Think Men Who Sacrificed Themselves Should Have Fair Play.

At a meeting of the Returned Soldiers' Association last night in their clubrooms at 380 Richmond street, a clubrooms at 380 Richmond street, a resolution was passed stating that the association, after the reception of the soldiers returning tomorrow, would have nothing to do with the Soldiers' Aid Commission if Secretary Ed Lance of the Sportsmen's Patriotic Association was connected with it in any way. This ould apply to other associations as

The feeling of the meeting was that the two associations, the Soldiers' Aid Commission and the Returned Soldiers' ssociation, should work together, and hat there should be no friction between them. This can not be, they think, if Mr. Lance is connected with it. They stated that they had proof for every charge they can bring against him.
Financial Matters.

The finances of the association were discussed, and a detailed account read of all the money received and expended since the inception of the organization. The total amount spent so far is $415.11. The balance remaining is $806.97.
