.

Old Hugh McCormack sought protection from the cold, and was sent to the Alms House.

Margaret Boyle went on a spree yesterday afternoon attending a funeral. She was arrested on the 22nd of February, and got out about Spring, in time to get to sea again. It is a better place to go than to where you'd be put in a small room. There you'll have a chance to see more good work, and lots of good fellows. The poor fellow's eyes danced with pleasure as the Magistrate ordered him to his cell. He will be supplied with a good dinner, and a workshop and recreation grounds at the Court House.

Four persons sought protection from the cold, and were sent to the Alms House.

Samuel Barr was the next one called. He was charged with being drunk and put several questions to him, but he went to Wellington Ward with $150, and he soon had to get $20 more, and he had yet a bill for $150 more in Black River and various other places, it was shameful, and far beyond any other election since it was the "most awful corruption and bribery" they ever witnessed. Checks were given to the people, for which they were to receive money, flour, etc., etc., for which they are coming to the city, and presenting them to the paymasters appointed for that purpose. So much for that. Now the only other statement that is called in question is Mr. Palmer's leading the Government Candidate by nearly one thousand. At the time it was written, so it looked, but Mr. Palmer's majority was reduced in a heard from, through the unscrupulous corruption of the electors, which Mr. Palmer thought the party of party (?) could not honestly report to.

Customs officials were out on election day, canvassing for Mr. Burpee, and yet he denies there was any influence used. When the telegram was written and sent, it was reported that Charles Burpee was defeated, and so it was that Mr. Perley led him in all the districts then heard from. W. K.

Three Criminals Strangled. A triple execution took place within the walls of the Oldchester Gaol, in England, recently, one of the victims being a young woman named Ann Barry, who had been found guilty of poisoning a number of small children by administering strychnine to them. Her companions on the scaffold were a man named Bally, who was one of the woman's accomplices, and Charles Bart, who recently shot his sweetheart after she had refused to marry him. The prisoners were executed by Anderson, the amateur hangman, who is a medical man and does the business for the love of the thing, handing the axe to Calcraft. The conduct of the prisoners after their condemnation was quite consistent with the serious position in which they were placed. Bally was an Atheist, and formerly president over an Atheistical Society in Gloucester, but in the prospect of death he saw reason to alter his views, and willingly listened to the spiritual advice of the chaplain. The proceedings on the scaffold occupied only a few minutes, and all the prisoners died quickly, the woman only exhibiting any signs of suffering. All present, and the woman from myrtle into firewood to those around her. She and Bally made a full confession of their guilt, and acknowledged the justice of their sentence, but they did not get a carriage for the very last. On leaving the dock, after the passing of the sentence, Bally put his finger to his mouth, which the wo-

Germain St. Baptist Church.

The congregations in the Y. M. C. A. hall, occupied Sunday, by the Germain Street Baptist Church, were large. In the morning the Rev. G. M. W. Carey preached a sermon with special reference to the fire which had injured his church. A resolution of sympathy from the Baptist Church in Fredericton was read. The evening service was also largely attended, and being somewhat protracted, interfered with the usual union prayer meeting. There was a large number of people waiting on the sidewalk to enter, when the congregation were dismissed. In future the services will be over at 7.30, more.

Two countrymen named Earle and Toner got into a scuffle yesterday afternoon near the Fountain House, King's Square. The result was that Toner got his leg broken between the ankle and knee. He was sent to the Public Hospital.

CITY POLICE COURT. Every witness who is opposed to drunkenness judging by the record of this morning. The police made no arrests of all last night, and the court room looked deserted.

Benjamin Horton, who was at the station for protection, appeared in court in a second appearance this morning. He was charged with being drunk on the 22nd of February, and got out about Spring, in time to get to sea again. It is a better place to go than to where you'd be put in a small room. There you'll have a chance to see more good work, and lots of good fellows. The poor fellow's eyes danced with pleasure as the Magistrate ordered him to his cell. He will be supplied with a good dinner, and a workshop and recreation grounds at the Court House.

