DIESBOURG—McGUIRE.

A pretty wedding took place at St. Peter's Cathedral this morning, when Mr. T. P. Diesbourg, formerly of Belle River, was united in marriage to Miss Susie McGuire, of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Aylward, after which high mass was celebrated. Miss Anna Nuttall acted as bridesmaid, while Mr. F. McGuire, brother of the bride, supported the groom. After a dainty wedding breakfast at the residence of the bride's mother, the happy couple left by the C. P. R. for Detroit and points west.

DEATH OF FORMER LONDON RESIDENT.

Mr. Walter Simson, of London, attended the funeral at Ottawa.

A PEERLESS SPRING HEALTH BUILDER.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

The Wonderful Curing Medicine.

Wherever men and women work, strive and battle with life's duties and responsibilities, Paine's Celery Compound is regarded as a true friend and helper. In shop, office, factory, and among the weary wives and mothers who bear the burden of domestic work, Paine's Celery Compound is prolonging life by strengthening every bodily function and driving out disease.

Paine's Celery Compound is a peerless Spring medicine in all cases of enfeebled nerves, foul blood, kidney disease, rheumatism neuralgia, and dyspepsia. The virtues of the great medicine subdue and banish the most obstinate cases of disease.

Mr. R. W. Daniels, Lawrencetown, N. S., writes thus:

"I feel constrained, for the benefit of suffering humanity, to add my testimony to the wonderful effects of Paine's Celery Compound. I was induced to try your Compound through its wonderful effects upon a Mr. Parks. I had previously used a vast quantity of patent and doctors' medicines, only to find myself growing weaker. After using your Paine's Celery Compound, to the number of five bottles, I gained 43½ pounds, and I am able to work hard all day as a mason with comfort to myself. I feel like a new man, which condition I owe to the blessing of God and your Paine's Celery Compound."

MORE SMALLPOX CASES.

Toronto, May 6.—Dr. Bryce has received a report of a case of smallpox in Glengary county. This is a district hitherto free from the disease. Two cases are reported from Camden township, Victoria county, where about twenty already exist as a result of the attendance at a dance of a person with the disease.

GAVE HIM A SOLDIER'S FAREWELL!

No. 1 Co., R. C. R. I., Says Good-Bye to Lieut.-Col. Buchan.

Gallant Officer Banqueted at Wolseley Barracks on the Eve of His Departure for Toronto.

Lieut.-Col. Buchan, who served with such conspicuous gallantry with the special service battalion of the Royal Canadian Regiment of Infantry throughout the South African campaign, was given a soldier's farewell by No. 1 Company, R.C.R.I., yesterday morning on the occasion of his departure for Toronto, where he will take command of the entire regiment.

The company paraded on the barrack's square, at 9:30 a.m., marched to the drill shed, and from thence, headed by the 7th regiment band, to the Grand Trunk depot where they were drawn up to await Lieut.-Col. Buchan's arrival. The company was in charge of Major Septimus Denison, the bronzed veteran of Lord Roberts' staff, and presented an unusually smart appearance.

At the depot, where a great crowd had assembled, the 7th regiment band played "The Girl I Left Behind Me," "Home, Sweet Home" and other airs dear to the soldier's heart. When Lieut.-Col. Buchan appeared at the door of the railway carriage, the soldiers sent up a cheer such as only soldiers' lungs are capable of. The colonel bowed his thanks, and as the train pulled out the band again struck up "Home, Sweet Home."

OFFICERS BANQUET.

Saturday evening Major Denison and the officers of Wolseley Barracks tendered Lieut.-Col. Buchan a banquet at the barracks. Among those who sat down to the repart were Lieut.-Col. Peters, D.O.C.; Lieut.-Col. Smith, commanding officer of the 7th Regiment; Major Septimus Denison, Capt. Carpenter and Major Belton, R. C. R. I.; Major H. Cronyn, 7th Regiment; Judge Elliot, and Messrs. G. C. Gibbons, K.C., Adam Beck, P. W. D. Brodrick, G. Harris, Campbell Becher, G. Brown, Kilgour, Beddome, Inglis, H. Carling, Leonard and Smallman.

