To Whom It May Concern:

This is to certify that I had been a sufferer from Nervous Debility, night frequent and seminal weakness for a long time, had been doctoring both in Canada and the U. S. without receiving any benefit, and placed myself under Dr.
Goldberg's care Dec. 28, 1898; I noticed an improvement in my condition in less than one week; was discharged entirely cured April 23, '99, and have had no return of said trouble.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 15th day of January 1900.

MY NATIVE LAND - GOOD-NIGHT.

"Adieu, adieu! my native shore Fades o'er the waters blue;
The night winds sigh, the breakers roar,
And shrieks the wild sea-mew.
You sun that sets upon the sea
We follow in his flight;
Farewell awhile to him and thee,
My native land—Good Night!

"A few short hours and he will rise
To give the morning birth;
And I shall hail the main and skies,
But not my mother earth.
Deserted is my own good hall,
Its hearth is desolate;
Wild weeds are gathering on the wall,
My dogs howl at the gate.

"Come hither, hither, my little page, Why dost thou weep and wail?
Or dost thou dread the blow's rage,
Or tremble at the gale?
But dash the tear-drop from thine
eye,
Our ship is swift and strong;
Our fleetest falcon can fly
More merrily along."

"Let winds be shrill, let waves roll
high,
I fear not wave nor wind;
Yet marvel, Sir Child, that I Am sorrowful in mind;
For I have from my father gone,
A mother whom I love alone,
And have no friend, save these alone,
But these—and One above."

"My father blessed me fervently, Yet did not much complain,
But sorely will my mother sigh
Till I come back again—
"Enough, enough, my little lad!
Such tears become thine eye;
If I thy guileless bosom had,
My own would not be dry."

"Come hither, hither, my staunch yeoman,
Why dost thou look so pale?
Or dost thou dread a Foe's man?
Or shiver at the gale?"
"Dost thou, I tremble for my life!"
"Sir Child, I'm not so weak;
But thinking on an absent wife Will blanch a faithful cheek."

"My spouse and boys dwell near thy hall,
Along the bordering lake,
And when they on their father call,
What answer shall she make?"
"Enough, enough, my yeoman good, Thy grief let none gain say;
But I, who am of lighter mood,
Will laugh to flee away."

"For who would trust the seeming sighs
Of wife or paramour?
Fresh fevers will dry the bright blue eyes.
We late saw streaming o'er,
For pleasures past I do not grieve, Nor perils gathering near."
"My greatest grief is that I leave No thing that claims a tear."

"And now I'm in the world alone,
Upon the wide, wide sea;
But why should I for others groan,
When none will sigh for me?
Perchance my dog will follow in vain,
Till fed by stranger hands;
But long ere I come back again He'd tear me where he stands."

"With thee, my bark, I'll swiftly go Athwart the foaming brine;
Nor care what land thou bear'st me to,
So come, again to mine.
Welcome, welcome, ye dark blue waves!"
And when you fail my sight,
Welcome, ye waves, ye waves!
My Native Land—Good Night!"

Wracking.

Topeka, Kas., Feb. 8.—Mrs. Carrie Nation was called up in police court on the charge of wrecking a "joint," at 406 Kansas avenue. About a hundred of her followers were present.
At the request of the assistant city attorney the charge was dismissed.

A poultry house that combines many advantages is built with an open shed on the south, with tight roof. The house proper should have a warm, dry roosting and laying apartment, arranged so as to afford good ventilation when needed and yet avoid a direct draft.

The cellar is no place for poultry.
While it may be useful in temperature and may protect the fowls from severe cold, as a rule the cellar is damp, and the result usually ends with roup. There are few cellars that are perfectly dry, and poultry houses are to be preferred on this account.

ELECTRIC SPARKS.

Wireless telegraphy in the Hawaiian Islands has not proved a success. Communication has been proved successful between some stations, but between others it has not been.

It is proposed to build an electric light plant at Simla, the summer capital of India. It is in the foothills of the Himalayas, and water power is abundant. Kerolene is used to interfere with another industry. It is said that owing to the introduction of electricity for the manufacture of cigars, cigarettes and tobacco several thousand hands will soon be thrown out of work.

THE CAPTIVE.

She smiled, but he was adamant;
She pouted, still he didn't care;
He knew not that for him alone
She fastened roses in her hair.

She—If you had no idea when we could get married, why did you propose to me?
He—To tell the truth, darling, I had no idea you would accept me.

MATRON AND MAID.

Lady Kautford, the niece of Lord Macaulay, is at work upon a life of Zachary Macaulay, the historian's father.

A cousin of Dr. Livingstone, Mrs. Mac-Queen, who was Kate Livingstone, is alive at the age of 104 at Salon, in the isle of Mull.

Miss Bessie MacDonald, who has just been married in Paris to Baron Rudolph de Hirsch, is from Chicago, where she was known as a singer.

Miss Arline Peck, the daughter of Ferdinand W. Peck, the United States commissioner to the Paris exposition, will be married to William A. Simms of Dayton, O., shortly after her return from Europe in December.

Mrs. Charles G. Washburn of Worcester, wife of the head of the Washburn Wire works, has agreed to provide a complete furnishing of Slater memorial dormitory of the Woman's college at Brown university as a gift to the college.

