Duckworth Street and Military Road.

ditions will be communicated to President Wilson, says the Morning Post, seem nothing to him. He takes the impartial view that both sides claim to be right and both profess to be fighting for the same objects. The validity of these claims and professions he does not trouble to consider. Referring to Spain's reply, the Post says the Government of Spain may be supposed to understand better the realities of the situation since it is not only less remote from the struggle but inspired by the principles which are probably somewhat nearer to reality. Citing its Washington advices that there is a strong feeling in the United States in support of President Wilson, the Post sees danger that this sentiment may drive the President into action injurious to the interests of the Allies. After expressing the hope that it is impossible for the United States and the Allies to come to blows, the Post concludes, all that need be said is that the Allies are as anxious for peace as President Wilson, but cannot tolerate intervention at a moment when intervention means victory for Germany. The information shows conclusively that the end of German endurance is approaching rapidly. Scarcely a day passes without its report of serious food riots by the underfed population, while the press is complaining bitterly of the starvation of the people. Authorities continue to reduce their allowances, and medical experts say the present ration is far below the standard on which human beings can live. Milk prices in Berlin generally have increased, with a constant decrease in all butter and fat allowance. How grave the question of milk supply must be is countless.

WANTS CATHEDRAL RESTORED.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5. A News Agency despatch from London to-day says Cardinal Hartmann conveyed to Emperor Wilhelm the request of Pope Benedict that the German forces permit the French to restore Rheims Cathedral, according to the Central News despatch from Amsterdam to-day. The Pope, according to the Central News, reported the structure which has been struck hundreds of times by German shells, in danger of collapsing.

WILSON THINKING SERIOUSLY.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5. The President is seriously considering the advisability of making a formal offer of mediation to the warring powers of Europe, according to intimations let drop to-day in high official quarters. So seriously is he considering such a move, it is stated, that instructions have been sent to American diplomatic representatives in Europe to ascertain informally whether such an offer would be resented.

SUNK BY SUBMARINE.

LONDON, Jan. 5. The Ivernia was sunk by an enemy submarine in the Mediterranean on Jan. 1st during bad weather and while carrying troops. At present four military officers and 146 men are missing. The casualties among the Ivernia's officers and crew are not yet definitely known, but hopes are entertained that the only officers of the ship missing are the surgeon and engineer.

STEAMERS SUNK.

LONDON, Jan. 5. Lloyd's Agency announces the sinking of the Spanish steamer San Leandro, 1,616 tons, the Greek steamers Dimitrios, Gualandrio, 3,744 tons, and Aristoletos Iyannou. The Iyannou was last reported as leaving Las Palmas on Dec. 12 for Belfast. The movements of the other steamers sunk has not been received at available marine registers.

FEAR GERMAN INVASION.

PARIS, Jan. 5. The possibility of a German invasion of Switzerland is assuming more and more the aspect of probability in the French view. Gustave Herve, the leader to the subject, calling on Great Britain to take over more of the French battlefront to the west, so that the French troops may be liberated to form an army of manoeuvre ready to strike at any needed point.

WILSON CRITICIZED.

LONDON, Jan. 5. Further criticisms of President Wilson's note are printed in some of the morning papers. In connection with Washington and the impending reply of the Entente, the Times says editorially: The wise and dignified action of the Spanish Government and the significant attitude of Holland and the principal Republics of America show that independent neutrals are not prepared to follow President Wilson's ill-considered lead. His note offers great opportunity for laying our ends before the Americans in words which cannot be misunderstood. We trust it will be greatly used so that the contrast between our position and the ends of our enemies stands out sharp and clear in American eyes, as the contrast between the cause of freedom and the cause of bondage stood in ours when Lincoln invoked upon his abolition edict the considered judgment of mankind. The Morning Post adverts on what it calls "President Wilson's apparent anxiety for peace on any terms." The

RUSSIANS EVACUATE WITH LOSS.

