(Continued.) CHAPTER XII.

LSIE, when she came down to breakfast next morning, was quieter than usual, and to the joking questions of Captain Jerry and Captain Perez, who were curious concerning her "errand" of the previous evening and who pretended to believe that she had gone to a dance or "time" with some "feller" unknown, she gave evasive but good humored replies. Captain Eri was on his usual fishing trip, and after breakfast was over Perez departed to the Barry place and Jerry to his beloved schoolhouse. The sacrifice, whose impending matrimonial doom had not been mentioned for some time by the trio interested, was gradually becoming his own garrulous self, and his principal topic of conversation recently had been the coming marriage of the "upstairs teacher"-that is, the lady who presided over the grammar grade of the school-and the question of her probable successor. In fact, this question of who the new teacher was to be was the prevailing subject of surmise and conjecture in the village just then. When Captain Jerry came back to the house he went out to the barn to feed Lorenzo and the hens and attend to Daniel's toilet. He was busy with now, and politics without cigars would the currycomb when Elsie came in.

"Captain Jerry." she said. "you have never told me just where you found grandfather that night when he was taken sick. On the hill back of the postoffice, wasn't it?"

"Yes, jest on the top. You see, he'd fell down when he was runnin' to the "Captain Eri found him, didn't he?"

"Yep. Whoa there, Dan'l. Stand still, can't you? Yes. Eri found him." "How was he dressed?"

'Who? John? Oh, he was bareheaded and in his shirt sleeves, jest as he run outdoors when he heard the he'l. Queer he didn't put on that old white hat of his. I never knew him to be without it afore: but a feller's lible to forgit most anything a night like that was. Did Eri tell you how Perez forgot his shoes? Funniest thing I ever see, that was."

He began the story of his friend's absentmindedness, but his companion did not seem to pay much attention to it. She went into the house soon after and Captain Jerry, after considering the matter, decided that she was probably thinking of Hazeltine. He derived much comfort from the idea. When he, too, entered the dining room Elsie sam to him: "Oh, Captain Jerry! Please don't tell the others that I asked about grandfather. They would think that I was worrying, and I'm not, a bit. You won't mention it, will you? Just promise, to please me."

So the captain promised, although he did not understand why it was asked of him.

When Captain Eri came home that afternoon and was cleaning his catch at the shanty he was surprised to receive a call from Miss Preston. "Hello!" he exclaimed. "Come to l'arn the trade?"

Elsie smiled and disclaimed any intention of apprenticeship.

"Captain Eri," she said. "I want to have a talk with you, a business talk." The captain looked at her keenly All he said, however, was, "You don't tell "Yes, I want to talk with you about getting me a position." "A position?"

"Yes, I've been thinking a great deal lately, and, now that grandfather seems to be a little better and I'm not needed to help take care of him. I want to do something to earn my Ilv-

"Earn your livin'? Why, child alive, you don't need to do that. You ain't a mite of trouble at the house; fact is, I don't know how we'd get along without you, and, as for money, why, I cal'late your grandpa ain't so poor but what, if I let you have a little change once in awhile, he'd be able to pay me back when he got better."

"But I don't want to use your money or his either. Captain Eri, you don't know what he has done for me ever since I was a little girl. He has clothed me and given me an education and been so kind and good that, now that he is ill and helpless, I simply can't go on using his money. I can't,

"All right," said Captain Eri. "'Independence shows a proper spirit and saves grocery bills,' as old man Scudder said when his wife run off with the tin peddler. What kind of a place was you thinkin' of takin'?"

"I want to get the appointment to teach in the grammar school here. Miss Nixon is going to be married, and when she leaves I want her place, and I want you to help me get it."

Captain Eri whistled. "I want to know!" he exclaimed. Then he said: git off the school committee for?" "Look here, Elsie; I don't want you to think I am tryin' to be cur'ous 'bout your affairs, or anything like that, but are you sure there ain't some reason more'n you've told me of for your wantin' this place? I ain't no real relation of yours, you understand, but I would like to have you feel that you could come to me with your troubles jest the same as you would to your grandpa. Now, honest and true, ain't there somethin' back of this?"

