Ottawa, 2nd December, 1919.

Sir,

I beg to enclose herein a copy of a letter which has been received from Mrs. A.W. Johnson, of Vancouver, with reference to the sale of horses at Kamsack. Will you be good enough to state how you came to pay the $190 referred to, and whether you undertook in any way to collect these notes for Mrs. Johnson and what your position was with respect to this matter. The Department proposes to send a copy of your letter to Mrs. Johnson. Kindly give this matter your immediate attention.

enc.
