EDWARD'S VISIT TO CZAR OF RUSSIA

Causing Great Interest in Russia.

Hard Test For King's Statesmanship.

Will Have Long Talk With the Emperor.

St. Petersburg, June 6.—The effects of King Edward's forthcoming visit to Russia are being keenly canvassed in political circles here principally with regard to its relation to Germany, against which the broad trend of the King's recent policies is supposed to run.

Serious politicians are of the opinion that King Edward's statesmanship has now to face the hard test, the initiating of more intimate relations with Russia, on whose soil he will be the first English King to set foot. The task, however, will be facilitated by the political necessities, and mutual advantages will be equally appreciated by both sides.

Public opinion here is ready to meet England more than half way. All political parties, except the Extreme Reactionaries, look upon an Anglo-Russian accord as natural to the completion of the chain of Franco-Russian and Anglo-French ties.

Matters to be discussed at the meeting by King Edward and Emperor Nicholas will take a wide range and particular attention will be given to questions relating to Morocco and Macedonia, regarding which the need of a common Anglo-Russian-French policy is especially felt.

W. H. WARDROPE, The Man for West Hamilton.

DID NOT MARRY SECOND TIME.

IT WAS SIMPLY A CASE OF "SCOTCH MARRIAGE."

Charge Against Thomas Kirkpatrick, Who pleaded Guilty of Bigamy, Was Dismissed.

Although Thomas Kirkpatrick pleaded guilty to a charge of bigamy when in the Toronto Police Court last week, the Crown has decided that the prisoner is innocent of the offence. The woman in the case, who is commonly known as Minnie Hays, declared that they had never been married. She knew that Kirkpatrick had a wife in Hamilton, who left him because he would not turn Roman Catholic, and Mrs. Kirkpatrick, No. 1 had also married again. After hearing the woman's statement, the Crown decided to investigate the matter, and Mr. Corley made his report yesterday.

"I believe that the woman is right," he said. "We can find no record of any ceremony having taken place, so I have come to the conclusion that perhaps it was just a Scotch marriage." The case was dismissed.

STEAMER ON ROCK.

City of Montreal's Passengers Had Thrilling Time.

Morrisburg, Ont., June 5.—A party of about 20 tourists reached Morrisburg to-day after a thrilling experience and a long delay on the St. Lawrence. They were passengers on the steamer City of Montreal, which stranded at noon on Thursday, 14 miles below here, and which is likely to remain there for about a week.

The steamer was carrying over 600 tons of freight, and this heavy cargo is all that prevented her from turning turtle. The steering cable snapped and the boat swung towards the New York shore.

The tourists were at dinner, when the steamer broad-sided to the twenty-mile current and bumped into the rocks. Passengers, tables, chairs and dishes were hurled pell-mell over the floor, and some of the former were badly shaken. The piano tilted, the freight in the hold slid about, and pandemonium reigned until the ship stuck fast. The prow was about 50 feet from the shore, but a salt tar twenty times across the Atlantic, declared it a miracle that there was not an upset.

Capt. R. Chesmit, of St. Catharines, who is relieving Capt. Lefebvre, and Purser Purtil were put ashore and after an afternoon's absence arrived to transfer the passengers to Morrisburg via steam launch, and from there by rail. The only Toronto passengers were Mrs. J. V. Patton, 295 Beatrice street, and Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Peel, of Parkdale.

SUED FOR JEWELS.

Count Bought Them and Anna Gould Won't Pay.

Paris, June 6.—Counsel for Madame Anna Gould has applied to the civil tribunal to grant her a delay in the payment of $24,000 to Madame Nemoiff, a singer, for a necklace purchased by her former husband, Count Boni de Castellane, pointing out that her income now is only $8,000 per month, and that it would be impossible to pay such a large sum immediately. The court consented to the payment of $6,000 each three months to the singer.

The Court of Appeals in February last confirmed the judgment of the lower court, ordering Count de Castellane and Madame Gould jointly to pay Vera Nemoiff, an opera singer, $24,000 for jewels which the count purchased from her prior to the divorce of the Countess from the Count.

WANT OF CONFIDENCE

is a prominent feature with many dealers. They lack confidence in the ability of their customers to appreciate and purchase a high class cat-snip. Ask for E. D. Smith's and you will get a choice article at a moderate price. Have you tried the little rosette beads?