It was only for a moment that Elsie hesitated, but that moment's hesischools, or how to run 'em?" tation and the manner in which she answered went far toward confirming the captain's suspicion.

"No, Captain Eri," she said. "It is just as I've told you. I don't want to be dependent on grandfather any longer." "And there ain't a single other reason for- Of course I ought to mind my business, but- Well, there! What was it you wanted me to do-help you

"Ye-es, I s'pose that's so. Still, folks talk, and Seth's got lots of friends." git the place?" "Yes, if you will. I know Captain "Eri, I ain't denying that you could do a heap to hurt me if you wanted to, Perez has said that you were interested but I don't know why you should. I've in the town meetings and helped to always been square with you, far's I nominate some of the selectmen and know. What have you got against the school committee, so I thought perhaps, if you used your influence, you me?" "Oh, nuthin', nuthin'! Didn't I hear lace?"-Success. might get the position for me."

"Well, I don't know. I did do a little election erin' for one or two feliers, and maybe they'd ought to be willin' Carrie Nixon's place when she got marbin' for me. Still, you can't ried?" never tell. A cat 'll jump over your showed that he was puzzled and not a little-troubled. He came back from his fishing next day a little earlier than usual, changed his working clothes for his second best suit, harnessed Daniel into the buggy and then came into the house and announced that he was going over to the Neck on an errand, and if Elsie wanted to go with him he should be glad of her company. As this was but part of a prearranged scheme, the Bangs was very gracious, exceedingly young lady declared that a ride was just what she needed.

Captain Eri said but little as they drove up to the "main road." He seemed to be thinking. Elsie, too, was very quiet. When they reached the fruit and candy shop just around the corner the captain stopped the horse, that—er—a teacher from Radcliffe got down and went in. When he don't come our way very often, and came out he had a handful of cigars. "Why, Captain Eri," said Elsie, "I didn't know that you smoked cigars. I thought a pipe was your favorite." "Well, gin'rally speakin', 'tis," was the answer, "but I'm electioneerin" er-Miss Preston, that there ain't any be like a chowder without any clams.

and make yourself comf'table, and Sol

Mr. Bangs would follow, the latter gentleman couldn't well refuse. The private office was usually reserved for in-terviews with widows whose home-dialogue that preceded the operation.

On this occasion the door of the sanc-on the late cranberry crop, the excep-tionally pleasant weather of the past gate was goin' to run, and he's from your district, so I thought, of course"-

"Seth's a good man," was the equivo-

"A good man! He ain't any better man than I am. What's he know about

'bout your turnin' Betsy Godfrey off

"Who said I turned her off? I've been carrying that mortgage for so long it's gray headed. I can't be Santa Claus for the whole town. Business is business, and I've got to look out for

A STATE OF THE STA

town meetin' day?"

Mr. Bangs.

cal answer.

myself.

and me 'll go inside for a minute."

Come on, now."

sit down.

The word "Seth" was mentioned at ast once.

"Why, Captain Eri!" exclaimed Elsie at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 least once. as they drove away. The captain grinned. "Didn't know willing to come."

"Well, I thought of her. She's all

I was such a heeler, did you?" he said. 'Well, I tell you, if you're fishin' for eels there ain't no use usin' a mack'rel Sol, he's a little mite eely, and you've got to use the kind of bait that'll fetch that sort of critter." "But I shouldn't think he would care whether he was on the school commit-

Captain Eri's answer was in the form of a parable. "Old Laban Simpkins that lived round here one time," Rum goes with some kind of politics, but terbacker kind of chums in with he said, "was a mighty hard ticket. all kinds. 'Tain't always safe to jedge | Drank rum by the hogshead, pounded a candidate by the kind of cigars he gives out neither. I've found that out."

