The evangelistic services in the U. B. church here continue to grow both in favor and fervor. Each evening has seen the church well filled with listeners who gave earnest attention to each of the several messages which Evangelist H. R. Bell brought them. On Sunday evening so great a crowd attended that the previous Lord's Day. On Sunday evening so great a crowd attended that the previous Lord's Day. Miss Helen Harold left on Saturday for a visit with her aunt, Mrs. Dr. Owen at Hawkeston. Friends of Miss Everett Harold will be glad to learn that she is making a satisfactory recovery. Mrs. Harold, who is 75 years of age, had the misfortune to fall and fracture her hip, and despite her advanced years is getting along nicely and able to walk about. She is spending the winter with daughter, Mrs. Owen at Hawkeston.

Interest in horse racing on the local track is still at fever height. Last Saturday witnessed the congregating of all the enthusiastic horsemen in the vicinity, who immensely enjoyed the competition between the several jockeys, who shared honors about evenly. Some one of course has the speediest horse and things are going to be a bit interesting before the victor is discovered.

The United Farmers' of Centreville will meet in the Farmers' Hall, Centreville on Saturday, Feb. 5th, 1921, at 2.30 p.m. T. W. Caldwell, M. BROOKER-HOPKINS

A quiet wedding took place at Bath on December 31, when Gordon R. Brooker was united in marriage to Annie Hopkins, youngest daughter of George Hopkins of Fielding. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. G. A. Gibson.

The bride wore a dress of blue tulle and georgette and black fox fur to match, the latter being the groom's present to the bride.

That evening a party of relatives and friends of the young couple gathered at the groom's home at Fielding and showered them with presents both numerous and useful. They spent the evening in dancing and other amusements and as midnight drew on a delectable lunch was served, after which the crowd went home wishing the young couple a long and happy married life.

Hands were on FIRE

A Remarkable Case of Eczema.

"My hands broke out," says Mrs. Hector McDonald, of Oyster Ponds, N.S., "into a fiery irritable rash which the doctor called eczema. When his treatment failed to check the trouble I tried various salves and so-called blood-purifiers. But I got steadily worse and what were just isolated sores at first became one large mass of eczema. For over a year this went on, and you can imagine my suffering."

"Then I got Zam-Buk and I shall never forget how it soothed the dreadful fiery pain and itching. Even the first box of Zam-Buk effected wonderful improvement. Day by day the sores lessened and died away until, in time, the last sore healed. Zam-Buk banished every trace of disease."
