Parks, Charlotte St., on behalf of their son, Mr. Malcolm Parks and their son-in-law, Mr. Richard Burke who have enlisted in the 155th Regimental band, where they spent the evening and were then presented with wrist watches and the following address:

Dear Mack and Dick:—
A number of close relatives have gathered here tonight on this occasion in order that we might show our appreciation for your self-sacrifice in taking upon yourselves your share of the responsibility in upholding the rights and dignities of our country, and now that you both are about to leave to face in our stead a common foe, we realize that the stand you have taken for your King and Country is a generous one. You have heard the call of duty and not only heard but responded. We know only too well that by this response you will be called upon to sacrifice much that is near and dear to you. Home, wives, children and parents, and other young companions. But when we think of this fact, we are proud to think of you as two from our midst, and since you have donned the King's uniform, we say "Wear it well." May it ever stand as a goon by you for Truth, and all that goes to make true manhood.

If you reach the firing line, remember that upon you rests the responsibility of upholding the high reputation won by our Canadian boys. There will be trying times, but you will be inspired by the thought, that you are fighting for the truth and right, and also by the fact that none of the great things in life are gained without sacrifice.

May you often think of Him Who made the supreme sacrifice by giving His life on Calvary that He might redeem a lost world. As a small token of our love and appreciation for you we ask you to accept this wrist watch as a reminder of the folks you love behind. And the prayers, goodwill and best wishes of the entire family go with you. We trust you may be spared to return safe to us in the near future, and the thousands of other dear lads who have so freely given their services that a lasting peace be restored.

Signed on behalf of the family.
The two young men were agreeably surprised, and thanked their friends in a few well chosen words.
