

DHL TO THE U.S.

DHL has often been called the Supercourier. In fact, last year, 97% of Fortune magazine's top 500 companies called DHL to deliver the goods. And now you can call upon DHL's expertise for your vital overnight deliveries to the U.S. DHL's rates are always competitive. When it comes to shipments that exceed ½ kg., DHL offers rates the leading couriers can't match. And, the more shipments you send, the better DHL's rates become.

And with DHL you won't need special envelopes or packages. You can wrap your shipment as you like. But if you prefer to use DHL "Flyer" bags, they'll provide them for you.

When you have a delivery that must be in the U.S. overnight, on time and on the money, that's a job for DHL. The Supercourier.