Some girls are angels and some are high-flyers; there's a difference.

STUNG AGAIN.

AFTER THE POLE.

Perry and Bartlett to Start With Newfoundland Crew.

St. John's, Nfld., June 6.—Happy in the hope of a successful dash for the North Pole with Commander Robert E. Perry, Captain Bartlett, sailing master of the Arctic explorer, and a crew of eleven sailors, departed to-day on the Allan line steamer Siberian for New York, where they make their start for the north on Perry's ship Roosevelt.

The sailors have been selected with regard to their adaptability to Arctic exploration, and are practically the pick of Newfoundland's seamen. Capt. Bartlett asserts that if the Roosevelt is fortunate enough to gain the position made during the last attempt to reach the Pole, the experience acquired in that voyage, combined with the aid of the specially selected crew, will make this effort to reach the desired goal an easy task.

TAFT AND GOLF.

He Won't be Able to Attend the Toronto Tournament.

New York, June 6.—A special to the Times from Washington says: "Secretary Taft generally spends his summers at Murray Bay, Canada, golfing, and the newspapers have exploited his skill. To-day Henry L. West, Commissioner of the District of Columbia, who is an enthusiastic golfer, went to the War Department in behalf of the American Golf Association, of advertising interests, to extend an invitation to Taft to attend the tournament at Toronto, July 6 to 11. "Just now," replied the Secretary, "there are several reasons why we all can't agree to go. In the first place, if I should go and all the fine prizes you tell about should be offered, it would be a shame for an American guest of the association to carry them off. In the second place, if I'm able to negotiate certain arrangements at Chicago which I now expect to handle satisfactorily, I'll have no time to play golf this year. In the third place, if I don't make those little arrangements at Chicago, my fellows won't want me at your tournament anyhow."

THE MAN IN OVERALLS

Vote for Wardrope.

Vote for McClemont.

Loan your rig for Monday.

Vote early and get the others out early.

Take a day off, if you can, and help our candidates.

The man caught buying votes will go to jail.

I thought the hotel men were not to be assessed, Mr. Scott.

This is Mr. Hendrie's finish.

Mr. Scott thinks this is a buy-election. But it isn't.

The only way to get rid of Whitney is to vote the Liberal ticket.

If you have a horse and buggy or wagon, come around with them on Monday morning and help get out the vote.

The church people have not forgotten that insult, Mr. Scott.

Oh! Peter Bertram, how could you?

The Spectator calling Mr. McClemont names is not making any votes for Scott.

Never mind the roorbachs. Vote for Wardrope and McClemont.

Make it blue Monday for the Tories.

Mr. Hendrie gave the Toronto people two votes and gives you only one. Toronto can get anything it wants. Hamilton gets nothing.

If any man tries to bribe you on Monday, lodge a complaint against him and have him punished.

Those two hotel men who were canvassing in East Hamilton yesterday may know what is best for them, but I don't think it.

The only way to get rid of Whitney is to vote the Liberal ticket.

Pay no attention to Peter Bertram. He'll be sorry he spoke next week.

Remember that Hendrie's railway bill is not worth the paper it is printed on.

Dan Reed will be elected in South Wentworth sure thing, if the Liberals get out and work and vote for him. But they've got to do it.

Very likely some lies will be published to-night or Monday morning about Wardrope and McClemont. Take no stock in them. They will lie anyway.

Don't forget that Whitney has been doing his best to keep immigrants from going to the Northwest, and has been steering them into this Province.

The Canadian Manufacturers' Association (Tory) has also been dumping mechanics into Hamilton, so as to keep down wages. John Milne hasn't denied it.

If you know any one who has to be sent for to vote, let it be known at the proper quarter.

Scott can't be elected. That's settled.

Don't throw away your vote on Studholme. The only way to get the Liberals back into office is to vote for Liberals.

The Tories will spend any amount of money to elect their men. They will be watched, and, if caught, will be severely punished.

Vote early and help the others to vote.

Then come around at night to the Times office and help cheer over the big victory.

A TRAITOR.

