

This Wife and Mother Wishes to tell you FREE How She Stopped Her Husband's Drinking

By all Means Write to Her and Learn how She did it.

For over 20 years James Anderson of 439 Elm Ave., Hillburn, N. Y., was a very hard drinker. His case seemed a hopeless one, but 10 years ago his wife in their own little home, gave him a simple remedy which much to her delight stopped his drinking entirely.

To make sure that the remedy was responsible for this happy result she also tried it on her brother and several of her neighbors. It was successful in every case. None of them has touched a drop of intoxicating liquor since. She now wishes everyone who has drunkenness in their homes to try this simple remedy for she feels sure that it will do as much for others as it has for her. It can be given secretly if desired, and without cost she will gladly and willingly tell you what it is. All you have to do is write her a letter asking her how she cured her husband of drinking and she will reply by return mail in a sealed envelope. As she has nothing to sell do not send her money. Simply send a letter with all confidence to Mrs. Margaret Anderson at the address given above, taking care to write your name and full address plainly. (We earnestly advise every one of our readers who wishes to cure a dear one of drunkenness to write to this lady today. Her offer is a sincere one.)

the statements contained in the previous paragraph. One or two striking facts must suffice. So far as I know, no resident of Orillia has dared to state publicly, either on the platform or in the press, that local option is a failure in this town. During the present month one of the best liquor detectives in the province spent a week in Orillia, but reported that he was unable to find any trace of the illegal sale of liquor. A representative of the Winnipeg 'Free Press,' who visited Orillia during the past summer to investigate the working of the law, wrote his paper that this town 'stands as an eloquent answer to the stock arguments of those who oppose local option either on selfish or economic grounds.' If there be any who still doubt, I would refer them for confirmation of what I have said to the rector of St. James' Church, to the Mayor, the Reeve, the president or secretary of the Board of Trade, the Police Magistrate or the Chief of Police, or, if any wish for details on any of the points touched upon, I shall be glad to furnish them.

We are told of other towns, such as Galt and Bowmanville, which have had similar satisfactory experience with local option; and what has been done in Orillia can be done in any other town or village where the Christian people will unite in passing the law, and afterwards lend their support to its enforcement and the last century witnessed the abolition of slavery. The great moral struggle of the present day is for the suppression of the liquor traffic, and there is every reason for anticipating that, with God's help, this curse, whose evil effects are many times as widespread as those of slavery, will be banished from Canada and this continent within the lifetime of this generation. No weighing of chances, no unwillingness to co-operate with other Christians, no easy-going indifference should deter the clergy and laity of the Church of England from taking their place in the battle against this arch enemy of mankind, and so rob the Church of her share in the glory of the final victory.

A Spacious Platform

This is a question above party lines. This is a question aside from the matter of a man's personal habit as to drink. This is a matter above religious differences, one on which people of all faiths and of none have already united. This question is vital in every department of civic life.

Drinkers can consistently unite in the movement because it is simply against the open saloon as an institution.

Temperance workers and total abstainers can consistently unite because the banishment of the saloon means much less drinking.

Citizens, interested in civic welfare, can unite because No-License means a safer, a cleaner, a more moral city.

Employers can unite, for it means larger dividends for legitimate business, more trustworthy employees.

Professional men can unite, for No-License helps to realize higher ideals.

Philanthropists can unite, for it means less debauched manhood, degraded womanhood and defrauded children.

Rich men can unite, for it means safer investments.

Poor men can unite, for it means more money in the pockets of their class.

Religious men can unite, because it means less sin in the city.

Working men can unite, for it means a great help to their fellows and larger chances for success.

Republicans can unite, because it is in accord with those ideas of liberty for which Republicanism stands.

Democrats can unite, because it is in harmony with the principle which is expressed in the very word democracy—the rule of the people.

Prohibitionists can unite, for it means the sale of liquor prohibited from a larger part of the country.

Socialists can unite, because it offers the best working solution for one of the most serious social problems.

Non-partisans can unite, because the movement is itself non-partisan.

Citizens, get together. The platform is broad—Square Deal.

NATURE'S LAWS.

Nature's laws are perfect if only we obey them, but disease follows disobedience. Go straight to Nature for the cure, to the forest; there are mysteries there, some of which we can fathom for you. Take the bark of the Wild-cherry tree, with mandrake root, Oregon grape root, stone root, queen's root, bloodroot and golden seal root, make a scientific, glyceric extract of them, with just the right proportions, and you have

DOCTOR PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

It took Dr. Pierce, with the assistance of two learned chemists and pharmacists, many months of hard work experimenting to perfect this vegetable alterative and tonic extract of the greatest efficiency.

C. W. PAWLEY, ESQ.

MR. C. W. PAWLEY, of Millville, Calif., writes: "I wish to tell you that I have used your 'Golden Medical Discovery' in my family for twenty years. We have had a doctor called in but once during that time. I have a family of ten children, all well and hearty, for which, to a great extent, we owe thanks to you and your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pellets,' which we use when sick."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules.

SANDEN, Author.

Do you know my friend that a fine, strong, clear-eyed, strong-nerved man is the most powerful influence in the world? His faculties are all normal and evenly balanced; he loves life for itself; he conquers obstacles that the weakling would tremble at; he casts good cheer about him; he fascinates all men and all women who come within the sphere of his manly influence. Do you know that the true power of the so-called "Hypnotic Influence" is really nothing more than the strong personal magnetism of the man who exerts it? Therefore, if I restore your lost strength, reader, I give you the power of the giant. It makes no difference to me what caused your ailing condition, or how unstrung or debilitated you may be, whether young or elderly, short or tall if I can show you a sure and never failing way by which you yourself can restore yourself to complete strength (without drugs) then I can make you as well, vigorous and capable, as buoyant of spirit, as fascinating in manner as the biggest fullest-blooded fellow of your acquaintance.

I will here merely say that my method is a system of vitalization by means of an appliance of my own invention and which, under my patent rights, I call a HEALTH BELT. You place this HEALTH BELT around your waist upon going to bed and wear it nights until you are thoroughly restored to strength and health. The sensation it produces is a most pleasant one; merely a warm, soft gentle flow of a force which I call vitality. This new method often takes the pain or weakness out of your back in a few hours' time, while you commence to feel better at once. Sixty to 90 days is sufficient to build up your nerves and body, so that you will probably look better, feel better than you have ever looked or felt before. Your friends will soon commence to secretly marvel at the change in your appearance, while you will unconsciously answer "Never felt better in my life," to their greetings.

As your system absorbs the new strength, rheumatism, kidney, liver and stomach troubles disappear.
