New York, Jan. 23.—An Evening Journal speial from London says:— The war office has received a long despatch from Lord Roberts. It is believed a great battle was fought in Natal yesterday by Buller's forces, but nothing has been given out yet, and news despatches have been held up

FROM BOER SOURCES.

Boer Camp, Upper Tugela River, Friday, Jan. 19.—The British now occupy three positions along the Tugela river. Their naval guns have firing steel-pointed armor-piercing shells.

Reports being received that 2,000 British cavalty were attempting to outflank us along the Drakenberg ridge, a strong patrol was sent to reconnoidre. Mistaking signals, the scouts and patrol proceeded to a kopje from whence a terrific rifle and Maxim gun fire suddenly opened.

The Boers lost 14 killed and 20 wounded. The British loss was Brakfontein are taken, and marches eastward.

Gen. Buller's headquarters are on the heights behind Polgieter's drift, but as Barton's brigade is at Chieveley and Hildyard's is persistently reported to be with Warren on the fighting line, he cannot have large reserves at Springfield.

The situation, while promising ultimate British success, is fraught with danger, Gen. Buller's force is hardly adequate in strength for so bold a movement, and its success is largely dependent on Dutch neglect to make use of superior mobility for a counter attack.

Gen. Buller has challenged good for-tune in playing for high stakes. Suc-

Albert Canuelle, of Detroit, formerly of this city, died very suddenly there last Saturday. Canuelle's wife died in this city two or three months ago, after which he moved to Detroit with his family. He secured work in a chair factory last Tuesday. Thursday evening he and another man were sent to open a barrel of wood alcohol. They partook freely of the poisonous stuff and went home drunk. The other man took alarm and secured an antidote, Canuelle said nothing and when his daughter noticed his condition on Friday and summoned a doctor he was past human aid. He died on Saturday. No inquiest will be held. Africa.

The proposal is a most commendable one and will meet with the hearty endorsation of every loyal citizen. The entertainment will bear a dual significance and interest—the honoring and recognition of the veterans who ave given their services in the past and the encouraging of the young Tommy Atkinses, who have just waved their farewe i to home and friends, bound for South Africa.