John Cook, not John Cook, should have been reported drunk yesterday. He was charged with being drunk on the 22nd of February, and got out about Spring, in time to get to sea again. It is a better place to go than to where you'd be put in a small room. There you'll have a chance to see more good work, and lots of good fellows. The poor fellow's eyes danced with pleasure as the Magistrate ordered him to his cell. He will be supplied with a good dinner, and a workshop and recreation grounds at the Court House.

There were four prisoners arrested for drunkenness last night and yesterday. As a certain latitude is allowed on such occasions, they were allowed to go home this morning.

Old Hugh McCormack sought protection from the cold, and was sent to the Alms House.

Margaret Boyle went on a spree yesterday afternoon attending a funeral. She was arrested on the 22nd of February, and got out about Spring, in time to get to sea again. It is a better place to go than to where you'd be put in a small room. There you'll have a chance to see more good work, and lots of good fellows. The poor fellow's eyes danced with pleasure as the Magistrate ordered him to his cell. He will be supplied with a good dinner, and a workshop and recreation grounds at the Court House.

Four persons sought protection from the cold, and were sent to the Alms House.

Samuel Barr was the next one called. He was charged with being drunk and put several questions to him, but he went to Wellington Ward with $150, and he soon had to get $20 more, and he had yet a bill for $150 more in Black River and various other places, it was shameful, and far beyond any other election since it was the "most awful corruption and bribery" they ever witnessed. Checks were given to the people, for which they were to receive money, flour, etc., etc., for which they are coming to the city, and presenting them to the paymasters appointed for that purpose. So much for that. Now the only other statement that is called in question is Mr. Palmer's leading the Government Candidate by nearly one thousand. At the time it was written, so it looked, but Mr. Palmer's majority was reduced in a heard from, through the unscrupulous corruption of the electors, which Mr. Palmer thought the party of party (?) could not honestly report to.

Customs officials were out on election day, canvassing for Mr. Burpee, and yet he denies there was any influence used. When the telegram was written and sent, it was reported that Charles Burpee was defeated, and so it was that Mr. Perley led him in all the districts then heard from. W. K.

Three Criminals Strangled. A triple execution took place within the walls of the Oldchester Gaol, in England, recently, one of the victims being a young woman named Ann Barry, who had been found guilty of poisoning a number of small children by administering strychnine to them. Her companions on the scaffold were a man named Bally, who was one of the woman's accomplices, and Charles Bart, who recently shot his sweetheart after she had refused to marry him. The prisoners were executed by Anderson, the amateur hangman, who is a medical man and does the business for the love of the thing, handing the axe to Calcraft. The conduct of the prisoners after their condemnation was quite consistent with the serious position in which they were placed. Bally was an Atheist, and formerly president over an Atheistical Society in Gloucester, but in the prospect of death he saw reason to alter his views, and willingly listened to the spiritual advice of the chaplain. The proceedings on the scaffold occupied only a few minutes, and all the prisoners died quickly, the woman only exhibiting any signs of suffering. All present, and the woman from myrtle into firewood to those around her. She and Bally made a full confession of their guilt, and acknowledged the justice of their sentence, but they did not get a carriage for the very last. On leaving the dock, after the passing of the sentence, Bally put his finger to his mouth, which the wo-

WEATHER REPORT.