After the dinner was over and the tables had been cleared, Major Denison proposed the gallant colonel's health, referring, in so doing, to the latter's splendid record in South Africa when in command of the Royal Canadian Regiment of Infantry, more especially at Paardeberg, and expressed the deep regret everyone in London felt at parting with so good a friend and so gallant a soldier. He wished him, at the same time, every success in Toronto, where he is also well known.

Col. Buchan feelingly replied, expressing the keen sorrow he felt at leaving London, more especially No. 1 regimental depot. He had made many friends in London, and the memory of the city and its people would remain a green spot in his life. He was repeatedly cheered during his remarks, at the close of which the entire company arose and sang "He's a Jolly Good Fellow," with a three times three, and "Auld Lang Syne."

Lieut.-Col. Peters, D. O. C., also expressed his regret. Lieut.-Col. Buchan and he were old friends, and he could only say that a better officer and man he had never met. He wished him every success in his future home.

The company broke up with the singing of "God Save the King."

The dinner was served under the supervision of the mess caterer, Sergt. Harry Kibbler, and, needless to say, was excellent in every detail.

Lieut.-Col. Buchan is one of the most popular officers with the rank and file ever connected with the R. C. R. I. He is worshipped by his men and respected by his fellow-officers, and his departure for Toronto occasions genuine regret, not only among his military associates, but among the citizens of London at large, among whom he had many warm friends. Col. Buchan's record is too well known and his recent achievements in South Africa are too recent to require comment. On the memorable morning of Feb. 27, 1900, when the Canadians were ordered to attack Cronje's laager, Col. Buchan led the half battalion in that terrible but glorious charge, in which so many brave young Canadian gave up their lives for the empire. He came through the arduous campaign without wounds and with great distinction. When honors were being distributed by the imperial war office, Col. Buchan was not forgotten. He was made a C. M. G., a distinction which but few Canadians, comparatively, enjoy.

WALL STREET FEVERISH!

Sharp Advances Followed by Declines and Marked Irregularity.

New York, May 6.—Wall Street—The market opened in a state of wild excitement, and with blocks of from 1,000 to 25,000 shares taken on a rapidly rising scale in a large number of the principal stocks. The grangers, Pacific, trunk lines and southwesterns were all notably affected, and there were striking gains in the southern group and among the leading industrials. The rise was foreshadowed in the London market, where St. Paul had been advanced 4⅞, Union Pacific 2¼ and other prominent stocks from 1 to 2 points. A number of the leading industrials advanced from 1 to 2 points. There were further advances after the opening in many stocks, but the heavy volume of realizing invited by the sharp advances, made a quick impression on the market, and there were relapses of 1 to 1½. The market became very feverish and irregular and the volume of dealings was large.

London, May 6.—Americans were the chief center of attraction on the stock exchange today, which was increasingly excited with active buying. Beside the sensational advance in St. Paul, Northern Pacific, common reached 113. After a strong opening irregularity developed with rapid fluctuations.

A rumor has it that the Standard Oil interests, now uppermost in the Central, will build a chain of luxurious hotels in Mexico to attract tourists.

THE HAPPINESS OF HEALTH.—Exhilaration is the ripple and laughter of pure blood as it courses through the veins. South American Kidney Cure drives out all impurities and insures the richness and purity that is essential to perfect health— successful because it merits it—popular because it fulfills every promise—a kidney medicine solely and purely. It never fails. For sale by C. McCallum & Co.—126.

RIGO WAS BOUGHT OFF.

Princess Chimay's Family Pays Him to Keep From the Stage.

The King's Carriage Coming to Canada—Will Be Used by the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall.

London, May 6. — Princess Chimay, with Rigo, leaves London today for Carlsbad, returning here in June, to stay till September. Negotiations for Rigo's appearance on the stage, either in London or America, are all off owing to an arrangement concluded the other day before Consul-General Osborne.

"I had an offer to play in private houses in New York," said Rigo, "at a salary of $1,000 for each appearance. This meant $100,000 for the season for certain, but out of deference for the wishes of my wife's family I have declined all engagements now and forever. We signed an agreement to this effect before the consul, I myself never to appear at a public performance again.

"This means a big loss for me, but the family was very generous, making settlements to compensate for the loss. We are anxious now to avoid all publicity, and to live quietly in the future. I love playing the violin, but shall do so only in private in the future."

COMMENT ON McKINLEY'S TOUR.

