STATE DECLINES DISCUSSION WITH VALERA.

DUBLIN, May 9. The Irish Free State Government rejected the peace terms offered by De Valera and declined to communicate further with the Republic. President Cosgrave, in Dublin, in correspondence, conducted with De Valera by Senators Douglas and others, acting as intermediaries, correspondence showed that De Valera insisted upon an election by universal suffrage, and an assignment of barracks where their troops could be stored under Republican control. He also claimed the right of the Republic to sit in the British House of Commons, and the right of the British House of Commons to sit in the British House of Commons.

and Queen Mary in the Apostolic Palace of the Vatican at 11 o'clock this morning, with all the pomp and honors accorded to royal visitors to the Papal Court. Only King George, Queen Mary and Mrs. Russell, wife of the Hon. Theophilus Russell, British Minister to the Holy See, were present at the audience. The function was followed by a luncheon at Palazzo Chigi, given by Mr. Russell in honor of the visiting sovereigns.

Great Lakes, the Mississippi, and the Potomac Rivers and in the salt waters of the Atlantic and also the Pacific at San Pedro, Cal., and Astoria, Ore. Various modifications of copper oleate will be tried in order to determine the best method of using it for fresh waters.

MINARD'S LINTMENT FOR DIS-TEMPER.

Canadian Trade With U.S. Decreased in 1922.

OTTAWA, Ont.--Canada's foreign trade for 1922 amounted to $1,647,701,892, or an increase of more than $45,000,000 over 1921, according to the report of the federal department of trade and commerce. Total imports for the year amounted to $762,339,309, the report shows. Total exports reached $884,362,583. The year closed with a favorable trade balance of $122,023,274.

Great Britain was Canada's best customer during 1922 and the United States was second, according to the report. England purchased Canadian products to the extent of $374,751,894, an increase of more than $65,000,000 over 1921, while the United States purchased $340,156,247 worth of goods, an increase of about $14,000,000 over 1921. A surprising feature of the report is the fact that Canada's purchases from the United States during 1922 showed a decline as compared with 1921, amounting to $506,823,760, as against $555,091,000, a falling off of $48,267,240. Canada's purchases from Great Britain showed an increase in value of more than $13,000,000, jumping from $123,149,776 in 1921, to $136,866,285, last year.

"Columbia" Ready for the Water.

Gloucester's latest addition to the fishing fleet, the Columbia, will be launched about April, or as soon as the ice is out of the Essex River, and will engage in the salt fishery out of that port.

The new schooner, hailed as a contender for honors in the annual international fishermen's race, has been built for fishing rather than for racing, and no fishing trip will be abandoned in order that she may take part in the elimination races to choose the representative of the American fishing fleet, her owners, the Columbia Associates announced recently.

Whether the Columbia will ever gain racing honors or not, however, she will have a racing captain. The owners of the schooner have signed as skipper Captain Aiden Geale of Yarmouth, N.S., part owner of the schooner Elsie when she lost to the Canadian Bluenose two years ago. Capt. Geale arrived in Gloucester recently to take charge of the Columbia as soon as conditions permit. He states that a great many Nova Scotia fishermen are looking for sites to go in American vessels, and that he expects to have the best crew of salt fishermen for the Columbia that ever sailed on a trip. As soon as the vessel is ready, Capt. Geale will go to Shelburne, N.S., and the Columbia will sail from there to the banks.

If the Columbia ever races the present champion of the fleets, the Bluenose, the schooner would be meeting on an even footing for the first time in the history of the international competition, Gloucester men say. Controversies of the past in connection with the races have had as their basis largely the fact that the majority of the American fishermen were built for gathering their catch and speeding to market with the fish still fresh, while Canadian fishermen catch and salt their fish in leisurely manner and carry larger cargoes back to port.

The Columbia is still on the stocks at the yards in Essex where the Henry Ford, unsuccessful in last year's international race, was built. She was designed by Arthur D. Story, designer of the Ford. The new schooner's masts will not be as high as the Ford's, and according to the owners, she will come within every requirement laid down by the international race committee.
