

PEPPY BEHIND THE SCENES.

May 1st.—To Water Street, where good fortune was to find some very good silk neckties, such as I have needed this long time, and was resolved to do without no longer. But the price so little as many other shopmen showing me the nonce, how I did forget for the nonce, how I was in my balance with my banker, and did buy myself some hose shoes also. So out, talking with Baird, Sir P. McGrath joins us and our talk turning towards politics did have good discourse of the rumours which beset the town. Indeed, there is so much talk of the greater part of it fit only to be ignored, and the rest of it taken to be true is Mr. Monroe, he with Mr. Warren, and the announcement of their party to be announced tomorrow. The fact is, no longer with Warren and Higgins, and some do say Mr. Hickman will join him in an opposition. A good tale I heard today of an American commercial man, who being told of a stranger called the Iceland gouser, wrote it to the Herald sheet of New York. The animal described to us as having two short legs on the side, and two long legs on the other, and the purpose of them so the gouser can run around fees, and this the American did take good faith.

Killing Romance of the English Turf

is exciting as a bank robbery. In a manner has the English racing classic, "Son of Kissing Cup," at the Nickel Theatre last night when described. And the description is one which aptly suits it. The leading role is seen a female believed by thousands and thousands of picture fans across the Atlantic to be the most beautiful actress of the silver sheet throughout British Isles. Opposite her is a Stewart Rome, supported by a cast. The outstanding feature of the picture is the winning of the England's master horse, with the England's premier jockey at the Derby at Epsom Downs, at very last moment just when it was race is about to start with programme of singing by the Harrod Chataqua Singers is exceptionally high order, with variety. The opening number, "Carroll's Kings," was rendered with noticeable expression and was well applauded. The Jubilee Shout "Jericho," was something different from anything yet heard by the singers, and any who missed it last night should take it in

Nova's Turn Out

The following is the official specification of seals, weight, value of cargo, turned out by the S.S. Terra Nova—16,242 young hares, 188 young hares, 2,009 bedlamers, 322 old hares, 419 tons, 19 cwt. 19 lbs. weight, 400 tons, 19 cwt. 19 lbs. The young hares averaged 4 lbs. The total value of cargo $36,000. The crew of 160 men shared each.

Dwyer Sisters Get Big Ovation

The Dwyer Sisters scored a wonderful hit last night at the Crescent. The character act has been termed by patrons as "the best yet." These performers are real dancers from every standpoint. Their songs "She's a Lass for Me" and "A Wee Doe and" were rendered in their own charming manner, whilst Salter's waltz dance was vigorously applauded. The finishing number was a Scotch Dance which was indeed very executed. This is a feast of entertainment and we advise all to be at the Crescent to-night. The title of the Westbound train. The title is not misleading. It is a promise of speed and action. Besides the appeal of simple life there is a youthful romance and enough intrigue and action to make many thrills. There are several exceptionally dramatic situations skillfully photographed, as for the scene of the signal fires separate attempt to prevent a wreck. It is a beautiful finish to the picture that all will enjoy. But above all, it is a picture that is a picture. The acting act by the best team now in St. John's, the Dwyer Sisters.
