Her Majesty's Possessions,—and being the growth and produce thereof,—a duty of three shillings Sterling money of Great Britain, for each imperial quarter of such wheat,—and so in proportion for any greater or less quantity thereof.

II. And be it enacted,—that foreign wheat imported—by sea,— into this Province,—for the use of the fisheries,—shall be free of duty,—and subject to the regulations expressed and enacted, in regard to certain articles specified in the eighth section of the act of the parliament of the said United Kingdom, passed in the last session of the said parliament, and intituled, An act to amend the laws for the regulation of the trade of the British possessions abroad.

III. And be it enacted,—that the duties imposed by this act shall be levied, recovered and received—under the same regulations,— and in the same coins,—to be received at the same rates,—and according to the same weights and measures,—and under the same penalties,—to be enforced and applied in the same manner,—and with the same restrictions and regulations for ensuring the payment or punishing the evasion thereof,—as the duties imposed in and by the said act, intituled, An act to amend the laws for the regulation of the trade of the British possessions abroad.

IV. And be it enacted,—that all sums which shall arise from the duty hereby imposed, shall be paid over by the officers receiving the same, to Her Majesty's receiver general for this Province,—and shall form part of the consolidated revenue fund thereof,—and shall,—as shall also all fines, penalties and confiscations incurred under this act,—be accounted for to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors,— through the lords commissioners of Her Majesty's treasury, for the time being,—in such manner and form as Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, shall direct.