Mrs. Mary Little of Philadelphia celebrated her one hundred and first birthday the other day. Her eyesight is good and her hearing is but slightly impaired, while her memory seems perfect.
Her voice is marvelous for one of her years.

Miss Pearl Robinson of Chicago is the smallest bride of the year. She measures 35 inches in height when she stands erect and weighs 55 pounds. Her husband is Albert Critch, a dwarf. Both have been on the museum stage since infancy.

Rev. Ella Groendyke, sister of Rev.
Montgomery Groendyke, of Hartford City, Ind., has been sent to Sierra Leone, where the massacre of the missionaries occurred last year. She has already spent four years in Africa and will undertake to rebuild the destroyed missions.

Mrs. Josephine M. J. Dodge, widow of Arthur M. Dodge of New York and eldest daughter of the late Governor Marshall Jewell of Hartford, has presented to the Wadsworth Athenaeum in Hartford a statue in marble of "Zenobia, the Queen of Palmyra, in Chains," the work of the well known American sculptor, Miss Harriet Hosmer.

Miss C. A. Duker of Rotterdam, Holland, has received a gold medal for her exhibit at the Paris exposition, and in addition Queen Wilhelmina has conferred upon her the order of Orange Nassau.

Miss Duker is the sixth woman in her country to be honored in this way. She has been at the head of the Girls' Industrial school in Rotterdam for 13 years.

PEN, CHISEL AND BRUSH.

T. Sidney Cooper, the English artist, has just celebrated his ninety-seventh birthday.

Mark Twain thinks London one of the best cities in which one may write, because there is there, he thinks, nothing new to distract one.

Judge Robert Grant of Boston, the novelist, is a member of the board of oversight of Harvard for 1901. Besides being a B. A., he is a doctor of philosophy.

Frederic MacMonnies has furnished to the committee having in hand the erection of a memorial to Benjamin West in Swarthmore, Pa., his conception of what the monument should be. MacMonnies is a descendant of West.

Rowland Evans Robinson, who died in Manchester, N. H., the other day, was once well known as the author of "Dan-in vis Folks" and other books. Early in his career he became blind, but this did not greatly hinder his literary labors.

Frank Stockton's illness has made him appreciate the quiet retreat of his West Virginia home from the noise and excitement of city life. In spite of the illness, however, his 66 years of age and his white hair and mustache, he retains his mental vigor, works every day in his large library and will soon send from there a new book.

POULTRY POINTERS.

Laying hens should not have too much soft feed. Some hard grain should be given.

One important secret of egg production in winter is warm, dry quarters for the laying hens.

Generally speaking, old fowls should be weeded out. Now is a good time to dispose of them.

For best breeding should not be pushed too fast or overfed. A steady, even development is best.

Keep on culling. Do not winter a single fowl that you have no use for. The profits are greater when the expenses are least.

Just The Blues.

Many a woman dresses to go out, feels irresolute, sits down, and falls into a fit of despondent musing. Ask her what's the matter, and she'll probably answer "Just the blues." And what are the blues? Only another name, in general, for a condition of liver and a disordered stomach. Cleanse the liver, heal the stomach, purify the blood, and there'll be no more blues. It can be done by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This medicine puts the diseased organs of digestion and nutrition into the way to sound health. It eliminates from the blood all impure and poisonous substances, and cleanses the clogged liver. It contains neither alcohol nor narcotics.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure biliousness.

THE MOVING WORLD.

By the aid of modern machinery one man can cut 10,000 watch wheels in a day.

The production of aluminum for commercial uses began in 1889 with a total output of 47,498 pounds. In 1898 it had reached 5,200,000 pounds, and at present the rate of production is over 7,000,000 pounds a year.

In order to prevent soap being left in the bowl a genius has invented an automatic drain. The soap is transacted on the prongs of a fork made of flexible wire, attached to the back of the slab.
When it is desired to use the soap, the fork is grasped and the flexible stem allowing it to be held under either faucet and instantly returning it to a vertical position when released.

NAVAL NOTES.

The Russian naval estimates for 1901 amount to 97,007,000 rubles, of which 90,000,000 fall under the head of ordinary expenditures.

Lieutenant Doddridge, U. S. N., who has been in command of the torpedo boat
"Tulip" during the trial of liquid fuel on that vessel, has no hesitation in saying that the experiments have proved that liquid fuel is worth while.

It is understood that it is the intention of the navy department to improve the repair station at Cavite, so that all the immediate needs of the ships there can be attended to. Under existing conditions extensive repairs must be made at the British dockyard at Hongkong, a journey of something like 600 miles.

ANIMAL LIFE.

The celebrated Boer ponies have the blood of the Basuto pony in them, and the Basuto pony is a pure bred Scotchman.

The sea hedgehog, or globefish, can inflate his body with air. In this state it looks like a balloon covered with spikes and is quite safe from any enemy.

During the summer thrushes get up before 3 o'clock in the morning and don't go to bed until after 9 o'clock at night, so they work nearly 19 hours. Blackbirds are not nearly so industrious. They only work 17 hours.
