

The Final Verdict in Ladies' Coats.

Brisk as the snow-flecked winds from pond and hill are the keen, crisp lines of the clever coats whose correct styles we have carefully selected in exclusive types of garments particularly pleasing to the woman who appreciates attractiveness as well as comfort in her winter wear.

When you buy these garments, you buy more than materials and appearance. You buy the assurance of the best in style and in making—for we select only those models which our successful experience of years tells us will hold their pre-eminence in fashionable wear throughout the season.

Some are fur-trimmed, some self-trimmed, but they include the cream of the season's most liked styles, and at prices that will please the woman looking for something especially low in good wear.

At the R. C. Cathedral, at 7 o'clock last evening, Rt. Rev. Mgr. McDermott, V.G., united in marriage Mrs. Catherine Rossiter, (nee Miss Murphy), and Mr. Thomas Carroll, formerly of King's Cove, B.B. The bride was attractively attired in a navy costume and was attended by Miss Anna Cooke, while the groomsmen were Mr. George Hammond. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the groom's brother, Capt. William Carroll, 43 William St., where the guests were royally entertained by Capt. and Mrs. Carroll. There were present many old friends of both the contracting parties, and Mr. J. M. Devine, a former townsmen of Mr. Carroll, very ably proposed the health of the bride and groom, which was responded to by the latter. The

COMPLETELY CRIPPLED

Terrible Experiences of Mr. J. Harvey. It is seldom that anyone who has been continually exposed to every weather condition does not contract some form of Kidney or Rheumatic trouble. In many cases, cold, settling in the kidneys, so weakens these important organs that they are unable to filter the waste and poison out of the blood. The latter is carried through out the body, causing uric acid to accumulate in the joints, with consequent rheumatism, stiff joints, swollen ankles, lameness, sciatica, neuralgia, constipation, burning pains in back and side and head. These ills can all be made right. GIN PILLS give quick, certain and sure relief. Send what Mr. J. Harvey writes to us:—

"I have been crippled up so completely that I could not stand. Work was out of the question. A few doses of Gin Pills put me right. I cannot praise Gin Pills too much, and every home should have a box."

Gin Pills can help you. If you suffer from backache, or have that dreadful feeling of lassitude, with floating specks before the eyes, highly-colored urine, stone in the bladder and general debility, get Gin Pills at once. At all drug stores or dealers. 50c. Money refunded if you are not relieved. A sample large enough to demonstrate its value, free on request.

NOT THE THING, BUT THE

How often we feel that some little thing that annoys us, some small interruption of our plans has spoiled our happiness when it isn't really the thing itself half so much as our feeling about it. Here's an instance of what I mean.

A friend of mine boarded last summer. He could not get rooms and board in the same house, but her room was on the street from the hotel at which she had her meals, and it took her perhaps a minute and a half to get from one to the other. That minute and a half was a thorn in her flesh.

"Really Spoils My Whole Evening." She sat in the parlor of the Inn. "And it really spoils my whole evening having to go out at that way," she declared. "Now you know, and I know, that stepping across the street but thinking that she had to do it was really spoiling her evening. If she had let herself think about it until before she went, it might have spoiled these next two or three nights, but it couldn't have spoiled whole evening."

Resentment Tired Me Most.

the sleeping porch in my sumptuous cottage is a couch that has to be pushed across the porch every night pushed back every morning. It is no castors and the man who does jobs for the summer colony used me in the spring that he put some on for me. I may as well say next summer—perhaps every day when I pushed that back I thought, "It's a shame I have to do this when it tires me. It takes a lot out of me." One day I stopped and looked at the matter in the face and realized it wasn't pushing the couch out castors so much as resentment having to do it, that really took it out of me.