London, May 6.—Commenting editorially upon the "exceptional circumstances of President McKinley's tour and its party objects," the Times refers to his "use of language at New Orleans, which, in a liberal sense, might be adopted by the Cobden Club," and adds: "If by seven weeks of unremitting toil he can obtain an acceptance for these principles among the American people, he will be able to look back upon them as the best spent weeks of his political life."

THE KING'S CARRIAGE.

London, May 6.—In reply to a request from the governor-general of Canada, one of the King's carriages will be sent over to the Dominion for the use of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall during their approaching visit, and it is possible that two or more royal servants will be sent also. The vehicle will not be one of the semi-state conveyances, similar to that sent to the Antipodes, but a plain road landau, such as the late Queen ordinarily used when driving privately in London.

BLACKS AND GRAYS.

London, May 6.—Though public mourning for the late Queen is supposed to be over, the people seem loath to leave off their sombre garments too suddenly. In society circles there will not be much brightness in clothing. Gray, black and white, with touches of mauve, are all that are to be seen in ladies' dresses in the parks, the stands, at race meetings, and the restaurants. The men are all in blacks and grays, without a touch of color, though in the city the sombre black and dark grays will give way to light tweeds and fancy waistcots, but even in these there is no indication of anything startling. In fact, rather quiet colors will be used by those few who affect them.

It seems to be taken for granted that the single-breasted frock coat, which enjoyed a very limited popularity last year, is to be discarded.

Among the smart set it is pretty evident, judging from displays in West End shop windows and the stocks provided by society tailors of the first rank, that blacks and grays will continue to be worn right through the summer.

DEWET LOCATED,

But He Has Few Followers With Him—Cave of Ammunition Discovered—Merritt's Offer.

Harrismith, May 6. —Dewet has been located in the vicinity of Kroonstadt. He has but a few followers with him, and he is reported to be unable to raise a sufficiently large force to again assume the offensive.

The outlook is regarded here as being much brighter than it has been since the war began. Many Boers are surrendering daily. A large number are in a starving condition, and all of them are in a state of destitution, and looking thoroughly sick of the war.

It has transpired that Louis Botha had very narrow escapes both on his march to join Dewet and on his return to the Transvaal. The British scouts peppered him hotly on the two occasions when he crossed the Vaal.

Standerton, May 5.—It is reported that a cave has been discovered in the northeast corner of the Orangs River Colony, which has been used for some considerable time back as an arsenal by the Boers. It is here that Dewet has three times replenished his stock of arms and ammunition. The military authorities had hitherto been greatly mystified at the source of Dewet's supply.

Ottawa, May 5.—The militia department has received a cable from the colonial office, asking that Major Merritt's offer to raise a regiment of men for South Africa be kept open until the end of the month. From this it is inferred that the imperial authorities are still considering the offer.

ARTHUR COLEY LIVES

Not Dead, as Many of His Friends Thought He Would Be.

Swan Lake, Man., May 6.—A young man is living here today whom many people in and about Somerset, Man., no doubt think to be in the grave. His name is Arthur Coley, and when he left Somerset in 1894 he was in the last stages of Bright's disease and diabetes. "Many will be surprised, I am sure, to find that I am alive," says Mr. Coley, "for I was utterly prostrated with Bright's disease and diabetes.

"I did not expect to live. Now I am able thankfully to say that pain and weakness are unknown to me. I am a farmer, and can now do as hard a day's work as anyone, whereas before using Dodd's Kidney Pills I was given up to die with Bright's disease and diabetes. This was in 1894. I am well today. Dodd's Kidney Pills saved my life. They cure to stay cured."

CHATHAM WOMAN'S NERVE AND BRAVERY.

Saved Her Little Child From Being Killed by a Runaway Team.

Chatham, Ont., May 6.—Mrs. Coleman, at the risk of almost certain death Saturday afternoon, rescued her baby from under the hoofs of a runaway team of horses.

George Emery, of Dover, was driving past the market, when the whiffletree struck the legs of the horses, and they bolted along King street at a terrific rate. The tongue slipped from the neck-yoke in front of Turrill's store, struck the curb, and the race came to a halt. The jar caused by the suddenness of the stop threw Mr. Emery headlong to the pavement. The horses dashed on the sidewalk and plunged into the large plate-glass window in front of Turrill's store. Mrs. Coleman at the time was in the store making some purchases, but had left her two-year-old baby sitting in its carriage outside.

