Who Got the Money?

La Minerve publishes two affidavits, one signed by two of the proprietors and the other by the editors, declaring that that journal has never received any money from Sir Hugh Allan or his agents...

They are having very hot weather in England—so hot, that one of the jurymen in the Tichborne case fainted from the effects of it.

From Toronto to Manitoulin.

A former resident of Puslinch, now of Manitoulin, sends us the following interesting sketch of a journey recently made from Toronto to Manitoulin.

We leave Toronto by the Northern Railway, from the station below the City Hall, and move slowly westward through a maze of rails and switches...