LONDON, Jan. 5. General Maurice, chief director of military operations at the British war office, declared to-day that latest reports received in London from the Roumanian theatre of military operations indicated that the Russian forces have evacuated the province of Dobrodja with loss.

COUNT ANDRASSY'S ANNOUNCEMENT.

AMSTERDAM, Jan. 5. The German public will receive with heavy mixed feelings the announcement of Count Julius Andrassy the Hungarian opposition leader, assuming that his speech is reported correctly and that German peace con-object for which the war is being fought, says the Morning Post, seem nothing to him. He takes the impartial view that both sides claim to be right and both profess to be fighting for the same objects. The validity of these claims and professions he does not trouble to consider. Referring to Spain's reply, the Post says the Government of Spain may be supposed to understand better the realities of the situation since it is not only less remote from the struggle but inspired by the principles which are probably somewhat nearer to reality. Citing its Washington advices that there is a strong feeling in the United States in support of President Wilson, the Post sees danger that this sentiment may drive the President into action injurious to the interests of the Allies. Milk prices in Berlin generally have increased, with a constant decrease in all butter and fat allowance. How grave the question of milk supply must be is countless.

FOOD TROUBLE IN VIENNA.

GENEVA, Jan. 4. The Burgomaster of Vienna, Dr. Meiskerchen, threatens to resign if Hungary continues to refuse to send food to Vienna. According to reports received here he is quoted as saying the prisons are filled chiefly with women and children, convicted of having stolen food, while housewives are afraid to go shopping for food even in the principal streets, owing to robberies and assaults. Swiss-German papers are crowded with advertisements for Swiss servants to go to Germany, the reason being that every Swiss in Germany is allowed to receive from home weekly ten pounds of foodstuffs.

MAKING STATES SHELLS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4. Despite the demands upon the British munition plants, because of the war, Hislop's Limited, an English concern, outbid American companies in the proposals opened to-day for 16-inch and 14-inch armor piercing projectiles for the States Navy. Not only are English companies' figures more than $20 per projectile below the nearest American competitor, but the time is cut in half. The shells are to be delivered in the United States duty paid.

ENEMY TRENCHES RAIDED.

LONDON, Jan. 4. (Official.) Yesterday we successfully raided enemy trenches northeast of Arras. His positions also were entered by us early this morning in two places in the neighborhood of Wytschate, east of Arras. After heavy bombardment a party of Germans endeavored to approach our trenches, but they were driven off with losses before they were able to reach our lines. The enemy exploded a mine early this morning north of Bluff. Enemy artillery activity continues marked in the neighbourhood of Ypres. Elsewhere intermittent activity continued on both sides.

DELIVERED PEACE SPEECH AT BERLIN.

LONDON, Jan. 4. Maximilian Harden, editor of Die Zukunft, delivered a speech at Berlin on Saturday pleading for peace by agreement, according to Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent, who quotes the Berliner Tageblatt. After referring to the enemy's miscalculation of Germany's strength, Herr Harden warned his hearers not to allow themselves to be deceived about the enemy's strength. Russia's resources cannot be exhausted, he said, for indeed as the war proceeds we are only on the edge of this world empire. England's hunger, moreover, is only a catchword, for which there is no foundation, while France's lack of men can be balanced by British troops.

ANOTHER OUTRAGE.

LONDON, Jan. 4. The Admiralty says that another case of callous disregard for the lives of non-combatants has come to light, and says nothing further has been heard of the British steamer Northwales, which was proceeding in ballast from Hull for Canada. A German wireless despatch, Nov. 10, reported her having been torpedoed. As only one piece of wood marked Northwales has been washed ashore, together with some bodies on the Cornish coast, it is presumed the crew which took to the boats in the gale

How Zam-Buk Saved me a lot of money.

