select their men. These chosen ones set up for popular election in all the States on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, and the State Electoral Colleges are thus formed.

DWARFED PLANTS.—So great is the skill of Chinese gardeners in dwarfing plants that the Chinese ladies wear in their becoms little dwarfed fir trees, which, by a carefully adjusted system of starvation have been reduced to the size of button-hole flowers.

In a quarrel about women at Napanea, on Tuesday, blows were struck, and Wm. Little stabbed Albert Humphrey in the face. The latter will recover.

Dr. Miller, of Lindsay, died suddenly at noon on Monday. It is stated, from the effect of chloroform, taken by mistake, while under the influence of liquor.

Mr. George Taylor, London, Canada, who keeps about 100 plants in his house, heated by two coal stoves, and has all the winter flowers he wants and some for friends, gives, in the appended extract, from communication to the Fruit Recorder, a hint of the reasons for his success.

Mr. John Dorey's carriage shop was destroyed by fire on Thursday last. Loss $4,000; insured for $1,200. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

A BROKEN HANE.—On Thursday, the 18th inst., a peculiar accident befell Mr. Samuel Trott, of the plaining mill near the market. It seems that as Mr. Trott was moving lumber, he fell, and while doing so put out his right hand to prevent himself from coming to the ground.

Mr. Frank Jarvis, a Chicago journalist, lectured the other evening in the Centenary Church upon the subject of Ingersoll's plagiarism, or the writings of ancient and modern infidels. We quote from the report of the Chicago Tribune:

THE VOLUMES OF THE WEEKLY begin with the first Number for January of each year. When the time is mentioned, it will be understood that the subscriber wishes to commence with the Number next after that of the offer.

HARPER'S WEEKLY

1881. HARPER'S WEEKLY, Illustrated. This periodical, by its able and scholarly discussions of the questions of the day, as well as by its illustrations, which are prepared by the best artists—has always exerted a most powerful and beneficial influence upon the public.

1881. HARPER'S MAGAZINE, Illustrated. "Studying the subject objectively and from the educational point of view—seeking to provide that which taken altogether, will be of the most service to the general mind."

1881. HARPER'S PERIODICALS. HARPER'S MAGAZINE, One Year, $1 00. HARPER'S WEEKLY, One Year, $1 00. HARPER'S BAZAR, One Year, 4 00.

THE GREATEST WONDER OF MODERN TIMES! The Pills Purify the Blood, correct all disorders of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys and Bowels and are invaluable in all complaints incidental to Females.

BEWARE OF AMERICAN COUNTERFEITS.—I most respectfully take leave to call the attention of the Public generally to the fact that certain Houses in New York are sending to many parts of the globe spurious imitations of my Pills and Ointment.

FRUIT EVAPORATING.—The fruit evaporating establishment of Messrs. Wilson & Robertson in this town is now in full blast, with a day and night gang of hands. The building known as the old Baptist Church has been fitted up for the purpose.

HOW THE PRESIDENT IS CHOSEN? No one, except a natural born citizen, is eligible for the office of President of the United States; nor any one who has not attained the age of thirty-five years, and resided for fourteen years within the United States.

It looks as if the great attraction about Sara Bernhardt, is to be her clothes. The New York papers are printing long lists of her dresses, boots and gloves, although so far they have observed a very suggestive silence in regard to her underclothes.

Galusha Manville, mechanic, inventor and patentee of the well-known calendar clock and other articles, was killed at Rutland, Vt., on Tuesday, by falling into the fly wheel in the engine-room of the Harris Manufacturing Company.