They reached that part of Orham which is called the Neck and pulled up come-you-so, and he fell into Jonadab which is called the Neck and pulled up before a small building bearing the Wixon's well. Wonder he wa'n't killed, sign, "Solomon Bangs, Attorney at but he wa'n't, and they fished him out Law, Real Estate and Insurance." in a little while. He said that was the Here the captain turned to his com- deepest well he ever saw; said he bepanion and asked: "Sure you haven't gun to think it reached clear through Walking leisurely around the changed your mind, Elsie? You want to the hereafter, and when he struck Egyptian Spinx the traveller from and then have to back out afterwards. said no; said he was lookin' out for a good cement nose on that face so drugs and quackery. Many of them somethin' further on. "Well, that's the way 'tis with Sol. Solomon Bangs was the chairman of the Orham school committee. He School committee's all right, but this was a short, stout man with sandy section of the Cape nominates a state side whiskers and a bald head. He received them with becoming conderepresentative next year. "I mustn't forgit to see Seth," he added. "I promised I would, and, bescension and asked if they wouldn't sides," with a wink, "I think 'twould "Why, I've got a little bus'ness I be better to do it 'cause, between you and me, I don't b'lieve Seth knows that a puzzle. want to talk with you 'bout, Sol," said the captain. "Elsie, you set down here he's been thinkin' of runnin' for the committee and has decided not to." The second member of the school board, John Mullett, was, so the cap-As he led the way into the little pritain said, a sort of "me too" to Mr. vate office at the back of the building Bangs and would vote as his friend cago Tribune. and seemed to take it for granted that directed. The third member was Mr. Langworthy, the Baptist minister, and, though 2 to 1 was a clear majority, Captain Eri asserted that there was Captain Eri asserted that there was nothing like a unanimous vote, and so they decided to call upon the reverend gentleman.

Minard's Limment Co., Limited.

Gentlemen,— Theodore Dorais, a customer of mine, was completely cured of rheumatism after five years of stead mortgages were to be foreclosed, gulleless individuals who had indorsed notes for friends, or others whose business was unpleasant and likely to be accompanied with weeping or profanpreliminary parley and no beating about the bush. Miss Preston's claim to the soon to be vacant position was tum was left ajar, so that Elsie, alstated clearly and with vigor; also though she did not try to listen, could the reasons why she should receive a higher salary than had previously been not very well help hearing what was paid were set forth. It was something She heard the captain commenting of a surprise to Elsie, as it had been to Ralph, to see how highly the townspeople—that is, the respectable portion of them-seemed to value the opinions month and other irrelevant subjects. of this good natured but uneducated Then the perfumes of the campaign cigars floated out through the doorway.

"Let's see," said Captain Eri, "when's seaman. And yet when she considered that she, too, went to him for advice that she would not have asked of oth-"First Tuesday in December," replied er and far more learned acquaintances it did not seen so surprising after all. "Why, so 'tis, so 'tis. Gittin' pretty nigh, ain't it? What are you goin' to didates in mind, but he was easily won over to Elsie's side. And so, as Cap-"Me? Get off the committee? Who

The clergyman had had several cantain Eri said, the stump speaking betold you that?" ing over, there was nothing to do but "Why, I don't know. You are, ain't to wait for the election, and Elsie and you? Seems to me I heard Seth Win- he agreed to keep the affair a secret until she received formal notice of the appointment. This was undoubtedly a "Is Seth going to try for the commit- good plan; but, unfortunately for its success, Solomon Bangs called upon his fellow in the committee, Mr. Mullett, to inform the latter that he, entirely unaided, had discovered the very teacher that Orham needed in the person of John Baxter's granddaughter. "Well, he's pretty popular. Folks Mr. Mullett, living up to his "me too" like him. See here, Sol, what's this reputation, indorsed the selection with enthusiasm, and not only did that, but also told every one he met, so that

> (To be Continued.) A man purchased some red flannel shirts, guaranteed neither to shrink He reminded the clerk orcibly of that guarantee some weeks later. "Have you had any difficulty with them?" the clerk asked. "No," replied the customer; "only the other morning when I was dress-ing, my wife said to me, 'John, when did you get that pink coral neck-

Captain Perez heard of it at the postoffice the very next afternoon.

