GRASS SALE on Saturday by Edward Cogswell.

The Hon. Geo. E. King has been appointed a Q. C.

A Pic Nic takes place at Abouhagan on Tuesday, 30th inst.

PROP. JOHN ALLISON'S lectures at St. John create much interest. He is expected at Sackville.

GOVERNOR ARCHIBALD, of Nova Scotia, has been re-appointed to reign for five years more.

MESSRS. KING and PALMER have been formally nominated for the Opposition, St. John.

DR. TUPPER spoke last night at a grand Liberal Conservative gathering at Sydney, C. B.

The Hon. Mr. Chandler will be sworn in Lieutenant-Governor probably next Monday or Tuesday.

LOMBARD.—The schooner "Julia Grace" sailed from Halifax for Havre on Saturday with $36,000 worth of lobster.

PLASTER OF PARIS, from James Corbett's Works, Amherst, for sale by T. Baird & Son, and George Lawrence, -61

MESSRS. HYNDMAN, Charlottetown, have failed for $123,000. Unsecured creditors to the amount of $77,000 will get 50 cents on the dollar.

SPRINTZING.—Prof. A. A. Cecil's performance last Thursday at Chignecto Hall was very interesting. Another performance at an early day is promised.

SYLVAIN E. HERBERT, of Cape Bland, committed and tried at Amherst last week for obtaining goods fraudulently from T. R. Jones, was acquitted and discharged.

CATTLE TRADE.—Mr. J. McDonald sends a car load every week from Au Lac. A few days ago he purchased $1,900 worth of fat cattle from Harmon Humphrey, Esq.

CANADA FIRE AND MARINE INSURANCE CO.—All descriptions of property insured at rates adequate to risk involved. Apply to J. McC. Snow, General Agent, Moncton.

PEWHAUGH July 13.—Diphtheria still lingers. New cases are reported. Norwegian barque "Norden", towed to sea yesterday. "Leonida" and "Condor" are loading and will follow.

SHIP LAUNCH.—On Tuesday, Messrs. Copp Bros., Port Elgin, launched a very fine barque of about 400 tons, register to class A. 1. 8 years in English Lloyd's. The owners load her with deals for Europe, Capt. Grant commands her.

SUPREME COURT.—The first case called was Thomas vs. Giddett, an action of trespass for putting the plaintiff off the train at Amherst. Hanington and Borden for plaintiff; Weldon and Dr. Barker for defendant.

DORCHESTER, July 13th.—Wm. Yates has a magnificent field of potatoes, 2 1/2 ft. high, all in blossom. The upland hay crop promises better than last year, the marsh crop not so well. Potatoes, oats, barley, wheat and roots all look well.

The Charlottetown Patriot says:—Wm. Haydon, Esq., caught in St. Peter's Bay in two nights last week, 123 salmon in four nets. Mr. Horatio F. P. Sanderson caught 93 in a like period. Messrs. McDonald, Rapson and Shag are also getting good catches. St. Peter's is becoming famous for salmon catching.

KENT CO. APPOINTMENTS.—Mr. J. D. Phinney has been appointed Clerk of Probates; Robt. Caie, Clerk of the Circuit; and Robert Hutchinson, Clerk of the Peace. In Restigouche, R. J. Bennett has been appointed Clerk of the Circuit; John Barbare, Registrar of Probates; and Jas. S. Morse, Clerk of the Peace.

SHIPPING.—Brigt. "Alice Ada", Outhouse, sailed from this port on 12th inst., for the United Kingdom, with 153 standard deals and ends by Wood and Ogden. On 12th, brig "Westminster", Campbell, sailed for the United Kingdom with 110 standard deals and ends from Morice and Chase. On 14th inst., the three masted schooner "Keystone" arrived at this port with coal and threshing machines consigned to Ed. Page.

SALISBURY, July 13th.—Mr. P. Gray is erecting a large two and a half story house 36x26. More building would go on here, but land speculators hold it at extravagant prices, and people are driven away.

The policy is a suicidal one. The steam mill of Messrs. Gray & Wheaton is doing good service. It has been refitted since it came into the present owners' hands and cuts lathes, shingles, &c., besides having attached to it a grist mill.

Tux Soap Works of T. W. Bell & Co., Shediac, are now turning out some new grades of a better quality than heretofore. The "Laundry Bar" is a very superior pressed bar soap made from the purest materials. The "White Cocoa Soap" and "Blue Mottled" are something new in the market. Besides these, the firm manufacture four other grades. Their soaps wherever introduced give complete satisfaction.

PARRISBROOK ITEMS.—The crops in general are in an advanced condition. The yield of hay is better than for some years. Some few farmers have commenced haying. The potato crop will be large, and good if the latter part of the season be dry. All grains are looking well.—The mills are now carried in the train.—There is to be a steamboat excursion on the 15th, to Spencer's Island.—Schools closed on the 12th for the summer vacation. Seven candidates go to Amherst for examination.

The Murder Trial will be fully reported in this paper. Should any new evidence of importance be elicited during its progress we will issue an extra. The prisoners were arraigned yesterday, behaved perfectly cool and pleaded "Not Guilty." The Parker girl has been in Court and is the centre of attraction.

"NEVER GIVE UP."—Rev. Robt. Wilson of Hopewell, one of the most talented and indefatigable of the Methodist Ministers of this Conference, is adding to his labors as a pastor and lecturer, by publishing a work, "Never Give up, or Life in the Lower Provinces." It is a 160. of 300 pages and issued from the New office. It is a record of facts with names attached to admit of freedom of description. It is intended more particularly for the young. Mr. Wilson's name is a sufficient guarantee that the work will be interesting and of a high literary excellence.

DORCHESTER, 17th July.—This morning the Grand Jury returned a true bill against Messrs. Osborne, Eliza and Harry Osborne, for the murder of McCarthy, and against John Osborne, as accessory after the fact. Trial fixed for to-morrow morning. Prisoners received the news with utmost unconcern.

The Grand Jury found a true bill against Denis O'Brien, for incest with a little girl named Lily foot, Moncton. He pleaded not guilty, expressed himself ready for immediate trial, but was remanded. The Grand Jury was discharged after finding a true bill against O'Brien.

Jury in Thomas vs. Giddett, at 8:30 to-night, returned verdict in plaintiff's favor for $1,111. The Judge after hearing the Jury's reply to the questions submitted for their consideration directed verdict to be entered for the plaintiff, and the case for defendant to move for verdict in his favor.

BOTSFORD, July 15.—The crops in Botsford are looking well. Potato crop promises to be very good. The English hay is better than last year. Marsh hay is very good and looks quite forward. Wheat, barley and oats are coming on well. Rain has been much needed, but we had some fine showers on Sunday afternoon. The price of Botsford are behind the times for facilities to transport their produce to market, they are coming to the conclusion that the wrong man is moulding the destinies of the Botsford, and the general talk is a change is necessary. The local agitation is getting acrid, and all parties accept the situation. Two married women (sisters) living at Cape Spear, Botsford, have made themselves notorious of late, been much needed, but we had some fine showers on Sunday afternoon.
