

I've Got Wise---Know Enough Now to Wear Gloves.

Used to have my hands all crippled up—Everlastingly peelin' my knuckles—always scratching my hands on the edge of metal plates—But now I wear gloves; and say, it's far better than nursing hurt hands. These are

"Asbestol" Gloves.

I've worn 'em every day for Lord knows how long—Don't look like they'd ever wear out, do they? Not a sign of a rip any place.

I'm just as nimble-fingered as can be, and they fit well too.

Wash like cloth—dry soft as new—Never get hard or stiff, sweat, oil, grease, or water don't injure them.

You certainly get splendid value every time in these "Asbestol" gloves. Look for that "Asbestol" trademark—it's the only way you can be sure of the genuine. The prices are low. See them today.

SEALING BILL

(Editor The Daily Mail)

Dear Sir,—I would like to make a few remarks, concerning the seal-fishery question, and referring to Captain Kean's remarks concerning the cooks, I am informed that he takes out two hundred and seventy men, and employs seven cooks, and no doubt, it will keep these seven men very busy every day, to do their work properly. The only chance they get for a spell, is while the crew is on the ice.

Is it right then to send those men into the coal pounds, or into the hold stowing seals, which is almost equal to blubber, making them filthy—no condition for cooking or handling food in any way?

People Must Insist.

If the Government doesn't make decent laws to protect the people's food, those people who go to the seal-fishery should rise unanimously and have it done.

I was nineteen years at the seal-fishery in the employ of Munn & Co., of Harbor Grace. We got smacay pork, sour molasses, sour bread and maggots flour, and the grease that they called "ollo," which was utterly impossible for any human being to eat, was nothing more than axle grease and salt mixed together.

It would be as bad to-day, had Mr. Coaker not come out to lift up the under dog.

The olio to-day is not much better. No animal of any kind will eat it. So it must be of a very bad order.

Even Satan Does It.

Captain Kean, always in his remarks, touches on points of the Scripture. The devil did that too when he wanted to make his points good. Does the captain realize the great loss there has been this last thirty-five years, of seals that have been paned and thrown into the ocean by gales of winds and big seas.

At least $18,000,000 worth have gone to the sharks through greed and wickedness.

No steel ship should be allowed to pan the seals, and then it would give the small ships a chance to get them as well.

I think myself, Mr. Editor, that there's a web getting around the captains, merchants and Government, that they'll never be able to break.

RESOLUTION OF CONFIDENCE.

(Editor The Daily Mail.)

Dear Sir,—At its night of meeting on the 7th inst. our Council resolved to send for publication a few words of congratulation, tribute and praise to President Coaker and the F.P.U. candidates as a whole for the firm stand they have taken in the House of Assembly in defence of the Toilers, in defence of Right; in upholding their Country's good, and thereby conserving the interests of the fishermen, endeavoring to purify public life by exterminating waste, graft and immorality from the public service of the Colony.

Great Work.

W. F. Coaker and his noble following have taken a great work in hand, which when completed will result in the purification of the public service of the Colony, and a much needed reform among the working-classes, viz. "rendering unto every man his own."

We congratulate them for their gentlemanly and able manner in which they have handled, debated on and criticised the various questions of discussion that have come before the Assembly relative to the governing of the Colony and the welfare of its wealth-producers.

It resolved, that while President Coaker has been carrying on this great work (the management of the F.P.U.), for the past five years he has been unlawfully slandered, insulted and abused on every hand; yea in our Legislative Halls—where morality and respect should be the dominating factor—this ill-manner and mis-conduct is practised by even Ministers of the Crown. But this only shows the truth of the old adage, viz. "the worst of people are the most injured by slander."

Still Triumphant.

Against the sweeping tide of the fiercest opposition on the part of his opponents Coaker's work still triumphs and he always comes off the victor. Truly—"blessed are ye when men shall persecute you for righteousness sake." If ever there was a righteous cause, President Coaker's is one.

In our opinion, Mr. Editor, our worthy President is making a name for himself that will be recorded in history as long as Newfoundland endures, for it appears, sir, that at this political crisis Terra Nova was "drifting to her doom," but just in the "nick of

In presenting our annual report for 1913, our first duty is to return our sincere thanks to the public for their very generous response to our appeal for contributions during the winter months of the year, and through which a large amount of destitution was averted.

The number of orders given during the year was coal 700, food 300. The factory was operated as usual and a number of persons availed of this means to help them over the winter.

Appended are the figures showing the Society's financial condition. We trust this year to receive the same generous support from you.

Our Lincoln.

President Coaker, the man from the backwoods, (Lincoln came from a log cabin), being possessed with that undaunted spirit of boldness to go forward in the fight for Right; being true to the emolument of trust reposed in him by the various thousands of this Country; desiring to do good for his Country and uplift his fellowmen, he ranks with the like of Lincoln and other great reformers of the day, and therefore exemplifies the highest type of manhood.

In concluding, Mr. Editor, I may say that we, as a Council with the great body of Unionists throughout the Island, deeply and strongly resent the insult thrown at the F.P.U. by Cashin in terming us "ignorant, illiterate and cullage." We advise him to keep his face closed, or in future act in a little more parliamentary fashion.
