RICE...

Is not all alike. In Japan where some of the best rice comes from different sections grow different qualities of rice.

The soil and the climate have a good deal to do with perfect rice growing.

FINEST JAPAN RICE,
7 cts. a pound.

GOOD JAPAN RICE,
4 lbs. for 25 cts.

GOOD RICE,
5 cts. a pound.

During this hot weather there's nothing better to eat than good rice.

BE READY

Every home ought to contain a line of every day or emergency remedies such as Camphor,
Essence Jamaica Ginger
Peppermint,
Ammonia,
Arnica, etc.

They may be needed any hour of the day or night and when needed will be badly needed. An outfit of these remedies will cost but little if you buy them here. Having them on hand is pretty sure to save suffering and may save life.

Summer is the season of sudden ill. Prepare for them.

The Japan "Gazette" gives an account of the recent visit to the Canadian buildings at the Osaka Exposition of the Crown Prince and Princess of Japan, who were received by representatives of the Canadian Government and Canadian Pacific Railway Company. The paper says:—

"The Prince entered personally and sat down in a section of a Canadian Pacific Railway sleeping car, which is one of the features of the exhibit, and seemed agreeably struck by the convenience and luxuriousness of the appointments. The Imperial party looked at the Canadian fruits and cereals and paid special attention to the model of the C. P. R. 'Empress' floating in the lake." Over half an hour was spent in viewing the exhibit with which their Royal Highnesses were greatly pleased, and afterward they accepted samples of Canadian bread and fruit.

Two Brutal Women.

Deliberately Murdered an Infant Child.

Binghamton, N.Y., July 3.—Mrs. Wm. Cairnes was last night arrested at Owego on the charge of murder in the first degree. She is accused of murdering the infant child of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Brooks, soon after it was born yesterday morning.

Mrs. Fannie Brooks, the nurse who attended Mrs. Fred Brooks, made an affidavit, in which she says that the mother and grandmother tried to get her to kill the babe, and when she refused to do it, she says she saw the grandmother chloroform it. The infant was buried yesterday, but after the nurse told her story, Coroner Bauer had the body exhumed and made an autopsy, which corroborated the nurse's charges as to the cause of death.

WILLIAM GORDON

LATE N. F. DAVIN.

Monument Unveiled by Sir Charles Tupper at Ottawa.

Ottawa, July 3.—The monument erected by admirers over the grave of the late Nicholas Flood Davin in Beechwood Cemetery was unveiled yesterday by Sir Charles Tupper. The probability is that the inconvenient hour of the ceremony, 2 o'clock, prevented many admirers of the late Mr. Davin from being present. Those who took part or were present included Sir Charles Tupper, Mr. R. L. Borden, Prof. Clark of Toronto, Sir James Grant, Mr. H. J. Morgan, Mr. Charles Magee, Sheriff Sweetland, Dr. Benjamin Russell, M.P., Mr. W. R. Brock, M.P., Mr. Ganong, M.P., Mr. Earle, M.P., Mr. W. W. Campbell, Mr. Uriah Wilson, M.P., Hon. Wm. Macdonald, Mr. C. B. Powell, M.P., Mr. Alcorn, Mr. Pringle, Mr. J. R. Booth, Mayor Cook and Dr. Bapiste. Yesterday happened to be the 82nd anniversary of Sir Charles Tupper's birthday, and the spectators could not help wondering at his surprising vitality as he stepped jauntily forward and pulled to one side the Union Jack which draped the memorial. The veteran Baronet is a little thinner than he used to be, and somewhat stooped, but beyond these evidences he has aged little in appearance since he retired from politics. Sir Charles' tribute was very sincere. He lauded the late Mr. Davin's services to Canada, and applied to him Lytton's eulogy of Macaulay, "that in his speeches he taught, he charmed, and he moved."

Mr. R. L. Borden said that the prominent features of Mr. Davin's life were his earnestness, his industry, and his intense patriotism.

WOMAN'S TERRIBLE ACT.

Hanged Two of Her Children and Herself.

Rochester, N.Y., July 3.—A terrible act of self-sacrifice was performed in the village of Leroy, when Mrs. William Baxter, aged 28, hung herself and two children, Goodson, aged eight, and Gladys, aged three. When her husband returned to the house at 6 o'clock he could not get in. He waited for some time, then broke in a window and searched the house. In an unfinished attic over the kitchen, reached by a ladder, the horrible spectacle met his eyes. Hanging side by side from the rafters were his wife and the two children. The frenzied woman had used a clothesline, and must have administered chloroform to the children before attempting to hang them, as none of the neighbors heard an outcry. It is stated that last evening Mrs. Baxter handed her husband a bottle of wine to drink. He took some of it and was taken sick, and this morning had to consult a physician. That the wine was drugged or poisoned seems probable. The contents remaining will be analyzed. From indications the woman must have carried the children up the ladder one at a time. The room was so low that the boy's feet nearly touched the floor.