ST. JOHN, N. B., FEB. 3, 1874. The let me search the paper, dear. That promise "set fire" again. Will give us a fish day together. Why should I vex myself in vain. Or bother you, my dear Lavinia. With all his tangled doily skein. And "partial election in Virginia?" You are the ruler of my destiny. And make it clear or cloudy weather. Within the heaven of your eyes. I had some sweet conversation with you. Than "Probabilities" can gather. Or there I look for breaking rain. Or see the gradual, tender bright'ning. That promise "set fire" again. And said that she would be "in the van." Suddenly let it storm and lightning. A moment—and from chaotic fog. Love comes with such a dewy splendor. That is my nature's heart's desire. The widest "probabilities" can't read. Beyond the power of words to render. Then let me search the paper, dear. That promise "set fire" again. Will give us a fish day together. Why should I vex myself in vain. Or bother you, my dear Lavinia. With all his tangled doily skein. And "partial election in Virginia?" You are the ruler of my destiny. And make it clear or cloudy weather. Within the heaven of your eyes. I had some sweet conversation with you. Than "Probabilities" can gather. Or there I look for breaking rain. Or see the gradual, tender bright'ning. That promise "set fire" again. And said that she would be "in the van." Suddenly let it storm and lightning. A moment—and from chaotic fog. Love comes with such a dewy splendor. That is my nature's heart's desire. The widest "probabilities" can't read. Beyond the power of words to render. Then let me search the paper, dear. That promise "set fire" again. Will give us a fish day together. Why should I vex myself in vain. Or bother you, my dear Lavinia. With all his tangled doily skein. And "partial election in Virginia?" You are the ruler of my destiny. And make it clear or cloudy weather. Within the heaven of your eyes. I had some sweet conversation with you. Than "Probabilities" can gather. Or there I look for breaking rain. Or see the gradual, tender bright'ning. That promise "set fire" again. And said that she would be "in the van." Suddenly let it storm and lightning. A moment—and from chaotic fog. Love comes with such a dewy splendor. That is my nature's heart's desire. The widest "probabilities" can't read. Beyond the power of words to render. Then let me search the paper, dear. That promise "set fire" again. Will give us a fish day together. Why should I vex myself in vain. Or bother you, my dear Lavinia. With all his tangled doily skein. And "partial election in Virginia?" You are the ruler of my destiny. And make it clear or cloudy weather. Within the heaven of your eyes. I had some sweet conversation with you. Than "Probabilities" can gather. Or there I look for breaking rain. Or see the gradual, tender bright'ning. That promise "set fire" again. And said that she would be "in the van." Suddenly let it storm and lightning. A moment—and from chaotic fog. Love comes with such a dewy splendor. That is my nature's heart's desire. The widest "probabilities" can't read. Beyond the power of words to render. Then let me search the paper, dear. That promise "set fire" again. Will give us a fish day together. Why should I vex myself in vain. Or bother you, my dear Lavinia. With all his tangled doily skein. And "partial election in Virginia?" You are the ruler of my destiny. And make it clear or cloudy weather. Within the heaven of your eyes. I had some sweet conversation with you. Than "Probabilities" can gather. Or there I look for breaking rain. Or see the gradual, tender bright'ning. That promise "set fire" again. And said that she would be "in the van." Suddenly let it storm and lightning. A moment—and from chaotic fog. Love comes with such a dewy splendor. That is my nature's heart's desire. The widest "probabilities" can't read. Beyond the power of words to render. Then let me search the paper, dear. That promise "set fire" again. Will give us a fish day together. Why should I vex myself in vain. Or bother you, my dear Lavinia. With all his tangled doily skein. And "partial election in Virginia?" You are the ruler of my destiny. And make it clear or cloudy weather. Within the heaven of your eyes. I had some sweet conversation with you. Than "Probabilities" can gather. Or there I look for breaking rain. Or see the gradual, tender bright'ning. That promise "set fire" again. And said that she would be "in the van." Suddenly let it storm and lightning. A moment—and from chaotic fog. Love