TWO CITIES FALL
TO REBEL FORCES

Scutari and Alessio Are Captured After Two Days' Fighting.

Associated Press Despatch.
Belgrade, Jugoslavia, Dec. 23.—
The capture of Scutari and Alessio, 17 miles from Scutari, by insurgents after two days' hard fighting, is confirmed by newspaper despatches now received. Former Prefect Bayrovitch of Scutari was killed.

A fierce struggle is reported in the region of Elbasan, which was attacked by a column of insurgents debouching from Alvena, and also in Mourit Pass, nine miles from Tirana.
There the insurgents last night captured four field guns and six machine guns.

Former President Ahmed Zogu, who is directing operations against Tirana, was yesterday 15 miles from the capital.

WINS BY STRATEGY.
By HIRAM K. MODERWELL, Special Cable to The Advertiser, and the Chicago Daily News. Copyright, 1924.

Tirana, Dec. 22.—The success of the present attack on Albania is due to the strategy of Ahmed Bey Zogu, who a week ago launched his independent army, which was divided into three main bodies, each with different objectives. These drew off the small Albanian standing army, which tried to repel the invaders. And meanwhile the main attack developed against the Dibra sector and the invaders had pushed on half way to Tirana before the Albanian reserves could mobilize and concentrate their forces.

Move in Serbia.
It is charged that the invaders were transferred from the sector to another on Serbian soil by Serbian commanders. The invaders are savage toward the recalcitrants in the village.

On Sunday, when the battle for the defence of the Albanian capital began, the invading force was shown to be a well-organized army. The Albanian government forces, which were scattered, were bound to go against the Albanian standing army, which tried
to repel the invaders. And mean-
against the Dibra sector and the invaders had pushed on half way to Tirana before the Albanian reserves could mobilize and concentrate their forces.
