The negro question is beset with difficulties. Slavery is of course dead, but justice to the pe gro in other respects is not easily to be secured. It will take time to bring round the Southern States to the right point in regard to negro rights. It is a pleasing feature in the Northern States that there is a growing inclication to deal He says:—"I do not wish to see the South humbled any more that war has humbled them. PRESIDENT JOHNSON. -The New York con be putting it too strongly, he is playing a game with which the Southerners are delighted. His with which the Southerners are delighted. His policy is not all they could wish, but far more than they ever ventured to hope for. It is one which promises them the least possible amount of change in their social and political condition, as it gives the negro the least possible quantum of rights and the smallest possible rise in the social scale. Slavery is abolished, to be sure, but to this they had made up their mlods. It is worthly of remark that these machines are rarely the done hafers Mr. Johnson came into power. day. CHEAP Grey & White Cottons, Prints. Striped Shirtings, Bed Tickings, Drills, Denims, &c., &c.

EBDWARD BILLING has in stock a large assortment of the above domestic goods, bought at the low rates which prevailed some months since, which he offers at Old Prices.

The large advance in price of Cotton which has since taken place in Great Britain, renders this stock decidedly cheap. EDWARD BILLING, London House.
