

represented to the Department that this price is too high, and that the Department could not obtain a purchaser at that rate.

I have, therefore, to request that you will again visit the Island and report what in your opinion the land is at present worth without considering the value of the improvements, also of what the latter consist and the value in detail of these.

I am,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

H. Sawbauge