Cured Through the Timely Use never tell. A cat 'll jump over your hands if she knows there's a piece of fish comin' afterwards, but when she's swallowed that fish it's a diffrent job altogether. Same way with a politician. But, then, you let me think over it for a spell, and p'raps tomorrow we'll see. You think it over too. Maybe you'll change your mind."

"No, I shan't change my mind. I'm ever and ever so much obliged to you, though."

All that evening Captain Eri worked at the model of the clipper, and the expression on his face as he whittled showed that he was puzzled and not a showed that she was puzzled and not a showed that he was puzzled and not a showed that showed that she was puzzled in The conversation that followed was in a lower tone, and Elsie heard but little of it. She heard enough, however, to infer that Captain Eri was fresh cigars were being lighted, and first indication was a bad taste in my developed my tongue was heavily coated, especially in the morning, and I felt particularly dull. My appetite began to dwindle, and even a light meal left me with a sense of having eaten too much. As I grew worse I behind these is an army of singers "Miss Preston," he said, "Cap'n Medge tells me that it-er-might be possible for us-er-for the town to secure er to in short, for us to have you for our teacher in the upstairs room. It ain't necessary for me to say that er a teacher from Radcliffe me which I could not throw off. It room. It ain't necessary for me to say that—er—a teacher from Radeliffe that we that is, the town of Orham, would-er-feel itself lucky if you'd be by my doctor, as well as many others, failed to restore me, or even to relieve me. I was in this very un-"Of course, I told him, Elsie," said Captain Eri, "that you wouldn't think happy state for almost a year when I of comin' for $45 dollars a month or anything like that. Of course, 'tisn't as though you really needed the place."

"I understand, I understand," said. This decided me to give these Pills the pompous committeeman. "I think that can be arranged. I really think—er—Miss Preston, that there ain't any the some relief from the distress after meals, and as I continued the use of the cure of a case similar to mine through to get a contract for South America that he became famous. North and South America taught Italy some relief from the distress after meals, and as I continued the use of now singing in New York, almost of comin' for $45 dollars a month or reason why you can't consider it settled. Ahem!"

Elsie thanked him, trying her best not to smile, and they were bowed out by the great man, who, however, called the captain to one side and whispered eagerly to him for a moment or two.

The word "Seth" was montioned at the use of the languor and drowsiness and headaches left me and I began to enjoy increased energy and new strength. To-day I am well man, enjoying the best of health, with never a twinge of the old trouble, and I the captain to one side and whispered eagerly to him for a moment or two.

The word "Seth" was montioned the use of the languor and drowsiness and I continued the use of the languor and drowsiness and I continued the use of the languor and drowsiness and I continued the use of the languor and drowsiness and Legan to enjoy increased energy and new strength. To-day I am well man, enjoying the best of health, with never a twinge of the old trouble, and I tune was made.

If one has the divine spark and is use of the languor and drowsiness and headaches left me and I began to enjoy increased energy and new strength. To-day I am well man, enjoying the best of health, with never a twinge of the old trouble, and I tune was made.

If one has the divine spark and is willing to sacrifice everything for his continued the use of the Pills all languor and drowsiness and Logan to enjoy increased energy and new strength. To-day I am well man, enter time he tempted fate in little towns, only to be "protested," until outside of Italy a queen admired his voice and his fortune "Seth" was montioned to the use of the languor and drowsiness and the use of the languor and the use of the pills all languor and I began to enjoy increased energy and new strength. To-day I am well man, ento enjoy increased energy and new strength to the pills all languor and I began to enjoy increased energy and new strength to enjoy increased energy a These Pills are sold by all medicine

> Brockville, Ont. Two small boys had strayed in the unmy room of a certain museum.
> "Wot's these?" said one.
> "Then's guys wot's bin dead a long time." answered the other.

