

A Memory of Old London

For the first time in their lives many of the "Canadian Boys" saw London when they passed through the metropolis of the Empire on their way to France. In their mind's eye they must have seen London's famous characters, notably Mr. Pickwick, giving the toast: "God Save the King, A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year."