Hearing the crash of glass, she, with a mother's instinct, ran for her child, and, in some marvelous manner, succeeded in getting her babe from under the horses' feet. She then ran into the doorway, and had barely time to do so before the carriage was smashed into atoms.

Mr. Emery, who was thrown to the pavement, was rendered unconscious, and received some severe bruises on the head and body. Mr. Turrill estimates his loss on the stock in the window at $200.

ANNUAL CAMP BEGINS JUNE 4!

Cavalry May Pitch Their Tents in Queen's Park This Year.

The first annual militia camp of instruction for No. 1 military district, will commence at Carling's Heights on June 4, and the second camp on June 18. The camp of 1901 promises, for a variety of reasons, to be a highly important one. To begin with, it is to witness a radical reform in the matter of dress. By a district order, the commanding officers of regiments are instructed to select such material as they may deem best suited to the needs of their men for drill purposes. Then, again, there is likely to be more attention paid to shooting and less to complicated movements that have little practical bearing on actual warfare. The presence of returned South African veterans in nearly all the regiments will add materially to their efficiency.

It is not improbable that the cavalry corps will this year camp in Queen's Park instead of on Carling's Heights with the infantry. Lieut.-Col. Peters, D.O.C., is understood to be in favor the change, and it is likely that, if suitable arrangements can be made, it will be carried out.

A LONDON BOY IN THE U. S. ARMY.

How Sergt. Howell Won Promotion Over the Heads of His Superiors.

That Canadians can succeed quite as well in the United States army as in other walks of life across the border, has been demonstrated by Percy C. Howell, of Company F, 42nd Regiment, U. S. V., at present on service in the Philippine Islands. Mr. Howell, who is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Howell, Grand avenue, South London, and a brother of Howell Bros., jewelers, Windsor, left London two years ago and joined the American army at Detroit. Writing from Malabon, under recent date, Mr. Howell announces his appointment as first sergeant of his company, the highest rank that can be held by an enlisted man. In receiving this appointment he jumped over the heads of ten non-commissioned officers. Sergt. Howell is attached to the paymaster's department, and in that department is responsible for the accuracy and neatness of the company's books. It is significant, as showing how successful he has been in his work, that on the occasion of the inspector-general's visit to regimental headquarters, Sergt. Howell was complimented on the condition of his books, the paymaster remarking that they were the cleanest of any company books he had seen in the district. Sergt. Howell's promotion caused no petty jealousies, as is often the case. Instead, so great is his popularity, he has received at all times the hearty co-operation of those with whom he is associated.

The Advertiser is indebted to Sergt. Howell for several Manila exchanges giving detailed accounts of the capture of Aguinaldo by Gen. Funston.

"AN OUTRAGE," SAID THE ENGINEER

Mr. Graydon Scores the Street Railway Company for Mismanagement.

Big-sized blessings of a rather peculiar kind were being showered upon the street railway company by the city engineer yesterday. It was apparent that Mr. Graydon thought the company was just the meanest kind of a soulless corporation.

"They ought to have their franchise taken away," was his introduction to an angry speech delivered at the city hall. "Do you know what they did?" and when his audience inclined its head negatively, he added. "They put on three extra Springbank cars Saturday afternoon and made half-hour trips. I don't know how many people they had down there, but there was a crowd. Then, when the people were there the extra cars were taken off, and they couldn't get home. They were hanging on the cars like flies, and lots had to wait more than two hours. It was a shameful thing to do. It was an outrage, that's what it was, and I mean to let the company know it, too." And he did.

The reported purchase of the Dominion Line by J. P. Morgan is denied by the management.

PROMISED TO MARRY HER

Harry Wilkinson Gained Young Woman's Confidence, Then Stole Her Money.

Harry Wilkinson was convicted in Magistrate Love's court yesterday of stealing from Miss Isabella Cockburn, the young woman whose confidence he gained under a promise of marriage. He was remanded until today for sentence.

According to the evidence of Miss Cockburn, if Wilkinson ever possessed any manly instincts he has forgotten them long since. He first met her at a boarding-house in 1899, and inside of a month their acquaintance had ripened into a warm friendship. Under a promise of marriage, Wilkinson induced her to give him money at various times. When he finally left town he had succeeded in getting his hands on over $100 cash, a gold watch and chain and a silver watch. After that Miss Cockburn heard nothing from her prospective husband, and it was not until she complained to the police that he was located.