And wot's them letters, B.C. 14, over the guy in the corner "Guess that's the number of the tee or not. It isn't such an exalted automobile wot run over the poor bloke."—Bohemian Magazine.

The Best Liver Pill.-The action of the liver is easily disarranged. A forget. It bore on Christmas games. sudden chill, undue exposure to the "There is one Christmas game,' he elements. over-indulgence in some favorite food, excess in drinking, are a few of the causes. But whatever may be the cause, Parmelee's Vegetable Pills can be relied upon as the favorite food, excess in drinking, are especially in banking circles. It resembles hide and seek. You play it as follows: A cashier or president takes all the institution's money and runs in its early stages. Bickle's Syrup best corrective that can be taken. They are the leading liver pills and they have no superiors among such the water he was s'prised to find it America inspected it from all points

"Well, I wanted to be sure. I should he thought religior would keep him leave the thing in that shape. If I of quinine capsules. "Most Chinese hate to ask Sol Bangs for anything from fallin' into any more wells. He had it out in Chicago I could clap are slow about forswearing oriental quick it would make its head swim!" live here for years before they can be -Chicago Tribune.

> it: - "Shiloh's Cure will always cure my coughs and colds."

"Those new neighbors of ours are 'How so?" "Well, a young man calls at their house about twice a week, and I can't quite make out whether he calls to see the young lady there or is just trying to collect a bill."—Chi-Bloom Protection

They found him at home, and Elsie suffering, by the judicious use was surprised after the previous inter- MINARD'S LINIMENT. accompanied with weeping or profanity. Mr. Bangs didn't object to foreclosing a mortgage, but he disliked to have a prospective customer hear the previous interview to see how differently her champion or profanity. The above facts can be verified by writing to him, to the Parish Priest or any of his neighbors.

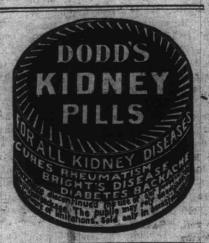

A. COTE, Merchant. St. Isidore, Que., 12th May, '98.

The man who condenes a neighbor's sin is often preparing his own repentance in advance.—Smart Set.

Minard's Liniment for sale everywhere One Chinese Dinner and a Couple of The Eternal Feminine.

A photographer was called upon not ong ago to make some pictures of an old lady of seventy years or so, but of urprising agility and quickness of perreption. The picture man was there-fore somewhat surprised to find that no words of address could induce the old lady to speak until after the operation was completed. Then she put her fingers into her mouth, whence she vithdrew several wads of paper.

"You wouldn't have me photograph ed with my cheeks falling in, would you?" she asked the photographer. "I ust stuffed some paper 's my mouth to fill out."

W. N. U. No. 732. ehin."

STRUGGLING SINGERS.

A Great Army of Vocalists Eager For Americans as usual in Milano—possi-bly the late crisis may have something to do with the state of affairs-but the city is flooded with Russians, eager to obtain a chance to appear on the boards and willing to pay well for an engagement lasting off and on for six nths, a year or even two for the sake of experience. In Milan, the commercial center of isic, all engagements are made through agents, of whom there are from seventy-five to a hundred. Most of these publish a long list of their clients, and it is seldom that the same name appears in two different lists. still the disinterested friend, and that Solomon was very anxious to retain that friendship. After awhile the striking of matches indicated that The one now before me-one of the (among these are the names of Caruso, then the pair rose from their chairs mouth in the morning and a sallow and entered the outer office. Mr. complexion. Later as these symptoms equally well known); (b) those having short engagements, ending in a month behind these is an army of singers who have studied from two to three years and are eager for an engagement: that foreigners do not have an emed as if I were always tired, with equal chance with natives, and one has but little strength and frequent vio-ent headaches. The remedies given ner and a foreigner has to encounter. Caruso with his beautiful voice was floating about Italy for eight years, glad to get a chance to sing now and then in little theaters at $1 a night. now singing in New York, almost art let him go into the battle an "enfant perdu," knowing all its perils. But young girls and boys should not om The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., be allowed to rush into the fray, thinking it a frolic.-Emil Bridges in Musical America.