The man who sells his vote is not a man. He is a politician—a traitor to his country. When he sells his vote he sells his birthright for a mess of pottage. He is selling for filthy lucre what cost his and your forefathers their very life blood. The right to vote, which he esteems so lightly that he will part with it for a dollar or two, was secured to him only after long years of agitation, struggle and sacrifice. It was the culmination of a century of conflict between the masses and the classes, and the boon was worth all the strife. On election day at least the poorest man is the equal of the millionaire. With his ballot in his hand his influence is as great, for weal or woe, as that of the highest of the land. His ballot counts just as much as does the others. Jack is as good as his master. Need I add that the man who buys a vote is as contemptible, if not more so, than the man who sells one? No Liberal at least can stoop to such a deal without striking a deadly blow at the principles of his party—the party which secured the ballot for all. Be a man and act according to your convictions on Monday. Treat any attempt at bribery as an insult, and, if possible, bring the would-be briber to justice. We must have a clean election.

LAW-M'ILLAN.

Former Hamilton Young Man Married in Manitoba.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Fingland, 127 Clarke street, Fort Rouge, Manitoba, was the scene of a quiet wedding on Tuesday evening last, when David W. Law and Miss Emma Marjorie McMillan, a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Fingland, were united in marriage by Rev. Dr. Wilson.

Miss Agnes Armstrong acted as bridesmaid, whilst Mr. Taylor assisted the groom. The bride was given away by her uncle, Mr. John McMillan, of Moose Jaw.

After the ceremony the guests to the number of fifteen sat down to a sumptuous repast. The esteem in which the married couple were held was evidenced by the number and value of the presents received, and by the presence of a number of old friends from distant points.

Mr. Law is a son of Mr. R. Law, 46 St. Matthew's avenue, this city. He has met with good success in the west.

NO MONUMENT ON CANADIAN SOIL

TO SOLDIERS WHO WERE ATTACKING THIS COUNTRY.

Wentworth Historical Society Places Itself on Record—Annual Meeting Held Last Evening.

The Wentworth Historical Society held its 19th annual meeting last evening in the parlour of the Y. M. C. A. The Secretary-Treasurer first read his report, in which he said the past year, though not marked by public effort or effect, was nevertheless one of fairly effectual work. A request from the Toronto societies that the local society join in protesting against the abolition of the old fort there, was granted, and the protest forwarded. On Feb. 17, 1908, a branch of the Wentworth Historical Society was founded at Stoney Creek, with E. D. Smith, M. P., and W. A. Corman, Honorary President and President respectively, and Rev. W. G. Davis, Secretary. The President, on behalf of the society, backed by the Veterans' Association, signed a petition to the Minister of Militia for the erection of a monument on the Stoney Creek battlefield. A reply was received from the Minister stating that a sum would be voted for that purpose. Affiliation was brought about with the Historical Landmarks Association. A prize of $50 is to be given for the best essay on Quebec, composed by any of the pupils of the Wentworth county schools. The society did not receive the usual grant from the Ontario Government this year, but it was explained that it had been overlooked, and they would receive a double amount next year. The receipts were $249.06; expenses $161.15; balance $87.91.

The reports from the Stoney Creek branch were then read. The receipts were $18.50, expenses $16.03, balance $2.47. The branch has 74 members and is getting along splendidly. The following officers were elected: Rev. George A. Bull, Honorary President; Justus A. Griffin, President; S. F. Lazier, K. C., First Vice-President; H. H. Robertson, Second Vice-President; The President of the Ladies' Committee, Third Vice-President; J. H. Land, Secretary-Treasurer; Mrs. R. G. Sutherland, Corresponding Secretary; Charles Lemon, J. H. Smith, J. A. Barr, Lieut.-Col. A. H. Moore, R. T. Steele, D. Martin, John Gardiner, Major J. E. Orr, E. D. Smith, M. P., W. E. Corman, and Lieut.-Col. Van Wagner, Executive Committee.

A resolution that met with the support of all was the following: "That whereas we have learned from the public press that a bill has been introduced into the House of Representatives at Washington providing for the erection of a monument at Fort Erie, in memory of the United States soldiers who fell there, resolved, that we enjoin a protest against the erection of any monument on Canadian soil, by any foreign Government, in memory of men who fell while attacking our country."

