Father (left in charge)—No, you cannot have any more cake. (Very seriously) Do you know what I shall have to do if you go on making that dreadful noise?

Little girl (sobbing)—Yes, Father—Well what is that? Little Girl—Give me some more cake.

And she was right. He—Darling, I have lost my position. She—Never mind, dear. Think of how small your salary was.

SCOTCH VILLAGE

September 1st.—The annual picnic of the Baptist S. School is to take place on Thursday next.

Next Sunday is R. V. L. Crandall's last day as pastor of the Newport Baptist Church. He will be much missed.

Mrs. Leonard Smith and two children are visiting friends and relatives in U. S. She returns Saturday next, talking with her Mrs. J. A. Brennan's little girl, who for the past year has been with her aunt, Mrs. L. M. Smith.

Mr. George Shearer is spending his vacation with his daughter, Mrs. F. Sanford.

Wm. Anthony is doing the reaping on the river, having purchased a new reaper. They are getting quite plentiful, this making the fourth within a radius of six miles.

Mrs. William Salter of Hantsport, is visiting friends in Mosherville and the Village.

School has reopened. The School house has undergone much needed repairs and a new wall.

The writer saw a toad unearthed from a stiff lump of clay, dug up at a depth of six feet below the surface.

When liberated from his living tomb, he proved himself very active. How came he there? How did he exist? and many other questions arise, more easily asked than answered.

We understand that Mrs. Brenton Smith is renting Mrs. Jos. Fitch's residence here.

French women wrap in red cloth children who have measles, and a French scientist, Chatinier, proved by experiment that red paper pasted on the windows of patients having measles has a good influence.

In Sydney, Australia, spitting in the streets is forbidden on penalty of $5.00.

A little Chatham girl, in saying her prayers the other night, put up a petition for her father's safe arrival at Boston, for which he had started that day, when another small member of the household expostulated with her as follows: "Nellie, you needn't bother Jesus about that. Pa's got a through ticket."—W. J. A.

A very homely man in Chicago has a very pretty daughter. One day she was sitting on his knee right before a looking glass. She contemplated the reflection of the two faces and then asked, Papa did God make me?

Yes dear, he replied. And did he make you? Yes.

Looking again in the mirror, she drew a long breath and rejoined, He must be turning out better work lately, isn't he?

Corrected. Visitor—Go to the proprietor and tell him to make my bill out properly and write omelette with two t's and not one.

Waiter, a few minutes later.—It's all right now, sir—omelet, 1 shilling; two teas, 2 shillings.

Do you believe in the power of the human eye to quell an attack of a wild beast? asked a youth of a hunter.

Yes, said the hunter, the power of the eye is very useful to see the wild beast coming.

The White Star Line has ordered another steamer, larger than the Cedric, now the largest afloat.

Robert Mackie, who was sent to Kingston Penitentiary for complicity in the Napanee bank robbery, has been released on parole.

A Good Example.—The C. P. R. are sending a photographer along the line between Montreal and Chesterville, to photograph the flower beds about the stations. Prizes are given the best kept beds, with a view to encouraging a neat appearance.

A man who had been arrested for murder bribed an Irishman on the jury for one hundred dollars to hang out for a verdict for manslaughter. The jury was out for a long time and finally returned with a verdict of manslaughter. The man went to the Irishman and thanked him and asked if he had a hard time. "Yes," said the Irishman, "a hard time; the balance all wanted to acquit you."

Dr. Chase's Ointment A Food for the Skin.

An Antiseptic Healer Which Promptly Allays Itching and Burning and Thoroughly Cures Every Form of Itching Skin Disease.

If the extraordinary value of Dr. Chase's Ointment were thoroughly understood there would not be a family in Canada that would be without it in the house for a single day.

In the first place it is a food and beautifier for the skin, and is so pure and pleasant to use that so lady will delay in applying it. It removes pimples, blackheads, and all sorts of disagreeable and disfiguring skin diseases.

In the severest cases of eczema, salt rheum, fetid, scald head and other itching skin eruptions, Dr. Chase's Ointment affords instant relief by allaying the burning, stinging sensations, and will permanently cure if applied regularly.

Dr. Chase's Ointment is a certain and absolute cure for each and every form of itching, bleeding and weeping piles. The manufacturers have guaranteed it. See testimonials in the daily press and ask your neighbors what they think of it. You can use it and get your money back if not cured. See a box at all dealers or EDMANSON, BATES & CO., Toronto.

Dr. Chase's Ointment Every sacrifice offered on Roman altar was performed either with flowers or with some odor extracted from them.

"What is your favorite sport?" "I haven't any favorite sport," answered Farmer Coratossel. "Jedgin' from what I have seen among the summer boarders, sport consists in payin' for the privilege of workin' like sixty."—Washington Star.

One would expect in this enlightened age to find men who have received the appointment to be His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, capable of clear thinking and possessed of at least a moiety of judicial wisdom. Trials in Magistrates' courts in Parrsboro have of late developed for the most part into pitiable farces and a travesty on British justice and a disgrace to a self-respecting people. In the trial mentioned, one of the justices of the peace was in a state of drunken imbecility and this is by no means the first instance of such an occurrence. A magistrate should be a man whose record and deportment are such as to command respect. If the remuneration from the office is not sufficient to keep such men there is surely need for a change of system.—From Parrsboro Leader.

LARGE SUM RAISED.

At the Maritime Baptist convention which has just closed at Yarmouth, about $6,000 was raised by voluntary subscription. A little over $2,000 of this amount goes to make up any possible shrinkage there may be in collecting the $69,000 subscribed to the Acadia forward movement fund.

The remainder of the amount is for missions and a considerable share is to defray the expenses of J. A. Glendinning of Moncton, who will go out to India this fall as a missionary.

Eruptions still continue in the ill-fated island of Martinique. A royal mail steamer arriving at St. Lucia, brings the report that a violent eruption occurred there last Wednesday and 2000 people are said to have perished.

A small party of Kaffer bandits are looting in the extreme northwestern part of Cape Colony. The natives are well armed and up to the present time have defied all attempts made by the British authorities or Boer farmers to capture them.