> "William Bayard Hale, who has got one fame by suppressing an interlew than he ever got by printing one, is a caustic, sarcastic man," said a magazine editor.
>
> "Judgin' from the price ye charged me, neighbor, ye put three gallon uv m'lasses in a two-gallon jug. Naow I ain't b'grudgin' the money, but I don't cal-late ter hev the jug stretched."—Judge.
>
> "Judgin' from the price ye charged me have orders when five or six men turn down a tie as they look over a box to take it and lay it aside."
>
> "Then what becomes of it."
> "We sell them to women who come in here to buy ties for men." The New Financial Game. more fame by suppressing an interview than he ever got by printing one, is a caustic, sarcastic man," said a magazine editor. "I once heard Hale speak at a bankers' Christmas banquet. He always speaks well because he is a clergyman. One part of his speech I'll never th all the institution's money and runs and hides. Detectives swarm out to find him. If they succeed he comes home with them and has to pay a for-

"John" Fully Americanized. Americanizing of a Chinaman," said a there.—Atchison Globe. f view, Americanizing of a Chinaman," said a "It's a shame," he exclaimed, "to drug clerk who was putting up a box tempted to sample occidental medicines, and some of them live and die Repeat without making the experiment. In fact, when a Chinaman turns cosmopolitan taking American medicines is his final accomplishment. But when he does get the medicine habit quinine is his long suit. Whether or not it is good for what ails him, every Chinaman who has learned to patronize American drug stores feeds his system with quinine pills."-New York Sun.

The biggest annual pension that is paid in any part of the world is $95,-000. The Duke of Richmond is the recipient of this vast annuity, which is perpetual, passing from son to son. The pension was granted 300 years ago by Charles II.

Taking the annual payment on account of pensions at the present time, Earl Nelson is in receipt of the highest outside the royal annuities—viz, $25,000 per annum, payable in perpetuity to all and every one of the heirs male to whom the title of Earl Nelson shall descend.

The Duke of Wellington's annual pension of $20,000 is for life, and Lord Rodney's pension of $10,000 is, like that of Earl Nelson, percetual.

LONG FEASTS.

Eskimo Banquets.

Mr. Ward, the American envoy to China, who tried to secure an interview with the emperor, Hieng Fung, in 1859, tells how he was entertained at dinner that lasted from noon one day until 6 o'clock on the evening of the day following. The total number of courses is not given, but Ward men-tions that he had to give in after partaking of 138 different dishes, "where-upon his hosts wondered greatly"-presumably at his abstemious

Probably, however, the Eskimo ban-quets last longer than any others and the quantity of food swallowed is also proportionately greater. Ross records that seven of his party of natives once ate continuously for thirty-three hours, during which time they consumed 200 pounds of seal meat. Europeans exposed to the same climatic conditions act in much the same way. Captain Scott of the Discovery on his return from his long sledge journey over the inland ice of the antarctic continent did nothing but eat and sleep for the space of three days and nights, and even then he was still hungry.

Commander Peary and his party, returning famished from their futile dash for the pole in 1906, slaughtered a herd of seven musk oxen on Hazen Island, off the extreme north of Greenland. For two days and nights there after they crouched inside their snow huts, eating continuously, and when they had finished the pile of bones outside was "as high as a tall man's

The English House of Lords has ever been particularly kind to its never been particularly kind to its fair visitors. Long ago, in the days when duchesses sold their kisses for votes, the House of Lords forbade them to enter, and a battle royal enter to enter, and a battle royal enter to enter, and a battle royal entered the ladies and the sued between the ladies and the peers. The Lord Chancellor had sworn that he would not let them in, and the Duchess of Queensberry had sworn that ladies should come in. "This being reported," we read in an old diary, "the peers resolved to starve them out. An order was made that the doors should not be opened till they had raised their siege."

