The Mardi Gras Carnival

Successful as the home-coming celebrations of the past have been, there is every reason to believe that of this year will far surpass anything witnessed in America outside of New Orleans. To enumerate all the features of this year's demonstration would require far more space than is here available. Suffice to say that the energetic committees, which have for months been at work preparing for the great event of the week beginning August 3rd, promise to residents and visitors to the Forest City on that occasion sights of a lifetime.