comes with such a dewy splendor. That is my nature's heart's desire. The widest "probabilities" can't read. Beyond the power of words to render. Then let me search the paper, dear. That promise "set fire" again. Will give us a fish day together. Why should I vex myself in vain. Or bother you, my dear Lavinia. With all his tangled doily skein. And "partial election in Virginia?" You are the ruler of my destiny. And make it clear or cloudy weather. Within the heaven of your eyes. I had some sweet conversation with you. Than "Probabilities" can gather. Or there I look for breaking rain. Or see the gradual, tender bright'ning. That promise "set fire" again. And said that she would be "in the van." Suddenly let it storm and lightning. A moment—and from chaotic fog. Love comes with such a dewy splendor. That is my nature's heart's desire. The widest "probabilities" can't read. Beyond the power of words to render. Then let me search the paper, dear. That promise "set fire" again. Will give us a fish day together. Why should I vex myself in vain. Or bother you, my dear Lavinia. With all his tangled doily skein. And "partial election in Virginia?" You are the ruler of my destiny. And make it clear or cloudy weather. Within the heaven of your eyes. I had some sweet conversation with you. Than "Probabilities" can gather. Or there I look for breaking rain. Or see the gradual, tender bright'ning. That promise "set fire" again. And said that she would be "in the van." Suddenly let it storm and lightning. A moment—and from chaotic fog. Love comes with such a dewy splendor. That is my nature's heart's desire. The widest "probabilities" can't read. Beyond the power of words to render. Then let me search the paper, dear. That promise "set fire" again. Will give us a fish day together. Why should I vex myself in vain. Or bother you, my dear Lavinia. With all his tangled doily skein. And "partial election in Virginia?" You are the ruler of my destiny. And make it clear or cloudy weather. Within the heaven of your eyes. I had some sweet conversation with you. Than "Probabilities" can gather. Or there I look for breaking rain. Or see the gradual, tender bright'ning. That promise "set fire" again. And said that she would be "in the van." Suddenly let it storm and lightning. A moment—and from chaotic fog. Love comes with such a dewy splendor. That is my nature's heart's desire. The widest "probabilities" can't read. Beyond the power of words to render. Then let me search the paper, dear. That promise "set fire" again. Will give us a fish day together. Why should I vex myself in vain. Or bother you, my dear Lavinia. With all his tangled doily skein. And "partial election in Virginia?" You are the ruler of my destiny. And make it clear or cloudy weather. Within the heaven of your eyes. I had some sweet conversation with you. Than "Probabilities" can gather. Or there I look for breaking rain. Or see the gradual, tender bright'ning. That promise "set fire" again. And said that she would be "in the van." Suddenly let it storm and lightning. A moment—and from chaotic fog. Love comes with such a dewy splendor. That is my nature's heart's desire. The widest "probabilities" can't read. Beyond the power of words to render. Then let me search the paper, dear. That promise "set fire" again. Will give us a fish day together. Why should I vex myself in vain. Or bother you, my dear Lavinia. With all his tangled doily skein. And "partial election in Virginia?" You are the ruler of my destiny. And make it clear or cloudy weather. Within the heaven of your eyes. I had some sweet conversation with you. Than "Probabilities" can gather. Or there I look for breaking rain. Or see the gradual, tender bright'ning. That promise "set fire" again. And said that she would be "in the van." Suddenly let it storm and lightning. A moment—and from chaotic fog. Love comes with such a dewy splendor. That is my nature's heart's desire. The widest "probabilities" can't read. Beyond the power of words to render. Then let me search the paper, dear. That promise "set fire" again. Will give us a fish day together. Why should I vex myself in vain. Or bother you, my dear Lavinia. With all his tangled doily skein. And "partial election in Virginia?" You are the ruler of my destiny. And make it clear or cloudy weather. Within the heaven of your eyes. I had some sweet conversation with you. Than "Probabilities" can gather. Or there I look for breaking rain. Or see the gradual, tender bright'ning. That promise "set fire" again. And