COAL DEALERS DIDN'T

rassed by Answers of the Coal Men

Ottawa, Sept. 29.—Acting Cost of Living Commissioner W. F. O'Connor has been trying to find out the exact coal situation throughout the country, in order that the fuel controller may take action to assist dealers who are having difficulty in seend a circular was sent to dealers throughout Canada last month asking them for exact particulars as to the tonnage required by them and also the names of those with whom they had placed orders for coal. The circular particularly requested this specific information so that the fuel controller may act intelligently. It was stated at Mr. O'Connor's office today that 75 per cent of the replies in answer to the circular did not contain the information asked for. Although many of the dealers stated that they were unable to get their orders for coal filled, they falled to furnish specific information as to the amount required, etc. The fuel controller therefore finds himself handi-