The name of Manager C. E. A. Carr, of the London Street Railway Company, appeared on the court blotter this morning. The company is charged with the breach of a bylaw in having left their cars standing in the street at the East End over Sunday. The case was enlarged until Wednesday.

Maurice Baldwin, who seems to have a penchant for police court proceedings, was charged with leaving a wagon on the street. He was allowed to go on suspended sentence.

Three sidewalk riders were fined and four drunks were discharged.

IMPORTING SMALLPOX

A Number of Cases Discovered Among Passengers Newly Arrived at New York From European Ports.

New York, May 6.—The unusually large immigration from Italy this spring is responsible for a number of smallpox cases on board incoming steamers. The resources of the quarantine station at this port are being taxed to the utmost. There were 600 detained passengers on Hoffman Island last night; this morning the quarantine boat is transferring 300 more from the steamer Werra which arrived yesterday from Naples with three smallpox patients. The Vincenzo Florio, which arrived this morning from Naples with 908 steerage passengers, also brought a case of smallpox.

Almost every steamer which arrived this month from Naples brought smallpox to the port.

New Canal Treaty.

London, May 6.—The Associated Press has been officially notified that Lord Pauncefote has received from Secretary Hay the draft of a new Nicaragua Canal treaty. It is understood that it advises neutrality.

AT THE CAPITAL

Two Vacant Seats in the Senate To Be Filled—More "Conscience Money" Comes In.

[Special to Advertiser.]

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, May 6.—The death of Senator Ross of Quebec leaves two vacancies in the senate. The other one is for Halifax, to fill the place of the late Senator Almon. The Conservatives' majority after these vacancies have been filled will be reduced to nine, and three of these are found frequently supporting the government. If the Liberals would attend they have now a sufficient number to outvote their opponents, because there are a number of Conservatives on account of failing health who cannot attend. The voting in the senate shows that when the Liberals reached 35 they would virtually control the upper chamber.

MORE CONSCIENCE MONEY.

A cable received at the customs department announces that the same London woman who a few days ago sent £50 conscience money to the high commissioner's office, has sent another £25 for the same purpose.

HE WILL STAY IN LONDON

Mr. C. R. Sayer Refuses the Offer of the South Bend, Ind., Association.

Secretary C. R. Sayer's many friends in London will learn with satisfaction that he has decided not to accept the very flattering offer made him by the Y. M. C. A. directors of South Bend, Ind.

BASEBALL.

In the list of baseball players who are expected to bring the Canadian League pennant to this city, published in Saturday's Advertiser, the name of Outfielder Thomas Carroll was inadvertently omitted. Mr. Carroll is one of the strongest men on the team, and, like the majority of his fellow-players, is a London man. He played last year with the Pastimes, the crack amateur organization which won so many hard-fought battles.

The Pastimes have reorganized for the season, and are having steady practice. The team is composed of the following well-known amateurs: W. Clarke, first base; R. Carroll, second base; F. Vanderburg, third base; W. Ward, shortstop; F. Maul, G. Neilson and W. Wilson, outfield; Demner, Laundry and Lepper, battery.

Angelina Duval, a servant, fell from a third story window of a house on St. Catharine street, in Montreal, and was killed.

TO PREVENT IS BETTER THAN TO REPENT.—A little medicine in the shape of the wonderful pellets which are known as Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, administered at the proper time and with the directions adhered to often prevent a serious attack of sickness and save money which would go to the doctor. In all irregularities of the digestive organs they are an invaluable corrective and by cleansing the blood they clear the skin of imperfections.

Jamieson & Co., 169 La Salle street, Chicago, one of the largest stock-broking firms in the west, have suspended.

A LIFE SAVED.—Mr. James Bryson, Cameron, writes: "I was confined to my bed with inflammation of the lungs, and was given up by the physicians. A neighbor advised me to try Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, stating that his wife had used it for a throat trouble with the best results. Acting on his advice, I procured the medicine, and less than half a bottle cured me; I certainly believe it saved my life. It was with reluctance that I consented to a trial, as I was reduced to such a state that I doubted the power of any remedy to do me any good."