said that she would be "in the van." Suddenly let it storm and lightning. A moment—and from chaotic fog. Love comes with such a dewy splendor. That is my nature's heart's desire. The widest "probabilities" can't read. Beyond the power of words to render. Then let me search the paper, dear. That promise "set fire" again. Will give us a fish day together. Why should I vex myself in vain. Or bother you, my dear Lavinia. With all his tangled doily skein. And "partial election in Virginia?" You are the ruler of my destiny. And make it clear or cloudy weather. Within the heaven of your eyes. I had some sweet conversation with you. Than "Probabilities" can gather. Or there I look for breaking rain. Or see the gradual, tender bright'ning. That promise "set fire" again. And said that she would be "in the van." Suddenly let it storm and lightning. A moment—and from chaotic fog. Love comes with such a dewy splendor. That is my nature's heart's desire. The widest "probabilities" can't read. Beyond the power of words to render. Then let me search the paper, dear. That promise "set fire" again. Will give us a fish day together. Why should I vex myself in vain. Or bother you, my dear Lavinia. With all his tangled doily skein. And "partial election in Virginia?" You are the ruler of my destiny. And make it clear or cloudy weather. Within the heaven of your eyes. I had some sweet conversation with you. Than "Probabilities" can gather. Or there I look for breaking rain. Or see the gradual, tender bright'ning. That promise "set fire" again. And said that she would be "in the van." Suddenly let it storm and lightning. A moment—and from chaotic fog. Love comes with such a dewy splendor. That is my nature's heart's desire. The widest "probabilities" can't read. Beyond the power of words to render. Then let me search the paper, dear. That promise "set fire" again. Will give us a fish day together. Why should I vex myself in vain. Or bother you, my dear Lavinia. With all his tangled doily skein. And "partial election in Virginia?" You are the ruler of my destiny. And make it clear or cloudy weather. Within the heaven of your eyes. I had some sweet conversation with you. Than "Probabilities" can gather. Or there I look for breaking rain. Or see the gradual, tender bright'ning. That promise "set fire" again. And said that she would be "in the van." Suddenly let it storm and lightning. A moment—and from chaotic fog. Love comes with such a dewy splendor. That is my nature's heart's desire. The widest "probabilities" can't read. Beyond the power of words to render. Then let me search the paper, dear. That promise "set fire" again. Will give us a fish day together. Why should I vex myself in vain. Or bother you, my dear Lavinia. With all his tangled doily skein. And "partial election in Virginia?" You are the ruler of my destiny. And make it clear or cloudy weather. Within the heaven of your eyes. I had some sweet conversation with you. Than "Probabilities" can gather. Or there I look for breaking rain. Or see the gradual, tender bright'ning. That promise "set fire" again. And said that she would be "in the van." Suddenly let it storm and lightning. A moment—and from chaotic fog. Love comes with such a dewy splendor. That is my nature's heart's desire. The widest "probabilities" can't read. Beyond the power of words to render. Then let me search the paper, dear. That promise "set fire" again. Will give us a fish day together. Why should I vex myself in vain. Or bother you, my dear Lavinia. With all his tangled doily skein. And "partial election in Virginia?" You are the ruler of my destiny. And make it clear or cloudy weather. Within the heaven of your eyes. I had some sweet conversation with you. Than "Probabilities" can gather. Or there I look for breaking rain. Or see the gradual, tender bright'ning. That promise "set fire" again. And said that she would be "in the van." Suddenly let it storm and lightning. A moment—and from chaotic fog. Love comes with such a dewy splendor. That is my nature's heart's desire. The widest "probabilities" can't read. Beyond the power of words to render. Then let me search the paper, dear. That promise "set fire" again. Will give us a fish day together. Why should I vex myself in vain. Or bother you, my dear Lavinia. With all his tangled doily skein. And "partial election in Virginia?" You are the ruler of my destiny. And make it clear or cloudy weather. Within the heaven of your eyes. I had some sweet conversation with you. Than "Probabilities" can