Dear Anthea:
Did you write Charlie Bell Southampton? Clyde had was up there this week but I have not heard from him except by telephone and he could not talk freely over it. Malcolm found it hard to make his first friends here believe it safe to open the raid. He reported that I wanted not oppose him reported too that Steven (Port Lym) wanted support him. I had a letter from Steven yesterday in which he says "Where the hell did he get that stuff?" I do not believe they will take chances on opening the raid. Gordon Reid of London was in liaison. He wrote me the boys up there are full of pep and sporting for a fight. The same is true here and everywhere else, except for the two Bell boys. Their father is R.H. They opposed me in 1921 but made up for it in 1925. Malcolm met them in Toronto and I suppose got them committed. However, I am sure a letter from you to Charlie would be effective.
