Conn the Shaughraun.

will be the Xmas attraction.

Performance of "Conn the Shaughraun" at the Casino Theatre on Christmas afternoon and night will bring out all the old-time play-goers. Few people in the city have forgotten these excellent productions of "The Man of Gold," "Fettered Lives," "The Lights of London," "The Two Orphans," "Under the Gaslight," "By Force of Impulse," "The Octopussy," "Mavourneen," and the regular repertoire put on the boards by the Old Favourites and the fact that they have now rallied once more under the management of their old Manager, Mr. T. M. White, will be an attraction in itself. "Conn the Shaughraun" is in five acts, and there are many scenic novelties, so that with music between the acts, some fine old standard songs, orchestral numbers, and a jig by the old favourite, Mr. Frank Walsh, an interesting and attractive programme is promised.

Cored apples may be filled with almost any kind of fruit and baked. The rough ends of the sirloin steak make excellent hamburger steak. Baking powder should be the last ingredient added to the cake mixture.

Too much cocoa is not good for the children; it is inclined to cause biliousness. A good egg scramble is made by adding beaten eggs to a stewpanful of fried onions.