gather. Or there I look for breaking rain. Or see the gradual, tender bright'ning. That promise "set fire" again. And said that she would be "in the van." Suddenly let it storm and lightning. A moment—and from chaotic fog. Love comes with such a dewy splendor. That is my nature's heart's desire. The widest "probabilities" can't read. Beyond the power of words to render. Then let me search the paper, dear. That promise "set fire" again. Will give us a fish day together. Why should I vex myself in vain. Or bother you, my dear Lavinia. With all his tangled doily skein. And "partial election in Virginia?" You are the ruler of my destiny. And make it clear or cloudy weather. Within the heaven of your eyes. I had some sweet conversation with you. Than "Probabilities" can gather. Or there I look for breaking rain. Or see the gradual, tender bright'ning. That promise "set fire" again. And said that she would be "in the van." Suddenly let it storm and lightning. A moment—and from chaotic fog. Love comes with such a dewy splendor. That is my nature's heart's desire. The widest "probabilities" can't read. Beyond the power of words to render. Then let me search the paper, dear. That promise "set fire" again. Will give us a fish day together. Why should I vex myself in vain. Or bother you, my dear Lavinia. With all his tangled doily skein. And "partial election in Virginia?" You are the ruler of my destiny. And make it clear or cloudy weather. Within the heaven of your eyes. I had some sweet conversation with you. Than "Probabilities" can gather. Or there I look for breaking rain. Or see the gradual, tender bright'ning. That promise "set fire" again. And said that she would be "in the van." Suddenly let it storm and lightning. A moment—and from chaotic fog. Love comes with such a dewy splendor. That is my nature's heart's desire. The widest "probabilities" can't read. Beyond the power of words to render. Then let me search the paper, dear. That promise "set fire" again. Will give us a fish day together. Why should I vex myself in vain. Or bother you, my dear Lavinia. With all his tangled doily skein. And "partial election in Virginia?" You are the ruler of my destiny. And make it clear or cloudy weather. Within the heaven of your eyes. I had some sweet conversation with you. Than "Probabilities" can gather. Or there I look for breaking rain. Or see the gradual, tender bright'ning. That promise "set fire" again. And said that she would be "in the van." Suddenly let it storm and lightning. A moment—and from chaotic fog. Love comes with such a dewy splendor. That is my nature's heart's desire. The widest "probabilities" can't read. Beyond the power of words to render. Then let me search the paper, dear. That promise "set fire" again. Will give us a fish day together. Why should I vex myself in vain. Or bother you, my dear Lavinia. With all his tangled doily skein. And "partial election in Virginia?" You are the ruler of my destiny. And make it clear or cloudy weather. Within the heaven of your eyes. I had some sweet conversation with you. Than "Probabilities" can gather. Or there I look for breaking rain. Or see the gradual, tender bright'ning. That promise "set fire" again. And said that she would be "in the van." Suddenly let it storm and lightning. A moment—and from chaotic fog. Love comes with such a dewy splendor. That is my nature's heart's desire. The widest "probabilities" can't read. Beyond the power of words to render. Then let me search the paper, dear. That promise "set fire" again. Will give us a fish day together. Why should I vex myself in vain. Or bother you, my dear Lavinia. With all his tangled doily skein. And "partial election in Virginia?" You are the ruler of my destiny. And make it clear or cloudy weather. Within the heaven of your eyes. I had some sweet conversation with you. Than "Probabilities" can gather. Or there I look for breaking rain. Or see the gradual, tender bright'ning. That promise "set fire" again. And said that she would be "in the van." Suddenly let it storm and lightning. A moment—and from chaotic fog. Love comes with such a dewy splendor. That is my nature's heart's desire. The widest "probabilities" can't read. Beyond the power of words to render. Then let me search the paper, dear. That promise "set fire" again. Will give us a fish day together. Why should I vex myself in vain. Or bother you, my dear Lavinia. With all his tangled doily skein. And "partial election in Virginia?" You are the ruler of my destiny. And make it