Two Little Guelph Girls Seriously lil After Eating Confection.

Guelph, April 30.-The two little daughters of Mr. Edward Taylor, Aberfoyle, are seriously ill, supposedly as the result of eating candy, a package of which they purchased from a Hespeler storekeeper. Shortly after eating the contents they were both taken seriously ill, and the condition of the younger one became so critical that powerful stimulants had to be employed to revive her. The doctor stated the children had been poisoned, and attributed it to eating the candy. An investigation will likely be held.

London, April 30 .- A Daily Mail correspondent wiring from Mogador, Morocco, via Tangier, on Saturday reports:

"A series of murders, probably unexampled in the annals of crime, was traced last week to a native cobbler named Hadj Mohammed Mesfewi. Under his shop in the Rayad Zeitoun, no fewer than 26 corpses were unearthed. This led to the discovery of ten more in a yard which had been rented by the murderer. All these victims were women. Mesfewi will be crucified on Thursday next, when an immense concourse of spectators is certain. This form of capital punishment has not been practiced within living memory."
