Laws.

Laws are what some chap, or collection of chaps, wrote in a book in an attempt either to approximate or orde-step public opinion. This is true of all laws except unwritten laws, in which case you are entitled to as a ray guesses as you wish, and the last guess is right.

All laws, both written and unwritten, may be yiewed according either of the letter or the spirit. The legal procession supports the letter and is an item supported by the spirit.