clear or cloudy weather. Within the heaven of your eyes. I had some sweet conversation with you. Than "Probabilities" can gather. Or there I look for breaking rain. Or see the gradual, tender bright'ning. That promise "set fire" again. And said that she would be "in the van." Suddenly let it storm and lightning. A moment—and from chaotic fog. Love comes with such a dewy splendor. That is my nature's heart's desire. The widest "probabilities" can't read. Beyond the power of words to render. Then let me search the paper, dear. That promise "set fire" again. Will give us a fish day together. Why should I vex myself in vain. Or bother you, my dear Lavinia. With all his tangled doily skein. And "partial election in Virginia?" You are the ruler of my destiny. And make it clear or cloudy weather. Within the heaven of your eyes. I had some sweet conversation with you. Than "Probabilities" can gather. Or there I look for breaking rain. Or see the gradual, tender bright'ning. That promise "set fire" again. And said that she would be "in the van." Suddenly let it storm and lightning. A moment—and from chaotic fog. Love comes with such a dewy splendor. That is my nature's heart's desire. The widest "probabilities" can't read. Beyond the power of words to render. Then let me search the paper, dear. That promise "set fire" again. Will give us a fish day together. Why should I vex myself in vain. Or bother you, my dear Lavinia. With all his tangled doily skein. And "partial election in Virginia?" You are the ruler of my destiny. And make it clear or cloudy weather. Within the heaven of your eyes. I had some sweet conversation with you. Than "Probabilities" can gather. Or there I look for breaking rain. Or see the gradual, tender bright'ning. That promise "set fire" again. And said that she would be "in the van." Suddenly let it storm and lightning. A moment—and from chaotic fog. Love comes with such a dewy splendor. That is my nature's heart's desire. The widest "probabilities" can't read. Beyond the power of words to render. Then let me search the paper, dear. That promise "set fire" again. Will give us a fish day together. Why should I vex myself in vain. Or bother you, my dear Lavinia. With all his tangled doily skein. And "partial election in Virginia?" You are the ruler of my destiny. And make it clear or cloudy weather. Within the heaven of your eyes. I had some sweet conversation with you. Than "Probabilities" can gather. Or there I look for breaking rain. Or see the gradual, tender bright'ning. That promise "set fire" again. And said that she would be "in the van." Suddenly let it storm and lightning. A moment—and from chaotic fog. Love comes with such a dewy splendor. That is my nature's heart's desire. The widest "probabilities" can't read. Beyond the power of words to render. Then let me search the paper, dear. That promise "set fire" again. Will give us a fish day together. Why should I vex myself in vain. Or bother you, my dear Lavinia. With all his tangled doily skein. And "partial election in Virginia?" You are the ruler of my destiny. And make it clear or cloudy weather. Within the heaven of your eyes. I had some sweet conversation with you. Than "Probabilities" can gather. Or there I look for breaking rain. Or see the gradual, tender bright'ning. That promise "set fire" again. And said that she would be "in the van." Suddenly let it storm and lightning. A moment—and from chaotic fog. Love comes with such a dewy splendor. That is my nature's heart's desire. The widest "probabilities" can't read. Beyond the power of words to render. Then let me search the paper, dear. That promise "set fire" again. Will give us a fish day together. Why should I vex myself in vain. Or bother you, my dear Lavinia. With all his tangled doily skein. And "partial election in Virginia?" You are the ruler of my destiny. And make it clear or cloudy weather. Within the heaven of your eyes. I had some sweet conversation with you. Than "Probabilities" can gather. Or there I look for breaking rain. Or see the gradual, tender bright'ning. That promise "set fire" again. And said that she would be "in the van." Suddenly let it storm and lightning. A moment—and from chaotic fog. Love comes with such a dewy splendor. That is my nature's heart's desire. The widest "probabilities" can't read. Beyond the power of words to render. Then let me search the paper, dear. That promise "set fire" again. Will give us a fish day together. Why should I vex myself in vain. Or bother you, my dear Lavinia