The Bishop of the Philippine Islands, Dr. Brent, preached the sermon at the recent Ordination service in Canterbury Cathedral. The service was held on Sunday morning, December 18th.

The Church in Nebraska has been singularly blessed in numbering among her loyal and faithful laymen men who stand in the very forefront of the legal profession. While because of their conspicuous ability they have been and are busy men, they have never hesitated when asked to use their time and services for the Church of their love. The first chancellor of the diocese was the Hon. James M. Woolworth, who served in this capacity for more than a third of a century. He was succeeded by the lamented Mr. Richard S. Hall, whose term of service was comparatively brief, covering less than five years. The eminence of these men at the bar is well known. A worthy successor to these two eminent jurists and Churchmen has been secured in the choice of the distinguished Judge Eleazer Wakeley, the Nestor of the Nebraska bar, as Chancellor of the diocese. The appointment of Judge Wakeley to this position by Bishop Williams and Judge Wakeley's acceptance has won wide-spread commendation and approval. Mr. Justice Wakeley was born in Homer, N.Y., and was educated and admitted to the bar in Lorain County, Ohio. Coming to Nebraska he served as territorial judge and subsequently was on the District bench for nine years. He has been a member of the Vestry of Trinity Parish Omaha for 36 years, being at present junior warden, a position he has held for many years.