These amazons now showed themselves qualified for the duty even of foot soldiers. They stood there till 5 in the afternoon without either sustenance or intermission, every now and then playing volleys of thumps, highs and rape against the door with Lost Energy kicks and raps against the door with so much violence that the speakers in the House week Restored by Psychine.

in the House were scarcely heard. At last by strategy worthy of a general the ladies "all rushed in and placed themselves in the front row of the gallery," where they remained till an hour before midnight, applauding or hissing to their hearts' content.

Minard's Liniment Cures Burns, etc.

Kestored by Falling.

Mr. Geo. Pratt, of Clarkson, Ont. says: "Four years ago my son Wilbert was so run down, thin and emaciated, that we thought he was going into a decline and feared he would never pull through the severe cold of the winter months. The boy had no appetite and seemed to have lost all energy and interest in life. He was altogether in terribly bad shape. His condition caused us the gravest anxiety.

ble-like material, declared to be a great advance over other artificial stone, is now made from the waste slag of blast furnaces mixed with a little lime. The slag is crushed and powdered, one-seventh part of quicklime is added, and the mass, made into a paste with water, is pressed into molds of metal. The blocks so formed on drying have the consistency of chalk. They are placed in iron cylinders from which the air is pumped out and then replaced with carbonic acid, and after a few days in this gas the hydrate of a few days in this gas the hydrate of lime becomes carbonated, binding the send to Dr. T. A. SLOCUM, Limited, lime becomes carbonated, binding the mass into a rock of great hardness gists and dealers, 50c and $1.00.

The finished stone takes a high polish. "Bliggins is always talking now THE GREATEST OF TONICS FOR HE ALTH AND CHERGY

"Which kind?" asked Miss Cayenne. "Is there more than one kind?" Yes. Some men talk the kind of onsense that makes you laugh, and fully laid aside one or two as not thers talk the kind that makes you worthy of consideration. The salesel sorry for them."-Washington Star. man picked out one of the rejects and always cure my coughs and colds." at by mistake.

Varieties.

New Artificial Stone

According to the Denver Post, a mar-

Duchess Versus Lord Cha

Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup is an unparalleled remedy for colds, coughs, influenza and diseases of the oat and lungs. The fame of the medicine rests upon years of successful use in eradicating these affections, fatal ravages of consumption, and as a neglected cold leads to consumption, one cannot be too careful to fight it in its early stages. Bickle's Syrup United States the object is almost enthe weapon, use it.

mything in her top bureau drawer she the object in most cases is to measure gets a stick and stirs everything in the drawer 'round. If what she is looking for doesn't come to the sur-gravest anxiety.

"Fortunately I procured PSYCHINE for him and this soon gave him a new lease of life. It is really remarable how residly this splendid medicine brought are two ble-like material, declared to be a great

PSYCHANE

What Men Reject. A man was buying a tie and careplaced it in a separate box, which Repeat it:—"Shiloh's Cure will prompted the buyer to ask if it had been placed with those he was looking "Oh, no," was the response, "but Corns cause much suffering, but Holloway's Corn Cure offers a speedy, sure, and satisfactory relief.

Civil Service In England and America. The difference between the civil service examination in England and tirely to discover the immediate fitness of the candidates for the work Every time a girl wants to find they are expected to do. In England

HALTI

WANTED .- SOUTH AFRICAN VOLUNTEER BOUNTY LAND CERTIFICATES. If you wish to sell your scrip for cash, A. D. SPROULE.

Winnipeg, Man.

