LADIES' SILK Domestic Manufactured: Among the papers of a Capuchin monk, who has just died, was found the following will: "I bequeath, first, to the Abbe Michaud my brevi ary because he does not know his own; second, to M. Jules Favre my frock, to hide his shame; third, to M. Gambetta my cord, which will prove useful one day round his neck; lourth, to M. Thiers his own work, that he may read it over again, and fifth, to France my wallet, because she may shortly have occasion for one to collect aims."

Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes sent the following with his autograph to a bazzar and fancy fair at Manchester, England, in aid of the Sick Children's Hospital:

Bugged in the olinging billows' grasn,
From seaweed fringe to mountain heather. The British oak, with rooted grasp,
Her slender handful holds together;
With eliffs of white and bowers of green,
And doesan narrowing to caress her.
And doesan narrowing to caress her.
And doesan narrowing to caress her.
And hills and threaded streams be ween
Our little Mother iske, dood bless her!

HILYARD & RUDDOCK. Ribbons, Paravols, presents North York and the Hon. Geo. Brown conjointly in the Dominion Parliament, is to be toasted on the inquisitorial gridiron on the 29 h inst. The Markham Economist endeavors to inspire him with sufficient courage to pass throthe ordeal by assuring him that even should he be unseated. North York will double his last majority. This is inspiring. Any ordinary mortal would be delighted to have the opportunity of doubling his majority, and would throw up the sponge at once. But Mr. Dy mond is not an ordinary mortal. He once wrote a book entitled. Recollections of the Death Penalty." No ordinary mortal could do that. — Toronto Sun. SUMMER BOARD.