A resolution of regret upon the death of the late Mrs. J. Rose Holden was passed. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the Y. M. C. A. for the use of their parlour.

Why H. & W. Road Is Not Building.

Fine Address by Wardrope In 3 Ward.

Large Crowd Heard Mr. McClemont In No. 7.

W. H. Wardrope, Liberal candidate in West Hamilton, fired the last shot of his campaign in ward three last night at an open air meeting on Locke street south, when he addressed an enthusiastic gathering and was given a cordial reception. It was a strong note the candidate struck when he dealt with the way the Whitney Government had shaken the faith of outside capital in Canada when it took the owner of the O'Brien mine by the throat and shook twenty-five per cent. of the earnings of the mine out of him. Emphasizing the far reaching effect of an act of this kind in scaring off capitalists, Mr. Wardrope referred to the case of John Patterson, who has just returned from the old country, where he had been trying to finance the building of the Hamilton, Waterloo & Guelph Railway. "What did these capitalists say to him?" asked the speaker. "They said, 'We understand that after the Ontario Government grants patents they are in the habit of taking the owners by the throat and shaking out of them what don't belong to the Government. In the meantime we will not grant you any money, but we will look into it.'"

With his characteristic vigor, Mr. Wardrope flayed the Government for its inconsistency, and its failure to show that a single dollar had been spent during Liberal rule, although Whitney and his followers, then in opposition, had promised to make startling revelations when they got control. The La Rose deal, the C. N. R. guarantee, the prison labor contracts, the Normal College steal and other matters were touched on. Regarding the gerrymander which gives every man in Toronto two votes, Mr. Wardrope asked the electors if Whitney was giving the native born Canadians a square deal or looking after their interests when he gave foreigners in Toronto two votes, as compared with one any other part of the country.

Mr. Hendrie was an estimable gentleman, but Mr. Wardrope declared that Colonel Hendrie had not looked after the interests of Hamilton in allowing the Normal College to go.

William M. Findlay, chairman of the meeting, spoke of his anxiety for the Government for its failure to lift the liquor license administration out of politics.

P. Griffin, another speaker, referred to the local situation regarding the license administration, when one of the commissioners, a local politician, stepped out to make room for one more in harmony with the party. Col. Hendrie at his meeting had stated that the Government could not do to the expense of $7,000 to create the office of Minister of Labor. He had said that it was not practical to do so. Surely the labor people would resent any such statement from any public man.

During the meeting some of the prison made goods were displayed.

Crowded McClemont Meeting.

About two hundred people crammed the tent at Barton and Wentworth streets where W. M. McClemont spoke last evening and the Prison Labor Contract got another awful bump. The Tory three-cents-an-hour prison labor made goods were shown to the crowd and the candidate explained to just what extent this prison contract business was hurting the workmen. With a Minister of Labor this sort of robbery would not be stood for one week and a Minister of Labor was what Mr. McClemont promised the crowd he would fight for.

Cheers greeted this promise and when ever the name of Whitney was mentioned there were loud jeers and groans from the crowd. Like Thursday night's meeting, last night's meeting was composed nearly wholly of working men. That prison labor is unpopular, was clearly shown by the spirit in which the crowd greeted the production of some of the goods made in prison under the Whitney regime. Reference to the latest scheme of the Tories in trying to buy the two ridings of Hamilton showed that the crowd was dead against such dirty tactics and was with Mr. McClemont when he appealed to his opponent in east Hamilton for a clean election. This appeal Scott had not deigned to answer and the crowd was left to draw its own conclusions. The school book gag, that much denied promise of free school-books, was also laughed at. Mr. McClemont reiterated that part of Whitney's speech when he said two Griggs would get as much for Hamilton as two Tories.

A point discussed by Mr. P. Griffin, who also spoke, was the view the local senior Tory organ took of the Minister of Labor scheme. This organ said that a Minister of Labor would cost the province $7,000 and that the work of this man would cost another $7,000, and they did not consider at all the fact that 75 per cent. of the voters are working men. The idea of a Minister of Labor was first brought up by Mr. McClemont and to him belongs the honor of first insisting on the rights of the working man despite the way the Tories blockade anything that their party is not in favor of. James Chisholm brought the meeting to a close with an able appeal to the voters to work for Mr. McClemont, the
