To Assert Canada's Claim Among the Younger Nations.

Morning Post Says Canada Has Rival Australia Aspires to Leadership of the Colonies - Premier to Make Trade Arrangements With Continental Nations - Brodeur Goes to Russia-Conference Opens To-Day.

Liverpool, April 15.—(C. A. P.)—
Before 9 a.m. on Saturday a number of Canadians from Liverpool and London were present at the landing stage, expecting the Empress of Britain to land her passengers, but it was two hours or more after the Lucania passengers landed that the Empress passengers landed that the Empress passengers disembarked. Among the Canadians at the landing stage were W. L. Griffiths, representing Lord Strathcona; Ald Jury, Clifford Sifton and Captain Kingsmill.

Mr. Barker, secretary of the Liverpool Chamber of Commerce, was present for the purpose of renewing an invitation to Sir Wilfrid Laurier to visit Liverpool. The Lord Mayor of Liverpool welcomed Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

Declined Interviews.

Also, some score of press representatives attempted to interview Sir Wilfrid, who, while exceedingly cordial, declined to say anything only that what he had to say would be said at the conference.

The voyage, said Sir Wilfrid, speaking to the Canadian Associated Press, was not what could be called a pleasant one, but still he stood it fairly well, as did also Lady Laurier. Sir Frederick Borden enjoyed the voyage capitally. All are in good spirits, and eager for the fray.

Three royal blue carriages were supplied by the railway for the Laurier party, and Lady Grey's party.

It is said Sir Wilfrid will visit Paris, but many engagements have yet to be decided upon.

Premier Laurier and his party arrived in London Saturday evening and were met at the railroad station by the Earl of Elgin, Secretary for the Colonies; Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal, the Canadian high commissioner, and other officials.

CHEER GEN. BOTHA.

Premier of Transvaal Welcomed to England by Crowds.
London, April 15.—(C. A. P.)—Gen.
Butha, ex-commander-in-chief of the Boer army, and now first Premier of the Transvaal colony under British rule, strived here Saturday to attend the conference of colonial Premiers. The reception accorded the general at Southampton and in London was remarkably hearty. Great crowds cheered him wherever he appeared. At Southampton he was officially welcomed by the mayor and corporation of that city, and in reply to the address Gen. Botha humorously referred to the previous occasion when, on the battlefield, he had been surrounded by Englishmen against his will. The general added that he was thankful now that he was in a position to allow himself to be surrounded by any number of Englishmen without fear of the consequences.

Kingston, April 13.—Frank Young, advance agent for "The Squaw Man," was queerly done out of a watch at the G. T. R. station.

He was about to board a train when a supposed official asked to see his ticket. It was being scrutinized when the official turned to a man and said, 'We ought to put those cars on, but I dó not know if we will have time to do it." Kodak Fiends Pointed Lenses at the Burning Wreck.

Toronto, April 15.—A commercial traveler, E. M. Kane, of this city, was a passenger for Winnipeg when the C. P. R. train was wrecked near Chapleau. Beyond the loss of his baggage, which was burnt, he does not appear to have suffered, but the gruesome sights he witnessed in the death agonies of those who perished in and under the burning cars will never be effaced from his memory.

He said: "The doors had become jammed with the shock and in any event were harder to get at than the windows, which we promptly smashed and climbed out by means of the seats. It was only about two minutes until I was out of the car, and the first thing I saw was the fire, which even then had entirely enveloped the colonist car. In fact, in less than ten minutes the whole car was practically consumed.

"The most marvelous escape was that of the baggageman on the burnt baggage car. This car rolled over twice, and the baggage with which it was filled was smashed all around him, and yet he escaped with a crushed hand.

"An action which was commented upon as being most heartless was that of a couple of kedak fiends from the Pullman car, who took photographs of the fire while it was going on, and the spectacle of these coldblooded artists focussing their instruments on the parts of the wreck under which the poor victims were pinned were most revolting."

The crime for which Lord William The crime for which Lord William was sentenced was stealing from a pawnbroker a box containing $2,000 worth of jewelry, by exchanging it for a similar box, apparently containing the jewels, but which, when opened, was found to contain two pieces of coal wrapped in tissue paper.

Many fashionable women attended the trial, Lord Nevill, who was stylishly dressed, bore himself with composure.

The judge, in pronouncing sentence, said he should treat the case as that of any other prisoner, and would give him the same sentence as he would a workingman.

Her dimensions are the same as those of the Indomitable, namely, she is 17,250 tons, is 530 feet long, exceeding the older armored cruisers by 50 feet; has turbine engines and is expected to attain the high speed of 25 knots an hour.