A Natural Laxative

Inward cleansing is as necessary as outward bathing. To keep the bowels free and regular is of even greater importance than to keep the skin-pores from becoming clogged. The neglect of either invites disease. Everyone needs a natural laxative occasionally, to the greatest boon ever offered to those who suffer from the ills that follow constipation. For over fifty years Beecham's Pills have been famous as a Stomach corrective, a Liver regulator and Bowel been famous as a Stomach corrective, a Liver regulator and Bowel laxative. They never gripe nor cause pain. Powerful purgatives are dangerous. Avoid them. Use Beecham's Pills. They give relief without doing violence to any organ. Their action is in harmony with physical laws. Take them regularly and the necessity for their use becomes less frequent. They are a natural laxative and a positive cure for Constipation, Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache and Dyspepsia.

Prepared only by the Proprietor, Thomas Beecham, St. Helens, Lancashire, Eng.

Sold everywhere in Canada and U. S. America. In boxes 28 cents.

ALWAYS, in the day EVERYWHERE IN CANADA. ASK FOR Eddy's Matches have hailed from Hull since 1851—and these 57 years of Constant Betterment have resulted in Eddy's Matches reaching a Height of Perfection attained by No Others. Sold and used everywhere in Canada.

TORONTO, ONT.

Write for Weekly Price Lists. Shipments Solicited.

JOHN HALLAM

Wednesday, March 31,

About a Hundred of Horses Th Also Well Re ed-Winter

Though the weather most desirable the annu last week turned out ly. There was a good spectators on Wednesde day particularly.

The show of horses b previously exhibited in ada. It even surpassed in Chicago and that is deal for numerous are on exhibition at there. There were dred entries.

While the cattle and there were a very of first class animals there is some room and exhibitors might from the horsemen in animals up for the priz

While this province is raising one, yet there specimens to be seen In the swine classes wh a good number of exhib so much pork may strikes one as strang should not be about many entries as there past show.

The addresses given d rying out of the progra were full of food for no doubt those who a will reap a good deal of from. The meeting in on Wednesday evening by, among others, Those well known agricultura raiser of Ontario. Hi listened to with close the large crowd presen out how the farmers c produce more and should not depend alone. He pointed out permanent system of a The awards in the d were as follows:

Horses. CLYDESDAI

Class 23, Sect (a) Stallion foaled Jan. 1st, 1905. 1st. Traynor Bros.

Ivory. 2nd. A. and G. 3rd. T. W. Wright, dale King.

4th. Hugh Gilmour, 5th. John Graham, Class 23, Sec

(b) Stallions foaled 1, W. H. Bryce, At Arcola. 2, Traynor Bros. Cedarrton.

3. Robert Sinton Bolton. 4, A. and G. Mutch, on Ensign. 5, A. and G. Mutch, Middleton.

Class 23, Sec Stallions, foaled in Al and G. Mutch. of Barcheskie. 2, Traynor Bros. Charmer. 3; Traynor Bros.

4, T. E. Martin, Co Class 23, S Stallions, foaled in 1st, W. H. Bryce, ta's Star. 2, Traynor Bros., spun. 3, A. and G. Mutch Leaf.

Class 23, Se Stallions, foaled in 1st, T. E. Martin, Headlight. 2, P. M. Bredt & Baron of Edenwald. 3rd, R. H. Miller, Class 23, Se Brood mare. 1st, R. H. Taber, 2. P. M. Bredt & Irene.

King.

3rd, R. H. Taber, Sunheam. 4, Traynor Bros. Class 23, Se Yeld mare, 4 years

1, R. H. Taber, C 2, R. H. Taber, Lassie. 3rd, P. M. Bredt wald, Black Diamond Class 23, Se

Fillies foaled in 19 1, A, and G. Glasnick Baroness. 2, R. H. Taber, the Waves. 3, Traynor Bros. SHIRES, PERCE FOLKS, PUNCH

Class 24, S Stallions foaled p 1st, W. E. and R Portal, Robosse.