For the benefit of others who may be similarly situated, Mr. R. Howat, Sr. of Bracebridge, Ont., requests that we publish the following narrative. He says: "If people only knew the great healing power of Zam-Buk, they could be saved much unnecessary suffering and expense." He continues: "Four years ago I sustained a scratch on my leg, which turned to an ulcer. I was confined to my bed for six months under doctors' treatment, during which time I did not earn a cent, and, in addition, spent dollars upon dollars before a cure was effected. Recently I sustained a scratch on my other leg. It became very inflamed and swollen, and finally turned to an ulcer. This time, I knew about Zam-Buk, and I acted very differently from what I did in the previous instance. I used Zam-Buk alone, with the result that not only was the nicer healed in much shorter time than the previous one, but I was able to go to work all the time it was healing, and I did not lose a single day's pay. Zam-Buk is certainly a wonderful ointment, and should be in every home."

WHAT ZAM-BUK IS BEST FOR
Zam-Buk is just as good for eczema, blood-poisoning, abscesses, running sores, boils, pimples, piles, cuts, burns, scalds and all skin injuries. 50c. box, 3 for $1.00. All drug-gists and stores, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

Good Words for the Street Car Men.

Dear Mr. Editor.—Just a small bit of space in the ever popular Telegram to relieve my mind of a matter which has been annoying me of late. This, sir, I understand from reliable sources that the Conductors and Motormen on our street cars have applied lately for a raise in pay, and I, for one, sincerely hope that they will get it. Apart from the police I do not know of any other body of men who deserve better recognition of services than our street car staff. They are capable and obliging servants, their duties are monotonous, the hours of service long, and they are exposed to the cold and inclement weather which by our fire-sides cannot affect us.

Man Injured.

Last night on New Gower Street, a deaf man named Patrick Donahue, aged 65, was struck by a horse, knocked down and had his collar bone broken. The driver of the horse picked up the injured man and brought him to his home in Casey Street, where he was attended by Dr. Roberts.

Remains Arrive

By Yesterday's Express. The remains of the late Martin Brown, who met his death while working at the pulp mills at Ontario several days ago, arrived by yesterday's express and were removed to his father's residence at 9 John St. Deceased, who was in his 26th year, left here at the beginning of last month in company with a number of workmen who were engaged to work at the pulp mills. While working on a chip conveyor a piece of wood flew from the machine and struck him full force on the forehead, knocked him several feet and killed him instantly. He was a native of Westville but lived in St. John's for the past eight years. Left to mourn are a widow and two young children, his father, Mr. Thomas Brown, and a large number of relatives and friends. To the bereaved family the Telegram offers sympathy.

Wedding Bells.

On Tuesday evening a quiet wedding was solemnized at Powers Court by Rev. Father Kelly, the bridal party being Miss Annie Duff, of Topsall, and Mr. Bernard Dawe, of Mansfield. The bride was attended by her sister, Winnie Duff, and the groom was supported by J. A. De. A reception was held at their future home and a very enjoyable evening was spent. All joins in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Dawe many years of wedded happiness.

Llewellyn Club Smoker and Concert.

Following the regular monthly meeting of the Llewellyn Club at the Canon Wood Hall last night, an entertainment was given. In the absence of Rev. Dr. Jones, Mr. C. E. Hunt acted as chairman, and in opening delivered a brief address. The first part of the programme consisted of songs by Rev. Mr. Moulton, Sergt. Edwards, Messrs. F. M. Ruggles, H. Courtenay, C. J. Fox, Mr. Macklin (H. M. S. Britton) and a recitation by Petty Officer Brett, all of which were splendidly rendered. A farce entitled "Winning an Heiress" followed, and was presented in a manner which delighted the large audience who were kept in roars of laughter all through, as the piece abounds in funny situations. The characters were well sustained by Messrs. F. M. Stirling, Reg. Dowden, R. W. Jeans, P. B. Rendell, F. R. Clarke, A. Carnell and W. E. Stirling. Two ladies also took part cleverly, and their identity may be discovered by standing on Monday night next, when the piece will be repeated and an admission fee of 20 cents charged. The farce was produced under the direction of Mr. H. W. Stirling, to whom, with all taking part, congratulations are due. Following the entertainment all refreshments were served and a social half hour spent, speeches, etc., being given by several of the members.
